Christmas Tree

So you asked me who I decorate my Christmas tree with and how? I decorate my Christmas tree with my two brothers Samuel and Matthew and my grandma Elaine. I am going to tell you how I decorate my Christmas tree. I decorate my Christmas tree with whirly twirly Christmas lights. There are red, blue, and silver ornaments all over my Christmas tree. A Christmas tree sits where ever you put it and looks pretty and lights up your house. It is a great place to store your presents till Christmas day. My Christmas tree looks like it is loaded with ornaments and lights all different colors like red, blue, silver and many more. The bottom of the Christmas tree is metal, it's to hold the tree together. On the Christmas tree there are leaves and they are kind of fuzzy and prickly. What's on my Christmas tree you ask? There are leaves, lights, ornaments, shiny ribbons and candy canes all over the tree! I put my Christmas tree in the living room by the window. At night it glows and lights up the street.

A Christmas Night

On a Christmas Eve night at the North Pole, Santa and his elves were getting ready for the "BIG" Christmas. Santa was getting the sleigh ready for its flight and the elves were getting the reindeer ready to fly through the sky. It was time to go and Santa said, "...3...2...1, let's fly through the sky!"

The first stop is Kim's house in Regina. When they got there, Santa went down the chimney and got stuck half way down. One of his elves said, "What do I do?" He tried to push Santa through the chimney. But it didn't work so the elf got Santa's phone and phoned ALL OF THE ELVES. When they got there, they pushed Santa through. The elves decided to help Santa deliver all the presents to all the kids in the world, and Christmas was saved.

Reindeer Farm

Rudolf the green nosed tractor had a very tough life pulling the seeder so he had to get Donnor the red nose tractor to pull him up the hill. When they got to the top of the hill the seeder broke so Dixon came in his purple truck to get it out of the rut. When they got back they got Cupid the blue nose reindeer to fix the seeder.

After the seeder was fixed they went back to the field to finish the work. Then Santa came and got mad and kicked them in the butt, so they ran back to the farm. After Santa went and found them in the shed so he tied them up. They had nothing to do so they ate so much they got fat when they were delivering the presents they crashed and till this day no one can find them because they got lost in the snow.

Santa Forgot

Once upon a time there was a house that Santa forgot. The kids even went to bed extra early. When they woke up there were no presents. At first the girl cried so she looked to see what time it was and it was 12:00.

The girl and her brother ran to their beds and they fell fast asleep. Then they heard a big BANG! It was Santa!

In the morning, the girl even got an iPod! Her brother got lots of candy and movies. The girl wished every day was Christmas. Then they all lived happily ever after!

The end!

Every family has a Christmas tradition. This is my family tradition. On Christmas Day my family has a Christmas party. At our Christmas party we put really loud music on and dance and play board games. We also open our presents in the afternoon, at about 3 pm. Everybody comes at about 6 pm and leaves about 4 am. At our Christmas party it is us and about 30 to 60 friends. When it is time to eat, we brai which means barbeque. On the barbeque we put boreworse and worse which is a South African sausage. Every year instead of putting up a tree we make a food platter shaped like a tree. Hope you enjoy your Christmas. Merry Christmas!

Opening Christmas Presents

It is December 25th! I jump out of my big, comfy bed! I am so excited and happy! I go to my full decorated living room that is shimmering to the eyes. Mom and Dad left the lights on for Santa to see. I see a big pile of colorful presents underneath our big, green tree. I go wake up my sleeping parents with a gentle tap on their shoulders to wake them up. Then I go wake up my sister by jumping on her bed! Finally we start opening the red, blue, green, yellow, white, big, purple, small, square presents! All you can see is colorful wrapping paper, bows and bags flying high in the air. It is the most wonderful time of the year! One of my favorite gifts I've received was a karaoke machine! Christmas is an awesome time of the year for giving!

Naughty or Nice

Hello my name is Ashley. My mother said I have to go to bed. I said, "No! I'm not. I'm going to stay up for a veryyy long time!"

The next morning it was Christmas and in my stocking I had a chunk of coal. My mom said, "You got coal because you didn't go to bed when I told you to."

I went to my room and slammed the door and went straight to bed. My mom came in and said, "Are you okay?"

I said, "No, I do not want coal. I'm very sorry for not listening to you mom. I want a chess game please so I can play with you."

Santa heard me and brought me the game. Mom and I played all Christmas day. Merry Christmas to everyone.

Christmas Night and Day

It was a cold night, everyone was in their warm bed with a house full of Christmas lights.

All kids were excited to play with their toys,

all of the kids including girls and boys.

Some kids were so excited they couldn't sleep, so they went to the kitchen to have a little treat.

