No More Milk and Cookies

This year I have a wish list too. There is only one thing on my list. BACON, bacon and more bacon! If you haven't guessed already, I love bacon. Every year you kids leave out a snack of milk and cookies for me. I love that you all think of me and leave me a snack on my big night of delivering all the toys, but I don't think I can eat any more cookies. Mrs. Claus says I could lose a few pounds and she read online that eating bacon is a good way to lose weight. I think this is a wonderful idea.

Making cookies takes a long time and you need lots of different ingredients. Parents are very busy this time of year with Christmas parties and decorating the Christmas tree. I'm sure if you told your parents Santa would just like a nice plate full of bacon they would be relieved. They won't have to mix and bake, just pop it in the microwave for 3mins.

Have you ever woken up on Saturday morning and smelled the most wonderful smell? That wonderful smell is your parents cooking breakfast. That smell that is tickling your nose is bacon. Bacon isn't just good for eating at breakfast. There are many ways to eat bacon.

Bacon will help me stay healthy. My dear wife, Mrs. Claus says bacon will help me lose weight. Mrs. Claus is always telling me I eat too many snacks. If I eat bacon for a snack she should be happy, right

As I told you before my dear children around the world, poor old Santa has eaten all the cookies I can handle. This year please leave me a plate of bacon. I love to see the snacks you leave for me and I will love it if you could help me with my wish list this year. One more thing I want to tell you is bacon is the reindeer's favorite snack too so I will promise to share my snack with them.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa,

All I want for Christmas this year is toys like an American Girl doll boy, American Girl doll clothes and accessories, LOL dolls, LOL doll boys, LOL doll little sisters and LOL doll pets.

I have some questions to ask!

1. How big is your workshop?
2. How do you make the toys?
3. How do you fly around the whole earth in only 12 hours?
4. How do you get your magic?
5. How cold is it at the North Pole?
6. How old are your reindeers?
7. How long does it take to get to the North Pole when the night is over? Oh and by the way how are you doing and how old are your elves?

I hope I have the greatest Christmas ever! I also hope you drink your orange juice and cookies. I am so excited for CHRISTMAS!

Sincerely,

Hayden Henderson

The night Santa lost his toy bag

Once upon time Santa was going to deliver presents on Christmas Eve. He didn't have his toy bag, so he went back to the toy shop. He didn't find it, so he retraced his steps and he found it stuck in a chimney. He hooked a rope to his sleigh and it came out. Christmas Eve was saved.

A very bad Christmas

Once upon a time Santa was sick so his little brother Zanta had to do Christmas for Santa. Zanta was so bad at being Santa! He didn't have a clue what to do! He said, "What am I to do?" He didn't know how to drive the sleigh, load the sleigh he didn't even know how to make toys. The elves tried to help too but they only made things worse. The workshop was about to blow! But then Mrs. Claus showed up. They went house to house but there was one house that had a small chimney. He made it though but it made a big clunk and the kid woke up. Zanta couldn't get out. He just got out in time but the dog got out. He got chased. He hopped in the sleigh. When Santa found out what happened he said, "Next year I will NOT TAKE A DAY OFF."

The missing reindeer

Once there lived a girl named Sophie who always wanted the reindeer named Prancer.

But one day Santa came to her and said, "Sophie, Prancer needs a new home. Will you take him?"

She said "YES!"

Then she looked at Prancer and then looked at Santa but he was gone. And when it was time to go to bed she put Prancer in his stable but she forgot to lock the door and Prancer escaped!!! In the morning she went to see Prancer but could not find him. She was scared to tell Santa. So she went searching. She tried whistling and calling his name until she went to Santa. Santa took her to the stable and he was there. She rode home.

The end.

A perfect winter day

To me, a perfect winter day would be like this. Wake up and smell the smell of bacon and eggs. Get dressed and eat breakfast with my family. Watch a little TV, go for a walk to my grandma's house. When I'm back home, I'll make an igloo then go ice fishing with my dad. Then come back home and have a warm glass of hot chocolate with marshmallows and watch TV.

Brett's 12 Days Of Christmas

Have you ever wondered what a Grade 4 Student likes to do when school is out for Christmas break? It's been a busy December full of writing stories like Someday and this one and reading novels. We are so ready for our Christmas break!

On day 1: I will relax on the couch then after breakfast I will play with my brother all day and then when it's late we will watch a movie.

On day 2: I will relax again and then I'll hang out with my family all day and watch TV.

On day 3: I'll get pictures taken on the Outdoor Rink with my brother Kyle then I will get home and play with Kyle.

On day 4, it's Christmas Eve! On Christmas Eve we have a big brunch and then we hang out and go to bed at 10:00 and wait for Christmas day.

On day 5, it's Christmas Day! We get up at 8:00 or 9:00 but I usually get up at 7:30 we eat breakfast quick then my mom gets her camera where ever it is. Then me and my siblings really want to open our presents but my mom wants a picture before we start opening our presents.

On day 6: It's Boxing Day! We wait for our family to get to our house and then we swap our presents for each other and open our presents. Then after that the parents talk upstairs and the kids are downstairs playing.

On day 7: We'll play with our new presents and games so it will be like a game kind of day.

On day 8: It will be a relax day from the day before cause we would be tired from the day of playing games.

On day 9: My brother and I might go to the rink and play shinny then come back to the house and hang out with my family.

On day 10: I'll play with my brother all day before he leaves to go back to Norte Dame in like three to four days from now.

On day 11, it's New Year's Eve! On New Year's Eve we stay up past midnight and then we hug each other and say "Happy New Year".

On day 12, a new year is here! It's a new year and we have a big brunch again and celebrate the first day of 2020!

A few more days of rest after that and we are rested up for back to school!

DON'T SHAVE YOUR BEARD

Dear Santa,
The reason why I think you should not shave your beard is because if little kids figure out you shaved your beard kids will start crying! So I would not do it if I were you, and if you do it you will probably be in jail. Also little kids will think that you are a fake Santa.

Santa you are a good man but if you shave your beard things will start to change a lot. One thing you will probably be called by the cops. The second thing you will be seen by a child. This is why I think you should not shave your beard at Christmas.

The third thing is I like the beard that way because if you have it shaved then people will not even notice you and plus you can hold stuff in your beard if it's not shaved.

