Late night shopping in Moosomin, Rocanville this week

Many Moosomin stores plan to be open this Wednesday evening to give shoppers one last chance to do some after-hours shopping before Christmas.

Stores will be open until 9 pm and shoppers who have their Christmas Bonus Draw card stamped at three local businesses Wednesday will be entered in a draw for $500 in Moosomin bucks—a nice Christmas bonus for anyone!

Wednesday night is also the last chance to enter the World-Spectator's $15,000 giveaway—the draw will be made Thursday. The main prize in the draw is $15,000 to be spent at participating businesses. The winner will receive a chequebook that they can use at any or all of the participating businesses. There are also $5,000 worth of secondary prizes.

This Thursday, Dec. 20 is the last night for late night shopping in Rocanville.

Businesses in Rocanville have stayed open last for the last two Thursdays, with other events around the town planned for each late night shopping night.

This Thursday, businesses will be open late again for "Procrasti-Nite"—for those who leave shopping to the last minute.

There will also be a number of other events. The youth band Human Kind will perform at the Hope Church that night. Chili and a bun will also be served at Hope Church as a fundraiser for the playschool. Businesses will have a number of in-store special.

Shoppers can also collect stamps on stamp cards and enter those cards into a draw for $800 in gift cards from participating stores. Shoppers must spend a minimum of $10 at participating businesses to receive a stamp, and must collect three stamps to enter the draw. Stamp cards are available from participating stores.

Prairie Sunset: A Story of Change By Dion Manastyrski

In the creation of this poignant, high-quality, fine-art book, Dion Manastyrski roamed the Canadian prairies, photographing old abandoned houses, barns, schools, and churches. He interviewed over 70 people who lived that past way of life, when the small family farm was at the heart of rural life on the prairies.

Also included are 50 historical photos and documents from government archives. The photos and their words are interlaced to tell a story that begins with the pioneer years and covers many aspects of their lives over the 150 years.

Makes a great gift!