Don't worry the kids didn't eat Santa's milk and cookies, these kids bake so well they're not baking rookies.

When they went back to bed, something magical happened they saw sparkling red!

In the kitchen there were no cookies or milk there, all the kids knew that Santa must have been in the kitchen that's where!

All of the kids have holiday cheer, they all couldn't wait until the next holiday year.

Thank you for reading and always have holiday cheer,

Happy Holiday ad Happy New Years!

The Missing Gifts

It was an early morning when Santa was going to his workshop. He discovered the toys were all gone! Santa was very sad. He told his elf, Ding Dong, "We're going to work around the clock. Ding Dong we have to build more toys before Christmas."

So Santa and Ding Dong went to work and by Christmas Eve they were done. Then Santa flew to all the cities, towns and villages and delivered presents to everyone. Merry Christmas to everyone!

The Crazy Christmas

On Christmas Eve my relatives and some friends came to celebrate Christmas the next day.

So after they got here the funniest thing happened. We were sitting by the fire and our cat jumped on grandma and her wig fell off into the fire so grandma put the cat on her head but, that was not all. Tom slipped on our floor right where the cat's water bowl is. His butt was all wet and we couldn't stop laughing. My dad crashed into my uncle and they both landed in all the snowy boots.

A lot of crazy and bad things happened to everyone like grandma with her wig and Tom with the water bowl and when my mom was cooking supper the gravy exploded on her and when my cousin Maddison was going to eat at the fire place she tripped on nothing and her food all went in the fire place. My auntie was washing dishes the water sprayed up and got her wet. It's like everyone but me is cursed.

But then I see the trouble maker for all of that was Lila my little cousin I figured out that when my mom was cooking Lila put some crazy spice that made it explode and made the floor slippery for Madison and Tom to fall. There was no curse it was just little Lila playing a trick on us.

The Night Before Cheesemas

'Twas the night before Cheesemas and all through the house not a creature was moving not even Miss Mouse. She was all done her cooking and had set out the gifts, now all that was to come, was old St. Nick.

As the children mice slept the picture of cheddar balls danced in their heads. Mommy Mouse dreamt of kissing St. Nick under the mistletoe while Daddy Mouse pictured the cheese grater he'd asked for this Cheesemas. All of a sudden the house trembled and shook.

Daddy Mouse woke up with fear. He slipped on his slippers and rushed to the window to see what had happened but saw the Santa Mouse on the roof top holding a sack full of presents. Down the chimney with speed Santa Mouse went and into the fire place he landed.

He filled up the stockings full to the brim and placed each present with care under the tree. As Santa Mouse placed the last present he realized that he wasn't alone, he turned to see that Daddy Mouse was spying on the old man. As Daddy Mouse went to agin look at him he no longer saw him there. Daddy Mouse ran to the window and heard Santa Mouse yell. "Ho Ho Ho, Merry Cheesemas"

Christmas Time

I hope I get a teddy and his name will be Ted.
I have pleasant dreams about candy canes and sweets,
I hope on Christmas morning I don't have to sweep.
On Christmas morning I'll open a present,
I hope I get a good one, I have been very pleasant.

I hope I don't get coal, nothing could be worse!

Whallee the Talking Elf

Once upon a time there was an elf named Whallee. Whallee loved to talk and ask questions so one day Whallee was walking down the street and he saw a house with lots of decorations. So Whallee thought the house was the North Pole. Whallee walked up to the front door of the house and barged in. After he got in the house he said, "Hello Santa. Are you here Santa?" But nobody answered. So he walked around the house for a little while then he sat on the couch.

The next morning he woke up lying on the couch and he saw people surrounding a Christmas tree. So Whallee said, "Where am I? Who are you? Is it Christmas?" and the people said, "YES!" Whallee jumped off the couch and he sat around the tree and they all opened presents. When Whallee opened his present he found that he got a new best friend. It was an elf and Whallee decided to name her Crystal.

Crystal and Whallee played with each other and loved each other. They always played hide and go seek with the family. Crystal was always curious so one day Crystal saw a big thing filled with hair and it started to bark so whallee told her it was a dog so they played with him and played pranks on him. They were having a blast, but one day they had to go back to the North Pole so they said their goodbyes and Whallee and Crystal went back to the North Pole. When they got back they said hi to Santa and Whallee introduced Crystal to Santa and they all lived happily ever after. The end

Mrs. Claus and the Little Girl

Once upon a time there was a kind, jolly lady named Mrs. Claus and a kid that lived in the city. Mrs. Claus lived in the North Pole with Mr. Claus and a million elves.