You have a good beard and if you shave it then Mrs. Claus won't notice you too. I like your beard and Mrs. Claus does too.

So if you shave your beard on Christmas then people won't notice you.

Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer

One day at the North Pole there was a reindeer with a red nose. His name was Rudolph. He always got left out of things and he would always try to hide his nose because all the other reindeer thought he looked goofy.

The leader of the reindeer was Prancer and he always worked Rudolph harder than the others. One day Rudolph noticed that his nose was getting bigger and bigger. Day by day it grew one centimetre each time so his parents wanted to do something about it because they didn't like how he got picked on. So his parents told Rudolph to go to the elves and tell them to make a cover over his nose so it wouldn't glow and so he looked like all the other reindeer.

Rudolph tried that and the next day it cracked in half because his nose got bigger and bigger, so the elves built a cover that was made of metal. So the next day Rudolph went to the elves and said, "Can you make a metal nose cover so it doesn't crack and paint it in brown?"

So Rudolph woke up the next day and the metal cover was too big so that means that Rudolph's nose got smaller. Because Rudolph's nose was getting smaller and smaller and all the reindeer liked him. Because his nose was brown now, all the other reindeer said he can go in the front of the sleigh with his dad Prancer. After that Rudolph was the most famous reindeer and that is the story of Rudolph's nose.

The Christmas Hockey Game

It was a nice sunny afternoon on December 24. I was at practice with the Edmonton Oilers. My friend Rylan and I were talking about the NHL winter Classic. We were playing the Winnipeg Jets. I was the captain and Rylan and Hudson were assistant Captains. We were playing my cousin's team, he was the Captain of his team and his friends were the assistants. It was going to be a hard game but we had a really good team. We are leading the league with 64 points and they were right behind us with 63 points. In that practice we watched the plays that the Winnipeg Jets use and practice on stopping them. We played really good in practice and I think we have a good chance of beating them.

The next morning I woke up at about 8 a.m. and had breakfast and had a quick workout and headed right to the rink. I was about half an hour before Hudson and 35 minutes before Rylan. We were first to the rink by an hour and a half. Rylan, Hudson and I went out for a quick skate on the ice, we were playing in Regina's football field. The ice was awesome, we got undressed and teammates finally started showing up. We had a practice before the game with our whole team and after that some fans came down to the dressing room and got pictures and autographs from the players and me. It was warm ups and it was awesome, our team was playing good, well that's what it looked like during warm ups. Then it was finally game time, me and Hudson started on defense and Rylan, McDavid and Draisaitl started on forward. The first was tough, we tied the period 2-2.

Then it was the start of the second we played amazing and we were up 4-2 after the second intermission. It was quiet in our dressing room. If we won the game we were in first by three points. The start of the third was hard as they came out flying, they got a goal on the first shift. The next little bit there was no action but then they came flying down the ice and made a nice passing goal to tie the game at 4. The last three minutes were hard, we were battling our hearts out and with 30 seconds left our best line was out and we skated it up on a four on one and passed it back and forth and I got a nice one timer but their goalie robbed me!

The period was over so we went for a quick flood and went to overtime. In overtime it was three on three and me, Rylan and Hudson started. We came out flying, we had the puck for two minutes and had shot after shot. We couldn't score then right when I was about to shoot I saw something falling from the sky, it looked like a sled. It looked like there were nine reindeer in the front of it and there was a guy in a red suit.

Then there were a bunch of kids that yelled, "Santa". The sled landed right beside the ice and burst, then a guy came flying out of it and landed on the ice. I skated up to the guy and it was Santa! He was a jolly old man. He said, that his reindeer lost their magic and the sled started to fall and landed in the football field.

His sled was destroyed so he couldn't deliver the presents to the kids. So, me and all the others on my team, and the other team, helped him build a new one and we finished it in an hour. He got to all the houses in Regina. After he left the field the game was back on. There were three minutes left in overtime and Rylan, Hudson and I were playing the last three minutes. We got so many shot but we could not score so went to a shoot out. They had the first shot and my cousin went. He went for a fake shot then through the legs but our goalie robbed him. Then it was my turn, I went up and faked through the legs, then I did another through the legs and I scored. The crowd went nuts! The next shot from Winnipeg, the guy skated it up and shot and there were two more shots for us and one more for them. We were winning the shoot out by one goal. Now it was Rylan's shot, he skated it up wide and faked the shot then cut to the middle and put it five hole for the win! Our team leaped over the boards, we won the Winter classic!

At the end of the game Hudson got third star, Rylan got second star, and I got first star. After we got undressed we put our skates on and went skating with our kids and wives. That Christmas Eve was the greatest time of my life and my kids got what they wanted for Christmas.

A Dog Saved Christmas

It was a beautiful morning Santa's elves were loading presents into Santa's sleigh. The stable elves were getting the reindeer ready to go.

It was the day before Christmas Eve. Tommy was given the job to feed the reindeer. He made his way to the barn and started to grab reindeer feed. He opened the gate to give the feed to the reindeer, he closed the gate behind him or so he thought. Tommy dropped the feed and all of a sudden the reindeer ran out of their pen! Tommy tried to catch them but they were too fast. The reindeer ran into their places on the sleigh. The sleigh started to lift off the ground. Tommy jumped inside the sleigh trying to control the reindeer. Santa and the elves ran outside to see what all the noise was about just in time to see poor Tommy being flown away into the night sky with all of the presents.

Tommy was trying to control the reindeer. All of a sudden they crashed into a forest. Tommy led all of the reindeer through the forest and into an abandoned barn they found. Tommy closed the barn and set off to find help. He was wandering through the woods when he started to hear a crying sound. He started to follow the sound, he searched for a long time. Then he saw a little girl, she tried to hide from him. She looked so scared. Tommy calmed her down, then she told him she was lost and couldn't find her way home. Tommy told her he would help her get home. She gave him directions and before they knew it she was home. The little girl thanked Tommy and gave him a little stuffed dog.

The sun was going down so Tommy went back to the barn and fell fast asleep. He dreamed of going home when he suddenly awoke to something licking him. He opened his eyes and saw a little puppy.

