www.porchlighthouse.com

It is hard to believe Hearing & Wellness by Porch Light has been open for a year already! We would like to thank everyone for the support and words of encouragement.

The past year has been quite an exciting time. Our summer give away went over very well.

We also had the privilege to donate a pair of Starkey Phantom SoundGear custom hearing protection for the Mounted Shooting Competition. And now we are excited to bring to you our Christmas Promotion!

Let's Celebrate!

We have 3 pairs of premium level hearing aids available at a discount, regularly priced at $8737.50, reduced to $6000.00, for the pair. That's a savings of over $2000.00! Those who get their hearing tested in December 2023, will have their names entered into a draw to be one of the 3 lucky winners*.

*Winners must have a hearing loss appropriate to the capability of the hearing aids. Manufacturer warranty still applies. Hearing evaluations, earmolds and other purchases are not included in the discount. 3rd party insurers do not qualify for this promotion.

Moonlight Madness Nov 30
Santa Day Dec 9
Food Drive on until Dec 9
Twinkle Tour Nov 30 - Dec 10
Santa Claus Parade Dec 17

Christmas events in Moosomin

BY RYAN KIEDROWSKI
 LOCAL JOURNALISM INITIATIVE REPORTER

One of the biggest events of the Christmas season—Moonlight Madness—is coming up this Thursday, November 30 in Moosomin. Santa Day will be Saturday, December 9, the Chamber of Commerce Food Drive is continuing until December 9, and the Moosomin Twinkle Tour sponsored by Rolna Pranke RE/MAX goes until December 10.

More details on Christmas events across the area are in the Christmas Gift Guide inside this week's newspaper.

Thursday, November 30 Moonlight Madness

The Chamber of Commerce Moonlight Madness is set for Thursday, November 30.

Stores will be open late and people can enter to win $500, $250 or $100 in Moosomin Bucks.

The Chamber of Commerce is distributing Cash Cards to local businesses. In addition to shopping at all the local stores, shoppers can check out the Art and Craft sale and silent auction at the Legion Hall.

The event is a fundraiser for the Moosomin Visual Arts Centre. The Visual Arts Centre is in the process of securing a location and planning programming.

Moosomin town council recently voted to provide $50,000 a year to the group for three years to establish the arts centre.

On Moonlight Madness, there will be art demonstrations, art and craft sale tables, and a silent auction with proceeds going to the Moosomin Visual Arts Centre.

Saturday, December 9 Santa Day

Santa Day, featuring photos with Santa and a free Christmas matinee movie for the kids at the Moosomin Community Theatre, will be Saturday, December 9.

The Moosomin Kinettes will organize Santa Day photos on the morning of December 9.

Santa photos will be taken at the Conexus MCC Center/Mike Schween arena from 9 am to noon. Photos are one for $10 or three for $25.

Free treat bags will be handed out to the kids, donated by Tim Hortons and Borderland Co-op.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a matinee of Trolls Band Together at the Moosomin Community Theatre that afternoon.

Kids who get their photo taken with Santa will receive a free movie ticket and free small popcorn at the movie.

Until Saturday, December 9 Chamber Food Drive

The Chamber of Commerce is organizing a Food Drive for the Moosomin Food Share until December 10.

The food drive was organized after the chamber heard from Sam Campbell of the Food Share at the October meeting. She explained that food bank usage is up, and donations are down.

People can drop off donations of food at Glasser's TV, Andrew Agencies, Celebration Ford and the World-Spector.

Campbell says there has been a lot of support for the food share.

"It's great to see the Chamber businesses collecting food. Co-op has agreed to sponsor the potatoes and salads for us for the Christmas dinners. Nutrien is giving us a monetary donation and they are sponsoring the toys for the children. P&H is also giving us pancake mix."

November 30 to December 10 Moosomin Twinkle Tour

The Moosomin Twinkle Tour starts with Moonlight Madness on November 30 and continues to December 10.

People can take a tour around Moosomin and vote for their favorite light displays. There are Moosomin Bucks prizes for the first, second, and third place winners, plus everyone who sends in their votes will be entered to win one of three prizes of $50 in Moosomin Bucks.

This promotion is organized by Rolna Pranke of RE/MAX Blue Chip Realty. People can enter by texting Pranke at 306-435-7343, emailing her at rpranke@remax-yorkton.ca or messaging her on facebook.

Sunday, December 17 Santa Claus Parade

The Kinettes Santa Claus Parade is set for Sunday, December 17 at 7 pm. Marshalling will begin at Bradley Park at 6:30 pm.

Items being auctioned on Moonlight Madness

A number of items will be on offer at a silent auction being held on Moonlight Madness in Moosomin. The auction is a fundraiser for the Moosomin Visual Arts Centre, and will be held at the Moosomin Legion Hall along with an arts and craft market that night.