The kid wanted to see Mrs. Claus because she thinks Mrs. Claus is real. Some of the other kids at school had been telling her that Mrs and Mr. Claus were not real and she did not believe them!

The girl fell asleep and had a crazy dream about Mrs. Claus. In her dream, Mrs. Claus turned evil! She was running around his workshop breaking all the toys and laughing madly! When the little girl woke up, her eyes were red with anger! She decided to go back to sleep! When she woke up, she knew Mrs. Claus was real because she was right in front of her! The little girl woke up in the North Pole!

They had a talk about the little girls dream and Mrs. Claus laughed! The girl then knew Mrs. Claus wasn't evil anymore. She even gave her a gingerbread cookie!

No Snow!

On Christmas Eve there was no snow, which made everyone unhappy about no snow because Christmas wouldn't be the same without snow. The children were also so mad that they could not make snow forts or even have snowball fights! But the thing that made the children really mad is that they could not make snowmen.

But then on Christmas day...IT SNOWED! At 7:02 am while the children were still sleeping. When the children woke up they all had breakfast, later after that they went outside and made snowmen, snow forts and even had a snowball fight. Next they all had hot chocolate. The children said to their parents very happily, "Mom, Dad there was no snow yesterday, but there is...and SANTA CAME!"

Now it was time for everyone to go downstairs and open up presents. After that they had lunch. For lunch they had grilled cheese and tomato soup. (By the way lunch was delicious!) Plus the children were so happy they could make so many snowmen and have lots of snowball fights all day long! Now they all had hot chocolate and went sledding behind the quad and also went tobogganing. It was great fun!

Elf Work

Ninja Elf was bored that he always had to make presents every day. So he thought of sneaking out, but Santa caught him sneaking out! So Santa said to work every day while all the other elves were on a vacation in Hollywood!

But there was another elf. She was called Elf McT! So they had a plan to escape. But Santa heard Ninja Elf and Elf McT saying the plan. He put the North Pole on lock down and he set up traps and robots. The robots found them and they put them in elf jail where they had no way out! They had to find a way out!

They couldn't so they waited and waited and waited. Then he had an idea! He Called Rudolph to come in his helicopter. They waited two more days and he finally came and they flew to Japan until Santa forgot all about it.

Santa went back to his normal jolly self and gave them free candy cookies!

The other elves had to work while Ninja Elf and Elf McT had a vacation in Japan!

Something Went WRONG!

The day before Christmas Eve, Mrs. Claus phoned her daughter, Dolly. Mrs. Claus was crying when she told Dolly, "Santa is sick and the reindeer have ran away!"

The next day Dolly went to the North Pole. She looked in the barn when she got there and there were, NO REIN-DEER! Dolly ran to the house where Santa was sitting on the couch. Mrs. Claus was baking sugar cookies. Then Dolly went to the elf shop and they were on coffee break. Dolly started to cry.

Dolly just remembered her friend had flying horses. Before Dolly went to her friend's house she ran to the elf shop and made them work. After Dolly drove to her friend Jack's farm. She got out and took the horses out of the barn then went home with them. When she got home she loaded the sleigh, hooked up the horses, and got the presents from the elves and loaded them up. Off she went.

After she got all the presents to the children she went home and slept. All the children were happy.

Spying On Santa

Once there was a little girl named Michelle and she had a brother and sister named Jack and Kasey. All Michelle wanted to do was see Santa. Michelle's mom called her to come do her laundry. So Michelle came to get her laundry and bring it back to her room. When she got to her room she put away her laundry and got a plan.

Michelle got her mom to order a spy kit from the book order. So while Michelle was waiting Michelle made a plan so she could see Santa. Michelle said, "It is December 18th so my spy kit will be here on December 24th so I'll put it on and pretend I'm sleeping and when I here jingles I'll get ready and when I hear footsteps I'll go out with my spy stuff on and I'll see him."

The kids had to make their Christmas list. Michelle wanted a mini iPad, a jacket, a new hockey stick, and a new puppy. Kasey wanted a unicorn, a baby doll, and jewelry. Jack wanted a toy tractor, a toy truck, and a toy semi.

Now it's December 24th all the kids are asleep and the parents are asleep except Michelle. Michelle heard jingling and then heard footsteps. So Michelle tiptoed over to her living room and saw him it was Santa! So Michelle tiptoed back to her bed and put her spy gear off and went to bed and had a good night's sleep.

The Town That Almost Lost Christmas

Once upon a time there was a boy that didn't believe in Christmas. His name was Kim. On Christmas night, Kim was still awake he still didn't believe in magic. Then right there in the sky Santa was flying but something weird happened. The sleigh started falling. Kim went to go and investigate. "Santa," said Kim, "Why did your sleigh fall?"