It was a golden retriever with blue eyes and it looked just like the stuffy the little girl gave him. Then it hit him this dog was that stuffy, it had come to life. Tommy started to search his bags then he pulled out a little sack of treats and magic. He grabbed berries from the sack and fed two of them to the dog. He looked at the dog and tickled him but instead of hearing a bark he heard laughter. Tommy jumped up and yelled it worked. I knew those berries would come in handy. He started to ask the dog questions. The dog said its name was Charlie and it was a boy. Tommy asked the dog if it would help him. Charlie said yes. Tommy went to tell the reindeer to stay put and to count them.

Tommy gasped, one of the reindeer was missing. It was Cupid. Tommy didn't know what to do do, but Charlie thought up a plan. The boys would get tools from a nearby town and then go find Cupid so they set off towards the town. The two of them entered the town, they saw people everywhere, children and grownups. They wandered the town and to their luck they found a tool shop. But Tommy had never been outside the North Pole so he didn't know he had to pay. Tommy grabbed the tools he needed and left the store. The shop keeper called the police right away and they arrested Tommy.

Charlie ran after the police car all the way to the police station. He knew he had to get Tommy back to the North Pole. Charlie couldn't get to Tommy through the front doors. He circled the building. He found a window in the back, it led right to jail cell. Charlie hopped up on a dumpster and opened the window. Tommy saw Charlie through the window, so he started to pull himself through it. They made their way towards the woods luckily Tommy had hid the tools in his jacket.

Tommy and Charlie went back to the barn. Tommy fixed the sleigh and they set off to find Cupid. They search for hours, but then they found her. She had her leg stuck under a branch in a hole. Tommy couldn't pull it out. Charlie started to dig down in to the hole until Cupid pulled her leg up and out. The three went back to the barn. Tommy got the reindeer to fly back to the North Pole and he took Charlie with him. When they got back to the North Pole, Tommy told Santa what happened, and how Charlie had helped him.

Santa asked Charlie if there was anything he wanted in return. Charlie looked at Santa and said all he wanted was a home. That night Charlie went with Santa to the one home he knew would make Charlie happy. They went to the house that the little girl lived at. The next day that same girl came downstairs to find a puppy with a name tag that said "Charlie" and a leash and collar. Charlie finally had a family and that was his one Christmas wish. This was because that one special dog saved Christmas.

What my teacher wants for Christmas

I think my teacher wants Lindt for Christmas because she loves chocolate and there are different flavors. The next thing my teacher wants is a diamond because she loves shiny stuff and colors. The other thing is dogs, she loves animals because they're fluffy and soft. I think another thing she wants is an English book because she wants to learn English. Maybe I can get Lindt chocolates because it's not expensive. But I can't get diamonds because they're expensive.

Santa Didn't Come On Time

It was eight in the morning on Christmas Eve and Laura and Carey were sleeping. Until they heard their mother calling. "COME DOWN STAIRS. It is time for breakfast and I have some food that I don't make that often."

Laura and Carey quickly ran down stairs without getting dressed. Mom and Dad were sitting down stairs at the table.

"OKAY" Laura said.
"Mom how much do we have?" Carey asked.
"Well," said mom, "We have chocolate chip pancakes, scrambled eggs, sausages, chocolate milk and cookies too!"

"YUM," said Carey and Laura at the same time.
"Let's eat!" And so they did.

"That was good," Laura said when they done eating. Then they got dressed and they played board games and crafted for the rest of the day.

At night, they went to bed. Meanwhile, Santa was almost done delivering presents but, SANTA MISSED THEIR HOUSE. So, Santa didn't come on time.

In the morning Laura and Carey got up and ran down stairs to no presents! Carey had tears in her eyes. "It's okay," Mom said. "Let's stay up and see if we can spot Santa. Maybe he was late."

Then they spotted Santa and Santa spotted them. So Santa texted their mom. The text read "Tell the kids to go back to bed and then I will come."

"Go to bed" mom said, "then Santa will come."

When Santa left mom called the girls to come down stairs. Laura and Carey quickly ran down stairs. Laura got makeup and a unicorn stuffy. Carey got a Barbie doll. MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL.

Reindeer games

Do you ever wonder if the reindeer play or laugh around or sleep all day? I think they might stand up on their back legs and skip around. Or maybe they play a board game like Monopoly!

They might pull a prank or even build a tank.
Vixen might talk with Rudolph or play UNO.

Cupid might take a warm bath and do some math.
Dancer and Prancer might dance around or prance around.

Comet, Donner and Blitzen might play around in their blanket bin.
Dasher might play with some Lego. Who knows?

Some people say that they play Twister. They get all tangled up. But I don't think so. I think they eat, sleep, watch TV, run around and play board games. I don't know. What do you think they do? Watch TV? Play Just Dance? Color? Or something else?

They might do back flips. I honestly don't know. They might even play in the snow. I don't think they like to write, but honest - they might!

They might hop on a sled and slide down a hill. Maybe hop on a pair of skis and ride down a huge hill! They might not play at all! Do you think they play? Or not?

If they don't play, they might just lay in the stack of hay.
"Do you have an idea of what to do?"

"No, sorry Comet. I'm bored too!"
See? The reindeer would be bored all day! So they must play!

No? I didn't convince you just yet? Here then, look at their conversation:

"Donner."
"What, Blitzen?"

"Do you have an idea of what to do?"
"No, sadly I don't."

"Oh... that's ok..."
"Dancer?"

"Yeeees?"
"I'm sure you can bust a move!"

"I'm sorry, I can't. I'm too bored."
"Rudolph?"

"Hmmm?"
"You always have something to do!"

"Nope. Not this time."
Now you see? Well, I do. Dancer, Prancer, Cupid, Donner, Dasher, Comet, Blitzen, Vixen, Rudolph. They must all love to play. Wait... what about Christmas next year? Now that I think about it, they probably have to train.... OH WELL! Merry Christmas

The day after Christmas

After Christmas at the North Pole, the elves would probably be relaxing or start working on the toys. Santa Claus would be sleeping on his chair and on his little table beside him would probably be a plate with some cookies on it. Mrs. Claus will probably be making some cookies for Santa Claus. The reindeer will probably be sleeping in their shed and the elves would probably be feeding and giving water to the reindeer.

The Right Elf for the Job

Dear Santa,
 I need to tell you something. You should hire me at the workshop because I am very helpful. I am also creative. I need this job because right now, I live in an apartment. I'm trying to save money for a house, but the food and the payment for living in the apartment, makes it harder. Having this job will make it easier. I also use a little bit of money to buy supplies to make crafts. Like origami and painting. I've done very well on them. Lots of people even say I'm smart.