Some of the items include four original paintings by local artists Jacqui Beckett, Jacqui Harrison, Doug Brolund, and Dana Crosson, a children's book by Samantha Van De Kerckhove, and hand knitted items by Mildren Canart of Elkhorn.

Catch some winter magic in Esterhazy: Esterhazy Moonlight Magic, Winter Festival this weekend

BY RYAN KIEDROWSKI
LOCAL JOURNALISM INITIATIVE REPORTER

Esterhazy is the place to be this weekend with a slate of activities for the whole family to enjoy.

Moonlight Magic

The fun kicks off with Moonlight Magic on Friday, Dec. 1 which includes sales at participating downtown businesses from noon til 9 p.m., an indoor vendor market over at Anytime Fitness from 4-9 p.m., an indoor kid's obstacle course at Crossfit K20 from 6-9 p.m., and a special beef on a bun from 4-8 p.m. at the Legion.

Tammy MacDonald, CAO with the Town of Esterhazy, says Moonlight Magic has been going on for more than 15 years in the community, and is a great way to kick off the Christmas season.

"It's been a wonderful event for the downtown business core, we've just expanded on a little bit," she said.

The evening is highlighted with one special event at 7 p.m. in Esterhazy Historical Park as Mayor Grant Forster holds an official light up ceremony at the glorious Christmas tree.

A local tradition for the past few years, it's a thrilling moment with music and a big countdown before Mayor Forster hits the switch. Undoubtedly, lighting up the night must be one of the finer perks of being mayor!

"This year, we're going to have some Christmas carolers from the community singing live Christmas carols at the same time," MacDonald said. "Weather permitting, we're going to do a couple of fire pits with the fire department and just make it a cozy welcoming area. So while people shop up the Main Street, they can come down and check it out!"

A quick glance at the weather forecast shows favourable temperatures—or at least hopefully not as chilly as last year's event.

"Last year, it was really cold—like I'm like talking the windchill factor was well in the -30s... we froze! But we still had a pretty significant turnout," MacDonald recalls.

Winter Festival

Following Moonlight Magic is the jam-packed Winter Festival on Dec. 2 starting with a Minor Hockey U9 tournament over at the arena at 9 a.m. Also, from 11 a.m.-2 p.m., there will be indoor kids activities at the S.N. Boreen Centre including bouncy castles, cookie decorating and various crafts.

Merry Christmas!

We are so thankful for the support we've been given, not just at this special time of year, but always! Without all of you, we would not be here! Your continued support for all the local businesses does not go unnoticed and we are so proud to be a part of this community.

The afternoon features a free movie at the Maple Leaf Theatre from 2-4 p.m., a real Christmas classic sure to entertain young and young-at-heart alike.

"The Town has covered the cost of that so kids can go and watch the movie Elf and just have a wonderful afternoon," MacDonald explained. "And then rolling into that evening, from 6 to 8 p.m. is a Christmas family skate at the arena that's free and open to the public to come out to skate."

Ham and Turkey curling

Perhaps the most unique event of the day—and this ought to really set Esterhazy apart for creativity—is the turkey and ham throw to the button from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. over at the Esterhazy Curling Club. Now one may think, "curling for turkey and ham? That's not overly outrageous." Well, it's not curling for those items, it's curling with them! "So what that means is you slide out of the hack like you do with a curling rock, but you shove it (the turkey or ham) to the other end. And whoever gets it closest to the bullseye wins the turkey or the ham," MacDonald said.

Substituting a ham or turkey for a rock is not as easy as it sounds. First off, there's no outside help along the way in terms of team mates sweeping to encourage the items on their way to the house, and apparently the use of cranberry sauce is strictly against the rules.

"It's tough! You have to come flying out of that hack and you have to do a belly flop and two-hand shove it to get it down the rink," MacDonald noted. She does have a few pointers on the finer art of curling using holiday main courses, though. "Hams are a little bit wobbly so you have to be a little bit more careful with them whereas the turkey's heavier and goes a little bit straighter. But you definitely need full body to push it down there." There's also a two-person bonspiel happening at the curling rink (using traditional rocks, not food) through the afternoon, making for a very busy Saturday!

Getting ready for Holiday Night of Lights in Maryfield

Maryfield volunteers took advantage of the mild fall weather to set up Christmas lights in their gardens and playground.

Ms. Teneycke's Grade 6 and 7 class have also been helping with the decorating.

The preparation is in lead up to Maryfield's "Holiday Night of Lights" which will occur on Friday, December 1, when the lights will be illuminated at 7 pm. There will be carolling and late night shopping at Dusty Road Boutique.

Christmas celebrations in Maryfield will continue into the next afternoon, on December 2, when Santa will come to town to greet the children and a free show will be held at the Maryfield Auditorium.