"If someone does not believe in magic then there will be no magic," replied Santa.

"I am sorry," said Kim. "I should have believed in magic. Now all the girls and boys will be so sad."

"There is still a way to save Christmas!" said Santa.

"Really how?" asked Kim.

"You have to believe," said Santa.

"How about I sing a song?" said Kim.

"Sure," said Santa.

"Ok here we go, I believe in Christmas and flying reindeer also Santa Claus and don't forget the elves yes those mischievous elves, I believe in Christmas, I believe in Christmas, I believe in Christmas. Wasn't that a great song?" said Kim.

"It was and thanks to you I can go and deliver presents," said Santa.

Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night.

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas is very meaningful to me because I get to spend time with family all at one time.

I enjoy eating supper as one big family and opening Christmas presents together.

During my Christmas gathering, all the kids go outside to explore in the greenhouse and field. Following our fun of playing games outside, we come inside and have hot chocolate by the fireplace.

Christmas means celebrating my mom's birthday by having cake, and being happy together.

That is what Christmas means to me.

P.S. Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night.

Buddy the Elf

Once upon a time there was an elf named Buddy. He was tall and smart. He was Santa's favorite elf and the other elves did not like him. But Buddy did not know that and he thought all of the elves loved him. Then one day they made fun of Buddy and he did not like that so Buddy ran away for a long time. He saw an ABOMINABLE SNOWMAN. He ran as fast as he could but he could not get away. He got knocked out and the abominable snow man got him.

The day was really hard for Mrs. Claus, Mr. Claus, Elves and reindeer because the reindeer were getting ready to fly. Santa was getting ready to fly, too. The elves were putting the presents in the sleigh and shining the sleigh. Mrs. Claus was making cookies for Santa before he leaves. When Santa leaves Mrs. Claus and elves say "Bye Santa". When he left, Mrs. Claus and the elves went inside and ate some cookies and milk. After they went to bed and waited for Santa to come home!

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas means colorful lights and pretty decorations. Christmas means reuniting with family and baking yummy food. It is joyous seeing people's excitement when you give them gifts. Christmas means sledding with family and friends. It means staying warm with hot chocolate and watching funny Christmas movies. But most of all, Christmas means sharing love and laughter with those who need it most.

Life as an Elf...

Hello my name is Max and I am an elf. My job is to take care of the reindeer. Vixen is my favourite reindeer and sometimes Santa lets me ride him. He is really really fast. But my favourite time of the day is the evening because we get to have supper. And Mrs. Claus is the best cook ever! But when I am not doing any of that stuff I am at Pipers house. I am her elf on the shelf. Piper is really awesome she even got me a pet reindeer and her name is Muffin. But she is still a baby. She also got me a scarf, mittens, and a hat. She is really awesome. And one time I stole her iPad and I took a bunch of selfies it was so funny well I guess that is all that I have to say, except for the end.

Letter to Santa

Dear Santa,
Season's greetings! How are you? I have a few questions I need to ask you. What's your personal record time delivering presents? What's your top speed on the sleigh? How many letters do you get per day?
My sister and I have gotten in a few arguments. But apart from that, I've been pretty good. For presents, surprise me.

Christmas Morning

I woke up on Christmas morning and ran to the Christmas tree to see a whole bunch of presents! Not everyone was up so I had eggs and bacon for breakfast. Finally, everyone was up. We went to the tree and handed out all of the presents to everyone. We passed the presents round and round to each person and saw lots smiley faces. We looked at all the presents we got including Cloe's lump of coal and my Nerf gun. We talked about Jesus and his birthday. After that all of my cousins left. That morning was the best morning ever in my life.

Santa's Wonderful Holiday

One cold Christmas Eve, Santa, a handsome 95 year old, was sitting on a chair drinking some hot chocolate that Mrs. Claus made. Santa lived in the North Pole and delivered presents. He very badly wanted to go on a holiday!

But Mrs. Claus didn't want Santa to go on a holiday. Santa was supposed to deliver tomorrow but Santa wanted to go to New York instead! Some place where it was warmer and he didn't have to work round the clock!

Santa skipped Christmas. Santa was so sad he wanted to deliver some presents too. Then Santa went back to the North Pole quickly so he could deliver some presents. He figured if he delivered them at lightning speed, he could have his holiday too! When Santa finished delivering his presents, Mrs. Claus and Santa went on a holiday to Disneyland where they rode the rides all day long and soaked up the sun!