Firstly, whenever I'm making crafts and I do something wrong, I try again until I get it right. Like when I'm doing origami, if I do something wrong, I unfold it and try again. Lots of people say, practice makes perfect! Also when I'm painting. The same thing happens. I mess up, but then I get another piece of paper and restart until I get it right.

Another reason why you should hire me is I can remember things really well. I just say it in my mind a few times and then I got it. It's like a poem to be honest. Again, you practice. After a while, you've memorized it. I can remember lots of things easily. You can turn almost anything into something easy to remember. Just make it shorter and it'll be easier to remember.

The last reason why you should hire me is I can get lots of work done in just a few minutes. No matter what it is! I think I would do well in the workshop. I always try my best while I'm working. I can also do things with some spare time after. If I'm behind, I use my free time to catch up. Even if I'm a lot behind, I will still catch up, no matter what it is.

So what I'm trying to say is, I am creative which makes me capable of working at the workshop. The three reasons why you should hire me at the workshop are I always try again, I can remember things, and I can get work done in just a few minutes. Those are the reasons why you should hire me at the workshop.

Christmas Wonderland

Hello my name is Kasey, I'm from Ohio, United States. I live with my mom, my dad and my big sister Brooklyn. I had lots of surgeries when I was born to help me breathe and listen without a hearing aid.

I have always been a huge fan of space and science because I learn lots.

I was home-schooled last year but it's hard going to a new school and not looking ordinary. I always get made fun of. I always get asked if I was in a fire or a really bad car crash.

I try not to let it get to me but it hurts a lot when people run away from you and thinking you're contagious or have the plague, but I try not to let it get to me. I always wear an astronaut helmet.

I woke up and my mom and dad weren't there. I looked everywhere, then I saw a note, it said, "Hi sorry had to go to work early love you lots have a good day and there's eggs and bacon on the table, be home late." I sighed but it was fine. I ate the bacon and eggs, they were pretty good. I got ready and walked to school.

On my way I saw a little golden ball, it had some light inside so I opened it.

It was sparkley and rainbow but the light got lighter and lighter then I got in the ball, yeah I know that sounds nuts. I was in shock, there were candy canes, really big ones, bigger than me, and cotton candy as fluffy as clouds and a lake made of chocolate. "Hi!!!!" I heard. I looked around and saw no one, then I looked down. A small little elf with blue and pink fluffy hair and light brown eyes and rosy pink cheeks.

"Hello, my name is Ginger, and you are?"

"Hi I'm Kasey and where am I?"

You're in Christmas Wonderland. What brings you here?"

Ginger asked.

"I don't know. I found a little golden ball and I opened it and it took me here. I just want to go home."

"Let's go see Papa Elf he will know what to do" Ginger said.

We went to see Papa Elf. "Papa how do we get this human back to Earth, he got stuck in the Christmas Wonderland Ball and he doesn't have it and I have no clue how to get him back to Earth," Ginger said.

"There is one way to get him back to Earth but it's going to be really hard and risky."

I had butterflies in my stomach, I was scared and missing my mom and dad, even my sister.

"The way back to Earth is you're going through the Christmas Wonderland forest and it takes about four hours to get back to Earth."

"Let's do this."

"Okay," Ginger said.

We started to walk through the forest then we stopped. We were at the edge of a cliff.

"How are we going to get through?" Ginger said.

The trees were candy canes then I see a log made of chocolate. I grabbed the chocolate log and put it over the cliff, it was a bridge we went on the chocolate bridge and we got to the other side.

Then we saw a lot of little angry elves, a really fat little one with a cookie crown came up to us and said "WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE, GET OUT!!!"

"I am trying to get back to Earth, I'm really sorry."

"Well why didn't you say something I have a flying reindeer and he can take you back to Earth"

"Wow really that's awesome!"

We went on the reindeer and it was amazing. We came to the door that took us back to Earth.

I said goodbye to everyone. Then I went back to earth right where I was. It was dark out and I ran home.

I opened by door and my mom was crying and my dad and sister looked so sad.

"What's wrong?"

"Oh my goodness he's here!"

I hugged them so hard and never wanted to let go. I am back with my family now and living a really good life.

THE SANTA STASH

Dear Santa, you would look AMAZING in a moustache! Your jolly white beard may be a classic, but c'mon, it's time to change things up! Also, get a mullet while you're at it! First of all, you could get things stuck in an ugly beard! Secondly moustaches are stylish and Mrs. Claus will think you look more handsome! Thirdly, you will get double the cookies from me if you get a stash! I think you could be even more popular with the reindeer & elves if you had a cool looking mustache! I feel like you should grow a white one and then dye it a funky color.

Getting things stuck in a beard isn't very pleasant. Food and toy pieces could get stuck in there and you might not even notice! The elves and others will laugh at you! You will be HUMILIATED!

Moustaches are a sign of fun, intelligence, and class. Mrs. Claus will be happy you shaved your beard because I think I overheard her saying "He takes way too much time combing it." Moustaches are small but they make you look cooler than Donnie, and that's hard to do!

Finally, if you come to my house in Moosomin SK, Canada, you will get cookies galore! There's getting cookies from other peoples' houses, then there's my sister and I just dumping loads of cookies all over you!

Santa, your mustache will be recognized worldwide! Remember, you can't get anything stuck in a mustache, stashes make you look awesome, and cookies, cookies, cookies!!! Please shave off your beard Santa! I am going to grow a stash when I am older. You should do it now!

How your hands got so cold

On Sunday I went to my hockey game in Roblin, we won. After I went back home and we ate then went to my brother Riley's hockey game but we went shopping before we went to the game because we had 2 hours before we went to my brother's hockey game. So, we spent our 2 hours and went to Riley's hockey game. Me and my grandma went to find a spot to watch Riley's hockey games.

When we looked for a spot, I saw an arcade game then I asked my grandma for some money. Then I went and played because I had time because the game started at 6:00 but we had to get there for an hour before, so I played. Now the game started and me and my mom went to find a spot to watch the game. A minute into the game, my cousin Brooklyn tapped me on the shoulder and she said come and see her boyfriend so I went and we met. Then my uncle came and my other cousin came to see Riley's hockey game. My cousin's boyfriend and me, we talked a lot. We added me on Instagram and on Snapchat. Then my cousin came and asked her dad to borrow his mitts when it was warm. So that's when I asked Brooklyn how come her hands were cold.

