Ride the Christmas Train!

During Moonlight Madness, We will be offering rides on the Christmas Train to all the little ones who would like to take a trip around downtown with Santa and his elves. The train station will be situated in the Borderland Co-op Marketplace parking lot. As well, we will be handing out hot chocolate and treats to help keep the shoppers warm while they bustle about taking advantage of all the deals our local stores will be offering. Christmas Train provided by Flaman.

Find Cooper!

Borderland Co-op's Mascot, Cooper will be travelling around to different stores during Moonlight Madness! He has a Santa Sack full of coupons and special offers from local businesses!

The staff at Flaman in Moosomin spread some Christmas cheer at last year's Moonlight madness in Moosomin with a lit-up wagon complete with Santa, his elves and reindeer. The staff handed out hot chocolate and candy canes to everyone they came across. This year the Flaman staff are building a Holiday Train for Moonlight Madness on Wednesday. Borderland Co-op's mascot Cooper, in the photo at lower right, will be around on Moonlight Madness as well, with a Santa sack full of coupons and special offers from Moosomin businesses.

Moonlight Madness in Moosomin Wednesday, Nov. 30

The Moosomin Chamber of Commerce made plans for Moonlight Madness at its latest meeting. Chamber secretary Kevin Weedmark said at the meeting that stores will be open until 9 pm that night and many stores will be holding Moonlight Madness sales.

Weedmark told Chamber members that the Chamber will be distributing Moonlight Madness cash cards to all the businesses again. Shoppers can ask for a card at the first business they shop at that night. Each card can be stamped at five businesses that night and left at the last business a person shops at. They will then be entered into three draws for Moosomin Bucks—one for $500, one for $250 and one for $100.

Tera Harper with Borderland Co-op spoke about plans to have their mascot, Cooper, out that night, with a sack full of coupons for discounts and giveaways at local businesses.

"In the past Cooper has gone out from 5-8 pm and businesses have given coupons that can have anything on them—freebies, discounts, whatever you think to get people to come into your business," she said.

Cooper will also have a $100 Borderland Co-op gift card in his bag. Harper said businesses wanting to include coupons in the bag can contact her.

Mark Steining, the manager at Flamans in Moosomin, spoke about his staff's plans to have a "Christmas train" giving rides that evening.

"Last year we built a wagon and took it downtown and had Santa Claus on it, and lots of people were wanting to go for rides, and we weren't set up for that," said Steining.

"This year we are building a Christmas Train. It will have five cars behind it. These are wagons built for pulling behind ATVs and they are robust. Anyone can ride—kids, families."

Steining said Borderland Co-op was helping Flamans with hot chocolate for that night, and that the students in the high school art class are painting the sides of the train cars.

The train station will be set up at the Borderland Co-op Marketplace parking lot.

CP Holiday Train coming this Sunday, December 4

On Sunday, Dec. 4, the CP Holiday Train will visit both Virden and Moosomin.

The train will begin the day with a stop in Virden at 10:30 am, and will stop in Moosomin at 12 noon for a performance.

When the train stops, there will be performances by singer-songwriter Dallas Smith, and alt-rock band The Odds.

Since its launch in 1999, the program has raised more than $12 million and 3.9 million pounds of food for communities along CP's routes in Canada and the northern U.S.

"For nearly 20 years, CP has watched communities turn out to enjoy a wonderful event while taking a stand against hunger," said Hunter Harrison, CP's Chief Executive Officer. "We are proud of the role the Holiday Train plays, but more importantly, we're proud of the people and families that come out year after year to help their neighbors. They're the reason we keep bringing the train back."

Every pound of food and dollar raised at each stop stays with the local food bank to help feed those in need in that community.

The Moosomin Food Bank will be collecting food donations at the Moosomin stop.

The CP Holiday Train stop in Moosomin will be just one of the events supporting the Moosomin Food Bank on Sunday.

After the Holiday Train stop, the Moosomin Carol Festival will have two sessions, at 2 pm and 7 pm at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Donations for the food bank will be accepted at the carol festival.

Elkhorn plans Light Up Night Parade

Elkhorn will be holding its Christmas light up on Saturday, Dec. 3.

The theme of the day is "it's a wonderful life" and stores and business owners will be encouraged to decorate the village along those lines.

A trade show will be held with vendors at the Legion from 1-5 pm. A movie will be shown from 2-4 pm that day followed by a visit from Santa at the Elks Hall. Sleigh rides around town will start at 3:30 pm at the Elks Hall and at 4 pm hot dogs, hot chocolate and cookies will be sold on main street. There will also be face painting.

There will be sparkle tattoos and caricatures at the library from 1-5 pm.

At 5:15 pm the tree light up will be held, and at 5:45 pm there will be a parade on the village's main street.

Stores will be open until 7 pm that night.

Carollers at Rocanville's Tree Lighting Night last year

Christmas shopping events this week

Businesses in just about every town in the area are planning special events to kick off the Christmas shopping season over the next few days.

A few of the events coming up:

Rocanville

Businesses in the town of Rocanville will be open for late night shopping on Thursday, Dec. 1, Thursday, Dec. 8 and Thursday, Dec. 15.

Thursday, Dec. 1 will also be Rocanville's tree lighting down town. There will also be a Christmas trade show that night at Hope Congregational Church in support of Rocanville Aquatic Centre, and the pool will be hosting a bake sale.

There will be a wiener roast at 7:15 that night with free hot dogs and drinks sponsored by Borderland Co-op. The wiener roast will be at the fire hall, and people are asked to bring their own wiener stick.

There will be horse drawn hay rides from 4-6 pm. There will be free hot dogs served from 4:30-7:30 pm, and Santa will arrive for photos at 5 pm.

Businesses will be open into the evening, and there will be a free movie at the United Church Community Centre at 7 pm.

Redvers

Santa will be back in town and the community of Redvers is throwing a parade to welcome him. This year's parade will be on Thursday, December 1.

The parade goes at 5:30 pm and Santa and Mrs. Claus will be making an appearance at Purity Relaxation and Beauty Spa on Main Street from 6-7:30 pm for Christmas lists and photos.

Some local stores plan to be open late on Thursday.

Last year's parade included 15 floats.

Wawota

Wawota is planning a Santa Day and customer appreciation day for Friday, Dec. 2. Starting at 3:30 pm, there will be free skating and snacks at the Wawota Forum, and at 4 pm there will be crafts with the day care.

Esterhazy

Esterhazy is holding its Moonlight Madness event this Thursday, Dec. 1.

Stores will be open late, and the Maple Leaf Theatre will be playing Christmas movies for the kids until 9 pm.