Ornaments

I hang ornaments on the tree and decorate the house with them. Ornaments are made of glass, clay and paper and they come in different colors. They are sparkly too. I put the ornaments on my trees they make a shape like a star, heart or Santa. I got my ornaments from my grandma. She makes them with clay.

Sneaking to the North Pole

Once upon a time there were some kids that wanted to see Santa so badly. So the kids wrapped them up and put a tag on it that said to Santa. This gift is for you. One kid said we're going on the naughty list this year for sure the other kids said no. Santa read the tag and put the gift in the sled and went to the North Pole. Santa got to the North Pole and he opened up the gift. The kids jumped out and Santa was so surprised he almost peed in his pants. Santa was so happy to see his favorite kids. He said, "What are you guys doing here?" The kids said, "We just wanted to see you so bad." Santa said, "Let's get you kids back home before your parents will notice that you are guys are gone." So the kids loaded up to go home and they got home safely.

Christmas

Once upon a time there was a holiday. This holiday wasn't like any other holiday this one was the best one yet because of the joy, the sharing, the kindness, the happiness and the most important part of all love. But there are more we all know all about elves but these are different these elves are called elves on the shelf. When one of the elves comes to your house name it quickly. But the elf only stays for the whole month of December. But they will come back next December. But when they are not with you they are having fun on top of the world. Playing in the snow but they also have jobs like making toys, fixing Santa's sleigh, playing with the reindeer, feeding the reindeer, decorating the trees and clinging the candy canes. But most of the time they are all still fun and the rest of the elves are still having fun. Their favorite place to go is the library. Their favorite book to read is Sisters. It's about two sisters who were twins they looked alike but were very different. Rosly liked Christmas, but Serina didn't like it that much. Rosly chose to see the good in others, but Serina had a sad heart. One day Rosly showed her other sisters that Christmas is the best time of the year and how to be nice. That's why the elves are so nice so jolly. That's why Christmas was the best holiday yet.

Christmas Celebration

My favorite holiday is Christmas! It's my favorite because it means a break from school. We wrap our presents and put name tags with "to and from" on them. I saw one of my presents under the Christmas tree. It had a rectangular shape, a bow on top of it and it was covered in green and red wrapping paper. We make some chocolate chip cookies and biscuits for Christmas. Once Christmas comes we open our presents. After we open our present we have a family dinner. For dinner we have some shrimp, crab, rice and chicken. After we eat we watch a scary movie.

Finally we go to church. When the mass is over we watch another movie and stay up really late. We also play board games like dominos, snake and ladders, monopoly and chess. Last year I got clothes and hair ties.

Merry Christmas!

Small Elf

One cold and chilly morning at the North Pole, Small Elf wanted a holiday to Hawaii so he could relax on the beach and swim in the ocean!
So Small Elf said he would find somebody to work for them. So Small Elf went to find somebody to work for Santa.

He walked and walked and finally found someone to work for Santa.
Then he asked what they were they said Oompaloompas. So Small Elf asked if they would work for them. They said yes.

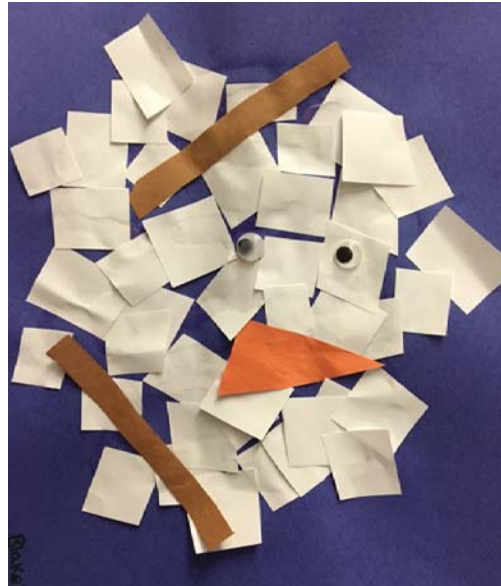

So they went to go tell Santa. So when they told Santa he said they could go on a trip to Hawaii.

Presents!

My favorite part about Christmas is presents, because you never know what you'll get! Presents are used for giving to family and friends and it's fun because you get all sorts of different things. Presents come in all sorts of shapes and sizes. For example some are tall, skinny, fat and short. Presents are usually in cardboard wrapped in ribbons and wrapping paper. You would usually find presents at my house beside the T.V., under the tree. I moved here from Honduras, and in Honduras we don't have pine trees so we use a coconut tree. We don't believe in Santa so we exchange gifts between our family members. These are the reasons my favorite part about Christmas is presents.