I am writing to you because Christmas is my favorite holiday of all. For Christmas I am going to give my mom a glass snowman and I am going to give my dad a hug and a pair of hockey gloves and tape. I am getting Brynn a Vic hockey stick and I am going to play with Kenna all day every day.
Please Santa can I get some LEGO and NHL 20?
I love Christmas and you're a great role model to the world.

Dear Santa,

I really want to be an elf! You have to pick me because I can wrap a big present in a minute! I can wrap any present with 1 piece of tape!

I'm quiet and sneaky. I think I'm the perfect elf for the job! I'm amazing Santa, so hire me! I feel happy when I wrap presents! Just pick me!

First, I'm speedy. I once wrapped a 3 foot by 1 foot present in 1 minute and 25 seconds! I also wrapped 100 presents in 10 minutes! I once had to make 25 toys and I finished in 5 minutes! This is just a little bit of my speedy ability. It would take 2 days to tell you all the things I've done quickly!

Secondly, I'm intelligent. One time I wrapped a present that was 1 foot and 11 inches with only one small piece of tape! I went to Elf College for 12 years and I got 100 percent each year! There's a lot more where that came from.

Lastly, I'm super sneaky. Once I was with a friend in an open field and I snuck up and scared her. Also, I don't make a single noise when I step on creaky floor boards. Don't you think I'm sneaky?

In conclusion, I think I'm the perfect elf for the job! I'm speedy, intelligent, and sneaky. Santa! I'm the most amazing elf you will ever find! Pick me! You're missing out if you turn me down! One last thing, DON'T READ ANY-ONE ELSE'S LETTER; just pick me.

Sincerely,

Madison

Bacon and Eggs

Hi kids, it's Santa that lives at the North Pole. I have a problem though, I'm sick of cookies and milk! Instead of cookies and milk could you leave me eggs and bacon?

The first reason why I don't want milk and cookies anymore is because eggs and bacon are my favorite food of all. Also, I'm sick of milk and cookies! I've had them for the last 250 years! I haven't even been drinking the milk because I'm lactose intolerant. This whole time I've just been dumping the milk out!

Another reason why I don't want milk and cookies anymore is because the cookies are too much! They make me fat and then I have to exercise. Another reason is cookies and milk are boring and old. Lastly, they are usually not too good for my belly and I have to make my suit bigger every year.

The last reason why I don't want milk and cookies anymore is the milk is usually warm by the time I get to your house. Warm milk, don't even get me started. Please stop hurting the cow by milking it!

Instead of cookies and milk I would prefer bacon and eggs. I think I should get eggs and bacon because it's my favorite, cookies make me fat, milk is usually warm by the time I get to your house. I hope you put eggs and bacon out for me.

Love, Santa

The Perfect Tree

Look at my beautiful pine needles. If you buy me I will be with you the whole season. I need a home or I will go to the garbage dump. You should buy me for your Christmas tree because I like to be with happy families.

Firstly, you should buy me because I provide beautiful, healthy air and I also smell like awesome pine. If you buy me you will get healthy non-polluted air. You can keep me for as long as you want! Just as long as you water me every day. If you buy me I will give you the most nutritious air you have ever smelled.

Secondly, you should buy me because I do not shed pine needles because my brand is a brand that does not shed. In this lot, I am the only type of my brand. If you buy me you won't have to step on any sharp pine needles. If you buy me, you will never have to sweep any pine needles up.

Lastly, if you buy me, you will have way more space to put up decorations. You can put up all of your hand made Christmas ornaments. You can put up all of the ones you bought, plus more! You also don't have to worry about me being too big or small, because I am just the perfect size.

Finally you should buy me for your Christmas tree because I LOVE happy families. You should buy me because I have good smelling pine needles, I don't shed pine needles, and I also have way more room than all of the other trees. That's why you should buy me for the low, low price of $23. If you want to buy me, contact Santa at 789-432-HOHO.

Rudolf's Story

One stormy Friday night on Christmas Eve a new reindeer was born

When Santa was going to deliver presents the new born ran out, you could see him from a mile away with a bright red light on his nose. When the new born came closer Santa realized that the new born had a bright red nose. Santa brought the new born with him because it was a dark and stormy night and none of the reindeer could see. So Santa put the newborn at the front with the new born reindeer's father, so the reindeer could see. After that Christmas Eve the new born was named Rudolf.

Rudolf started to get bullied from the other reindeer because they all said that he was spoiled because he got to ride on the sled when he was a new born. They would always say, "You don't fit in, you're ugly and you have a red nose." They would always leave him out of games and he would never get to deliver presents.

But one stormy Friday night on Rudolf's birthday, he was so scared to go outside because he thought everyone would pick on him. Then Santa came into the barn and said, "I need you to lead the sled, it's too foggy no one can see so we need a bright light to lead us." Rudolf knocked out the leader of the sled, his biggest bully. Rudolf's bully was so mad he hit Rudolf. Santa got so mad that he kicked Rudolf's bully right off the team, Rudolf's bully was never allowed to come back on the team.

After all of that they went and delivered all the presents to the good kids and the bad kids got coal or reindeer poop. So be good kids.

After that day Rudolf was the most popular reindeer in the North Pole. All of the reindeer would accept him into the games and he always got to lead the sleigh.

After awhile Rudolf found out that his bully had been really sad ever since he was never allowed to be part of the team, so Rudolf went and asked Santa if Cupid could lead the sled with Rudolf every third Christmas and will you let him join the team again.

Santa accepted the deal and went and told Cupid. Cupid flew as fast as he could to Rudolf and said why are you being nice to me, I was never nice to you? "Everybody deserves a second chance," said Rudolf.

A few years later Rudolf has a bright red nosed reindeer son of himself, and for Cupid he has a family of his own too, two boys and one girl. Rudolf and him became best friends and Rudolf even let Cupid bring his kids along with him when they are delivering presents.

After all of that, Rudolf grew old and the same with Cupid, so their kids took over. Rudolf's boy was the leader and Cupid's boys were second in command, they were best friends and they would do everything together.

After awhile Rudolf's son started to date Cupid's daughter and Cupid's boys would never let Rudolf's boy out of their sight until Rudolf's boy proposed. And the boy came out and said say no but she said yes.

After they got married the boys did too, they all had two kids but Rudolf's son had two red nosed kids and that is the end of Rudolf's story.

The Rude Girl

One day this little girl Gracie wanted to go sledding with her best friends. So she called her friends and they both said, "yeah sure." When Gracie was done talking to them she went and got her snow suit on. She grabbed her sled and met her friends at a snow hill. There was a lot of kids at the snow hill. Gracie and her friends went down the hill a couple times but they got bored. So Gracie's one friend Kianna said "Why don't we push kids down the hill!"

Gracie and the other Girl Natalie said "yeah that will be fun!"

So they decided to do that. Gracie pulled the one girl's hair and Kianna pushed the kid on the ice so they got a bloody nose. Then finally one of the parents recognized Gracie and called her mom and told her everything. So Gracie's mom called her phone and told Gracie to come home right now.

When Gracie got home her mom yelled at her and said, "Gracie you're not allowed to hang out with Kianna and Natalie anymore and you're grounded."

Gracie yelled, "that's so stupid". Then she stormed off to her room and slammed the door.

Her mom came rushing in and told Gracie "give me your phone!"

Gracie's mom said "actually it is mine I paid for it."

Her mom took her phone and told Gracie that she is not having Christmas with her brother and sister. Gracie's siblings names were Maci and Zac. Maci is 13, Zac is 2 and Gracie is 9 years old. Gracie was mad because her mom is giving all of her presents to Maci. Christmas was tomorrow and Maci was mad at Gracie because she pushed her friend's sisters. So Maci decided to get Gracie a gift for Christmas, but not a good gift, a bad gift. Maci got Gracie rocks and dirty old socks. She got her those things because she wanted to make her mad.

When Maci got home from the dump her mom was making supper, she was making pizza, ribs and fries. When her mom was making supper Maci went to the washroom and had a shower.

When Maci was done in the shower she told Gracie that she needed to have a shower.

Gracie said "No I don't have to listen to you".

Maci said "Well mom said you have to shower before you eat and you have to listen to mom"

Gracie shouted "Fine I'll shower!"

Maci went to her room and started to wrap Gracie's present. She stuck it under the Christmas tree and grabbed a plate for supper. Gracie got out of the shower and got a plate for herself. When everyone was done eating they all went to bed.

In the morning they opened their Christmas presents. Maci got clothes, makeup, shoes, a new fluffy pink blanket and other stuff. Zac got toys and clothes. All Gracie got from her mom were new shoes. Gracie noticed there was one more present left with her name on it. She opened it super-fast. When she saw what it was she rolled her eyes and said "very funny Maci."

Everyone started to laugh. They started to clean up the wrapping paper. When they finished cleaning they all put their new stuff away and went outside to play in the snow. They all had a snow ball fight and had an amazing day.

Laisha's 12 Days of Christmas

Have you ever wondered what a Grade 4 student likes to do when school is out for Christmas break?

It's been a busy December full of practicing for the Christmas Concert and writing our stories. We also are reading a novel.

We are so ready for Christmas break!

On day 1: I now get to relax I get to sleep in and wake up late. I get to stay in my PJ's and see if there are any presents for me and I will guess what it is.

On Day 2: I get to go in my room and draw, watch YouTube and make crafts for friends.

On Day 3: I get to make a big gingerbread house and see if my dad will eat it.

On Day 4, it's Christmas Eve! I get up and eat my breakfast and in the afternoon I have to get ready for a Christmas Party. We play games and win prizes.

On day 5, it's Christmas Day! I wake up and wait for my parents and sister to wake up then we open our presents and see what we got.

On day 6: it's Boxing Day! We have to stay in my room because my mom is vacuuming and she doesn't want us in the living room.

On day 7: Today I am going to my room to make a craft for my friends and class.

On day 8: I am getting ready to go skating at the outdoor rink at the MCC Centre.

On day 9: This evening me and my family play board games and watch movies with popcorn.

On day 10: I am going to a friend's house. Her name is AJ and we are playing in her room.

On day 11, it's New Year's Eve! We go to a friend's house and celebrate New Year's. We do karaoke and eat and I will get stuffed.

On day 12, a new year is here! I don't make New Year's goals, it is just like a normal day.

A few more days of rest after that and we are rested up for back to school!

Cohen's 12 days of Christmas

Have you ever wondered what a grade 4 student likes to do on Christmas? It's been a busy December full of math.

On day one I will make a cake with my dad and then eat it all with my brother Riley.

On day two I will play video games with my brother Riley all day then snuggle my dog and my dad all night.

On day three I will go to a restaurant for supper and eat lots of Mexican food like tacos and enchiladas and all that stuff.

On day four I snuggled my dog for the whole day and then at night I will play video games with my dad.

On day five it's Christmas day and I will open a present and play Saw on my computer.

On day six it's Boxing Day. I will buy a flamingo today specifically for the good prices and then teach it to play video games on the PS4 and Xbox.

On day seven I will have a deep sleep and only wake up when my dog licks my face.

On day eight I will just play video games by myself for a little bit then sleep some more.

On day nine I will go shopping for lots and lots of cookies and pie then save it all for later in my Christmas break.

On day 10 I will snuggle my dog forever and play video games with my flamingo. He's not too good at it yet but he's learning how.

On day 11 I will party forever and then I will crash and sleep for 17 hours and wake up not knowing what happened.

On day 12 I will be so excited for 2020 it will be the best year of my life and I will have so much fun except in six months I won't have Ms. Fregin anymore and I will miss her so much.

Dear Santa,

How is everything going in the North Pole? Have you and your elves been working hard? This Christmas I would like black and white checkered Vans. I am a size four. How old are you Santa? How do your reindeer fly all across the world? I wish I was magical like you Santa.

I NEED A JOB!

Dear Santa Claus,

Santa, I'm a very good worker! I know how to build toys, and other things! I also don't give up on things I build. Santa, the reason why I need this job is because I don't have a job and I want to get paid to buy a house. I feel like I am the right person for the job. I will do anything, I could be security, head elf (please give me that), secretary, toymaker.