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas means sharing in family traditions with those we love. Christmas is celebrating Jesus' birthday with family and friends. Christmas is donating food and gifts to homeless people. Christmas is caring for others even if they're not your family or friends. Christmas is sharing gifts with other people. Christmas is decorating the Christmas trees with ornaments. Christmas is eating delicious meals and drinking hot chocolate. But the most important thing about Christmas is sharing laughter and love with those who need it most.

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas means caring and sharing love and laughter with family and friends. My favorite part of Christmas is donating to less fortunate families to make their Christmas better. I love to participate in Christmas games and activities. Exchanging gifts and seeing others excited makes me happy for them. Christmas is celebrating Jesus' birthday with family and friends.

The Christmas Trip

It was a very nice December day. My family was going to Calgary for Christmas. We were staying in my auntie's house for a week.

When I was packing, my brother Fudge came in my room and threw ALL of my clothes on the floor. I got very mad. My mother, Amy, said to Fudge, "Go to your room. You're on a time out!" I tried not to laugh or smile.

The next day we left. The trip would take 17 hours. When we got there I gave my auntie a big hug. My auntie's name is Kate.

Later, we decorated the Christmas tree. That didn't go well. My brother broke ALL of the GLASS ornaments. The next day was Christmas! I was so excited! When I woke up the next morning the stockings were full and there were many presents under the tree. I got a beats speaker, laptop, and a Furby. On our way home my dad fell asleep and ran into a snow drift, so a tow truck came and pulled us out. And that was my Christmas trip.

THE CHRISTMAS STAR

One night in 2016 there was a little girl named Lexi. She saw a star. She called it the Christmas star. The next night she saw it again. Lexi wanted to make a wish. The next night she wished. So the wish came true.

Lexi was so happy that her wish came true. That she got a letter from Santa. Santa said that Lexi would have that wish forever. Lexi said Santa I think the wish will stay true forever. My wish did stay true forever and ever.

Lexi's mom said, "Lexi where is that wish?" Lexi said, "It was in my heart." Lexi was right. It was in her heart. Lexi never had trouble with anything.

Lexi told everybody that she knows about her wish. The Christmas star was right in front of her every single night. Before Lexi got the wish everything was trouble. Lexi said, "I thought trouble would never end." "Who is trouble?" said Lexi.

One night on Christmas Eve Lexi heard something out her window. It was Santa. She never saw such a thing before. Her elf was in Santa's sleigh. Her wish was that she really did not know. In the morning she ran downstairs. She had so many presents. She was so happy. THE END! MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Mrs. Claus

On a cold Christmas Eve, Santa was on the porch drinking his coffee. He was wearing his Santa suit and sitting with Mrs. Claus. They were talking about Christmas and Santa said, "I can't wait until Christmas because it's tomorrow." Mrs. Claus said it's going to be awesome. All the Elves were singing Christmas is tomorrow yippee, Santa said, "Lower your voices down!" to the elves.

The next day Santa was all ready to go give little children their presents but then Santa started coughing. Mrs. Claus said, "Are you okay?" Santa replied, "No. I can't give the children their presents! I'll make them sick." Mrs. Claus said with excitement, "That's a great idea! I'll get your sleigh and all the presents! Oh and my jacket!"

Mrs. Claus said bye to everyone and told the elves look after Santa. Mrs. Claus went to go give the little children their presents. She went down a very, very dirty chimney. Finally she was done giving everyone their presents. But when she looked around she was LOST! She was just sitting and looking around. Suddenly, she remembered that Santa gave her a watch that calls him. She quickly took off her watch and called Santa. She cried, "Santa I'm lost!" Then Santa said, "I will bring my elves and come get you my dear!" When she looked again she saw the elves!

The elves took Mrs. Claus home. She told Santa, "I gave all the children their presents!" Santa said, "Well done!" to Mrs. Claus. The only problem, was that the presents didn't go to the right children.

But all the children that had friends had their presents. There were 1,000 that had no friends but who had the presents they were supposed to have!

Everyone had a very merry Christmas!
Merry Christmas!

Boxing Day

On Boxing Day two of my family members have a boxing match in their boxers. When they box we all laugh, because it's hilarious. This is how it all starts. When one person fights with the other then fists go and feet go and it all starts. Where does this all happen you may ask? This all happens at my house in the living room. When they box they break a lot of stuff and then my mom gets mad. One year they broke my mom's glass figurines. Then my grandma has to break it up and she does not like that. When they are done they all have to clean up all the mess.

What Christmas Means to Me

Christmas is important to me because we celebrate Jesus's birthday

As a family we play Christmas games.

At Christmas, I enjoy spending time with family including my mom dad and brother.

Christmas is about sharing our love with those who need it most.

Giving to others and spreading love is the true meaning of Christmas.