One reason why I want the job is because I am poor and I need money for my family. I am also a hard worker. I think this is a good reason because it proves how good I work on toys for kids. I make toys on Christmas for kids on my street. Another reason why this is a good reason is because it proves I am a great worker and have a kind heart.

Another reason why you should hire me is because I don't give up on projects. I think that this is a good reason because it proves how good I work. Another reason why this is a good reason is because it proves I don't give up.

Another reason why you should hire me is because I'm very humorous! I tell jokes once in a while! This reason is good because it proves I'm humorous. Another reason why this is a good reason is because it proves I'm not some boring Elf that doesn't have any fun. I am fun to work with!

Santa, I need this job, it is very, very important! One reason why you should hire me is because I am a hard worker. Another reason is I don't give up on projects. I am also very humorous! I hope you hire me after this Santa! I really need it!

Automatic Sleigh

Hi, my name is Ralph, the green nosed reindeer. You probably don't know me, but I help haul the sleigh every year. Let me tell you, it is not easy being a reindeer! The sleigh gets heavier and heavier every year and it's getting hard to pull. I mean, let's see Santa pull a 2000 pound sleigh every year. I think Santa should buy an automatic sleigh that doesn't need reindeer to pull it. Then I can sit right beside Santa in the sleigh!

It is very hard on me and the other reindeer pulling the sleigh. We run out of energy in the first hour and from then on we struggle to make it through the night. We are almost falling asleep in the air!

If Santa got an automatic sleigh, Rudolf wouldn't be in charge and then he couldn't boss me around. Rudolf I mean Rude-olf brags about how he is better than me and the other reindeer. He says he is cool because he has a red nose. I have a green nose, what's the difference? He says the color red is better than the color green.

The last reason is us reindeer are getting old. Dasher is 1560 years old, Dancer is 1589 years old, Prancer is 1426 years old, Vixen is 1523 years old, Comet is 1437 years old, Cupid is 1523 years old, Donner is 1573 years old, Blitzen is 1533 years old Rudolf is 1421, and I Ralph am also 1421 years old. Last year a few of us reindeer almost had a heart attack!

I think Santa should buy an automatic sleigh that doesn't need reindeer to pull it. Then I can sit right beside Santa in his new automatic sleigh! The three reasons why Santa needs a new sleigh are us reindeer run out of energy in the first hour! Second, Rudolf brags and says he is better than me and the other reindeer. Finally, the other reindeer and I are too old to pull the sleigh. I hope after Santa reads this he will buy an automatic sleigh and if not I'M RETIRING!! Your friend Ralph the green nosed reindeer.

MISSING SANTA

Once there were three boys named Roger, Jake and James. They were not the best kids, they were always getting into trouble, except James!

In the morning, it was Christmas and that was when they realized there were no presents! So James yelled, "Why are there no presents? What could have happened? Was there an earthquake that broke Santa's sleigh, did his deer begin to die? What could have happened?" begged James.

While James was distracted, Jake and Roger were pulling pranks until they found Santa in a tree. They would help him but they wanted money. But, he refused so they put him in a cage. While Santa was asleep in the cage, they were trying to sell him for 250 dollars.

When James saw that Jake and Roger were selling Santa, James counted all of his money but he didn't have enough money.

Then he ran as fast as he could to the North Pole to tell the elves but they did not believe him. So, he ran fast to go tell Mrs. Claus and she believed him. So, they jumped into Santa's old sleigh to go save Santa.

When they finally got there, Santa was gone. So they asked Jake and Roger, "Where is Santa?"

They said, "In that house." Surprisingly, the elves came, smashed the house, and saved Santa. The cops took Jake and Roger to jail for selling Santa. Then Santa delivered presents to the world!

Winter adventure-Going to the Heritage Classic 2019

It was a cold winter day and I was going to the Heritage Classic, Jets vs. Flames with my uncle and my auntie in Regina.

It took a long, long time to get to Regina but when we got there it was worth it. When we got there we went to Golf Town. At Golf Town there were so many different golf clubs and balls. There was this one putter that I loved. The grip on the top felt awesome and comfortable. The face of the putter had grooves to grip the ball and hit the ball smoothly in the direction you aim. Also it looks super cool and do you know why I know that? Because I got to try it out on their little putting green.

We also went to the Canadian Brew House. The food there was so good, it tasted like a healthy candy.

Once we got to the Mosaic Stadium we had to wait in line to go through the security. The line had at least 100 people in it, so it took a long time. When we went through the security we had to take all our stuff made of metal out of our pockets. I didn't want to take my gloves off because it was so cold it felt like I was in Antarctica. When I was done my hands were frozen. After all that, we entered the stadium and found our seats. It was time for the Hunter Brothers and Jess Moskaluke to sing. They sang a song called 'Middle' and they sang it very well. They sang it so good that the whole stadium was on their feet. And then the Hunter Brothers sang the national anthem in between the entire Jets team and entire Flames team. Guess what happened next? This is what happened: VOOOUURRCH!!

Two jets flew over and rumbled the stadium. It sounded like a nuclear explosion. Finally, it was GAME TIME!! Both teams faced off, Monahan vs. Scheifle. Scheifle won. Half way through the first period, Calgary scored and all of the Flames fans jumped up and cheered. There was this one guy in a bear costume that was trash-talking the Jets for letting that goal in. I was mad—Grrrr!!! But that didn't matter because with 20 seconds left in the game, Bryan Little roofed it and tied it. Soon overtime started and about one minute into overtime, Kyle Connor made a move on the d-man and passed it to Scheifle and he scored, bar down! All of the Jets fans jumped out of their seats and cheered—YAY!!! WOOUHHOU!!

Santa on Vacation

It was Christmas Eve and the elves thought Santa was still sleeping. So elf Bob, elf Suzie, elf Elf, and elf Weird all went into his room to wake him up! They went to the foot of his bed and yanked off the covers but nothing moved.

"Santa it's wake up eve, so Christmas!"

"Um, elf Bob I think you said it backwards." Exclaimed elf Suzie

"Don't say how I judge things." snarled elf Bob

"Uh ya dude that was a little wrong too," elf Elf said as chilled as peppermint.

"You funny sound elf Elf."

"Elf Bob you need to go back to school. Or...not talk til we wake up Santa."

They all yelled at Santa (except elf Bob) "Wake up Santa" and nothing moved.