Christmas isn't just about presents. It's about spending time with family, being happy for others and lending a helping hand.

Traditions

Hi my name is Logan and I'm going to tell you what my family Christmas tradition is. First we go to my cousin's house in Calgary a week before Christmas day. Then we all go to water parks and go shopping. The best part about my cousin's house is that they have their own back yard hockey rink and my brothers and cousins all get to skate around. On Christmas Eve the adults play board games and kids play downstairs and build a fort made out of chairs and blankets. At 9 pm everyone goes to bed. In the morning the kids are only allowed to open our stockings. And all the adults sleep until 9 am except my Uncle. We go play hockey until everyone wakes up. Then we all play games. Everyone brings a present and we sing a song and pass the presents along. When the song stops, whatever you get is what you get. Finally somebody passes all the presents out. That's what we do for Christmas what do you do?

My Favorite Things to do During the Winter

My favourite things to do on Christmas are bake. I bake gingersnaps, chocolate chip cookies. I also love throwing my dog onto ice. Pistol my dog, loves to go on the ice. This is Pistol's first year of snow. Pistol is almost a 1 year old. I like doing a few more things. My third favourite thing to do in the winter is playing in the snow. Sometimes we have snowball fights. Snowball fights are usually our favourites. We love to fling snow at each other. We also have contests with snow. We have contests with snowballs. The last thing we do in the winter is making forts. We make snow angels. We also get the horses hooked up and put a sled behind the horses. We also build snow forts. Usually they fall over though. Hot chocolate is probably my favourite drink during the winter. I spill it on me but I don't care.

Naughty or Nice

Hello my name is Ashley. My mother said I have to go to bed. I said, "No! I'm not. I'm going to stay up for a veryyy long time!"
The next morning it was Christmas and in my stocking I had a chunk of coal. My mom said, "You got coal because you didn't go to bed why I told you to."
I went to my room and slammed the door and went straight to bed. My mom came in and said, "Are you okay?"
I said, "No, I do not want coal. I'm very sorry for not listening to you mom. I want a chess game please so I can play with you."
Santa heard me and brought me the game. Mom and I played all Christmas day. Merry Christmas to everyone.

Once Upon A Christmas

Once upon a Christmas a little girl was asleep. The little girl's name was Summer. Summer woke up to the sound of bells being jingled. She thought it was Santa Claus so she checked in the living room to find a man eating cookies and pulling presents out of a sack. Summer was so excited she thought she should go back to her room and go to sleep. She thought about it, but she wanted to see the reindeer. Summer ran outside and climbed up to the roof and there they were. All the reindeer with a man in the sleigh, it was Santa Claus. Soon it was morning and she found all the presents. These are some of the presents she got: toy pony, stuffed animal, dollhouse and so many dolls for the dollhouse. As soon as she was done she checked the stocking to find a necklace right there. When she put it, on more gifts appeared and said, open on New Year's Eve.

Mrs. Claus Saves The Day

One Christmas, Santa got sick. He had "cookieitis." Too many cookies had made him sick. He had eaten 233 cookies the night before. Mrs. Claus saved the day and she agreed to deliver the presents even though she didn't know how to fly the sled.
Rudolf heard Mrs. Claus and said, "I'll teach you how to fly the sled. It's easy to fly the sled. Just follow my glow." Mrs. Claus was so happy and all the children were happy too. They had a merry Christmas because Mrs. Claus saved the day. Santa learned not to eat too many cookies.

Clyde the Elf

I have an elf named Clyde. Clyde came on December 1, 2014. Clyde has been my best friend since then. Clyde never picks on me or bugs me. Clyde always is kind and loyal.

Clyde usually hides in hard places. He once hid in our fridge with cottage cheese. We couldn't even find him. Clyde once thought he was a barrel racer, so he sprinkled cinnamon on the table, put 3 shot cups in the barrel pattern and got on my sisters horse. He is quite the mess maker.

Clyde makes me laugh every morning. My mom likes the elf because every morning I get up good because I want to find the elf. I usually don't get up good so when the elf comes I get up at 7:00 on the nose.

I am so thankful that Santa sent Clyde. I am telling you I didn't even have to spend $25.00 on my elf. I just have to spend my time cleaning up after him. He sometimes is a little bad because he gets into flour, chocolate, cinnamon, etc. we have to clean up all the messes.

Christmas Celebration

My favorite holiday is Christmas! It's my favorite because it means a break from school. We wrap our presents and put name tags with "to and from" on them. I saw one of my presents under the Christmas tree. It had a rectangular shape, a bow on top of it and it was covered in green and red wrapping paper. We make some chocolate chip cookies and biscuits for Christmas. Once Christmas comes we open our presents. After we open our present we have a family dinner. For dinner we have some shrimp, crab, rice and chicken. After we eat we watch a scary movie.