"He must be in a very deep sleep," whispered elf Weird. "I'll turn on the lights," elf Suzie loudly whispered. When she turned on the lights they saw where Santa would normally sleep there were pillows.

Then elf Weird said "I found a note under the pillows, it said "Hi elves I'm going to Hawaii. I'll be back Christmas day so you deliver the presents this year and remember don't put elf Bob driving the sleigh, because last time he ran over little boy Jonny's grandma. From Santa." "OH NO!" screamed elf Bob.

"Wow, you finally said a word right," teased elf Suzie.

"Okay guys I'm driving the sleigh tonight," bragged elf Elf

"One, because Santa said don't let elf Bob drive the sleigh. Two, elf Weird last time Santa let him drive he shut his eye's and ran over elf Tim. Three, Elf Suzie you never have driven the sleigh and I will be Santa next when this Santa retires because I passed my Santa test, but so did elf Tim so I guess I should thank you elf Weird."

"Ya no problem man." So all the elves put the presents in the sleigh.

Fat Santa

Hey Santa! You need to lose some pounds! You are so big that your special red suit is getting too tight. Mrs. Claus will have to keep on making you a bigger suit. If you don't lose some weight you could get stuck in the chimney. Your clothes will get all dirty squeezing through and you will be waking up the kids. Also, the reindeer will have trouble pulling you if you don't drop some pounds. I think that when you go to give children presents, you won't be able bend down. Santa, I think you need to lose some weight!

First your special red suit is getting so tight Santa. The buttons are starting to pop. Everyone knows that Santa always wears a red suit! If your suit buttons pop off while you are delivering gifts it might freak the parent out. If they see a guy with a big tummy and no red suit in their living room, they might call the cops.

Second, if you don't lose some weight, Santa, you could get stuck in the chimney. If you get stuck while delivering presents it will slow you way down and you might not be able to get to all the children around the world their gifts before Christmas morning. You might also wake up everyone in the house if you call for help when you get stuck. Lose some weight Santa!

Third, the reindeer will have trouble flying if you are too heavy and don't lose some weight. The reindeer will get tired if they have to work extra hard to pull your sleigh. If you lose a few pounds it will be much easier for the reindeer. They will be able to fly around the world faster and get toys to the children on time.

Santa, please take my advice and lose the extra weight. Make healthier food choices and take time each day to get some exercise. You will feel so good! Santa we love you so much and want you to be healthy. I promise to help you lose a few pounds, Santa. This year instead of leaving milk and cookies, I will leave you some yummy fresh fruit and cheese! Santa lose some weight please.

What my teacher wants for Christmas

I think my teacher wants Expo markers because the markers she has are running out of ink. My teacher might also like Lindor chocolate because it is her favorite kind of chocolate. I think my teacher would like if I bought a new broom because the broom she has is old. I think my piano teacher would like a new piano because then she would have two pianos, and the more the merrier! But a piano might be too expensive. So, I'm probably just going to get her a piano book. My gym teacher might like a new sweater because she really likes sweaters. I think my teachers deserve all of those things but I wish I had enough money for a piano. If I got my teachers those gifts they would scream because they would be happy. Something else my Mme Estelle would like is a Christmas pencil because all the pencils she has are black. And if I bought a Christmas pencil, the pencil would be colorful and have cool designs. She might like if I bought her a Christmas decoration because it would be pretty on her tree. And she loves Christmas.

What my teacher would like most of all is for our class to sing our Christmas song right because when we sound off key, she says it sounds awful!

The Missing Gift

"We each get five gifts but there is fourteen gifts under the tree and there should be fifteen gifts under the tree," Kayla said. "WE ONLY HAVE 14 GIFTS!"

Emily said, "Yeah I am going to see who is missing one. It is Ashly." Emily ran upstairs to tell Ashly. Emily and Ashly ran downstairs.

"Did you tell her?" Kayla said.

"Yeah," Ashly started asking a lot of questions Kayla yelled, "STOP IT ASHLY. All we have to do is find it."

Kayla said, "It should be under the tree."

Ashly said, "I am so not happy we are doing this on our Christmas day. It is so unfair."

"Calm down, it can happen to anyone."

"Yeah but it happened to me. Why did it happen to me? Ashly asked.

"I do not know," Kayla replied.

"Well can you give me an answer?" Ashly said to Emily.

Emily said, "I cannot give you an answer. I'm going to count them again: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15. There are 15 gifts you counted wrong! We found the gift! Merry Christmas everyone."

The snow fight

One morning I woke up early to get some snow. Then I asked myself "What can I do with it?" Then I felt a buzz in my head. An IDEA. I went to my brother's room and put it in the bucket...on the top of the door. Two very boring hours later I heard "AHHHH!" while I was making a fort and snowballs. Soon I came charging in the house throwing snowballs everywhere, especially in his hot chocolate. Then he threw a few at me and got in the shower...but I put snow in there, too! Then I spent a few hours cleaning up...but I will get him again one day.

"Santa" cried a little elf.
 "What? Where?" yelled Santa.
 "You're late!" scolded the elf.
 "Oh no the kiddies will be crying when they wake up." Said Santa
 So Santa got on his clothes and went outside. The reindeer were gone! Santa was so upset but then he heard a voice. It was Jesus.
 "Tomorrow is my birthday. All you need to do is pray and ask for help."
 So Santa did. A minute later his reindeer were there and he got the elves.
 "Lets" go" yelled Santa.

The elves are making more toys and gift paper for wrapping presents the next year and Santa's eating the left-over cookies. After they're done they go outside to feed the reindeer carrots. Then they went back in and Mrs. Claus was making more cookies and hot chocolate. The elves and Santa came in and ate the whole plate of cookies! They watched a movie that was two hours long. After that they went outside and had the biggest snowball fight in the world. They also made a snow angel in the deepest snow that they could find. They went back in and had another glass of hot chocolate. And then they went to bed.

One of my favorite memories of Christmas

When we were in the truck going to my grand-ma's house on Christmas Eve I was so excited because we did a ton of fun stuff like we have Christmas lunch and we get to open some Christmas crackers and Christmas has. We go sledding on a snow hill, then we visit for a bit. After, my auntie Jodie wraps a chocolate or something else with a lot of wrapping paper and we try to open it with some oven mitts or we wear a mask that you can't see through and we get timed. After that we open the presents. Then after awhile we had to leave because it was getting late.