Finally we go to church. When the mass is over we watch another movie and stay up really late. We also play board games like dominos, snake and ladders, monopoly and chess. Last year I got clothes and hair ties.

Merry Christmas!

The Best Christmas Present

Once upon a time a long time ago there were two little twins named Larry and Lacey. They both loved Christmas very much. But they both liked it for different reasons. Lacey liked it because of giving. But Larry liked it because of getting.

Then one Christmas Eve Larry decided he was going to see Santa. So he set his alarm for 12:00. When it rang Larry woke up Lacey did too, but she pretended to be asleep. When Larry went into the hallway Lacey followed. But Lacey got caught by Larry. Santa did not know that Larry was watching him. While Larry was watching Santa, Lacey was trying to convince him to go back to bed. Larry finally did.

The next morning Larry woke up and also woke up Lacey. Larry had three presents. Lacey had four. The last present Larry opened was at the very back of the tree. It was a very small, tiny in fact. He opened it. In it was only a little coin that said "pet." His mom, dad and lacey asked what does it say? So Larry said "pet" and with that the coin flew up in the air. A puppy fell on the ground with that coin on her collar. They named the dog Lucile.

They took Lucile for walks. They played with her. Lucile loved to fetch the ball and bring the ball back to Larry and Lacey and her other favourite and chasing her tail. On Christmas Eve Lucile sleeps outside of Larry and Lacey's bedroom door so nobody tries to see Santa again.

On Christmas day when Larry and Lacey were 11. Once they were done opening all their presents Lucile was groaning under the tree. Then all of a sudden there was 1 puppy. Now 2 puppies! Now 10 puppies! There were 10 puppies! 5 girls and 5 boys. The girl's names are Sugar Plum, Brownie, Lila, Snow Flake, and Angel. The boys names are Garrett, Jason, Chip, Garry, and Nick.

The Peppermint Factory

One day at gum drop land there was a peppermint factory and a candy cane forest. The trees were made of chocolate. So now at the peppermint factory the elves were making about 1,000 peppermints a week. The machines were made by Santa and the elves loved them. The machines could make red, blue, green, and orange peppermints. When the colors had been made they move to the bag station where a lot of elves helped bag the peppermints. They are shipped to the town where the elves love them. They also make chocolate flavoured candy canes. Now they make a new flavor for the peppermints, and it's called bubble-gum.

Christmas Wishes

I would like to give my mom a phone case.
I think my dad would like a Star Wars suit.
I know my papa really wants a new cutting knife.
My Grandma would love some Emily time.
I think my teacher really would like a container for her pens.

I would like to give my friend a horse.
I think I'll get myself a bunch of horses.
I might get my pet dog a chew toy.

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is a house because some people don't have houses. People need houses to live in because if you don't have a house and its cold outside you could freeze! Then everyone should have money because people need to buy clothes so they stay warm and to buy food so they won't be starving.

Riley Wilson

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is a trip to Hawaii because it is beautiful. And also paradise because nobody dies and everyone is healthy. I would like everyone to have a boat so they could enjoy the ocean. I would also like everyone to have a family. If I could give anything in the world it would be medicine so they would be healthy.

Danan Tagish McKay

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is happiness and no wars. My gift to the world is to have shoes because your feet will be cold. My gift to the world is clothes because if you don't have clothes you would be cold. My gift to the world is to have food because if you don't you will get sick. My gift to the world is a house because if you don't have a house you will have nowhere to sleep. My gift to the world is joy.

Raphaël Mowbray

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is money because if you did not, you would not have food or drinks. You would die. Then I would choose a trip to Hawaii for a year because I want people to relax and have a good time. Then after I would choose super powers because you can get food, medicine and a lot of other stuff.

Samantha Fouillard

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is happiness. If there wasn't happiness there would be no friends. I will also give food to people if they don't have any. Another thing, if people didn't have houses they will be cold. I think I will give everyone a house. I would like to give people nice clothes. I would like to give people love so they won't be sad. Pass love on because you can make people happy.

Elodie Mckenzie

My Gift to the World

My gift to the world is food because then they won't die from hunger. I think that everyone should have shoes so their feet won't be cold. I think that everyone should have a book so they can read. It's important so they can learn their words. A good book.

Brooklyn Fouillard

My Gift to the World

My Gift to the World is a Nerf Hyperfire, a Nerf Mastodon, food, water and a family. It would be awesome if everyone had every Nerf that exists and if nobody needed to go to school.
