The Present Stealer

"Hi, I am Jack and I am 14 and this is Anne and she is 8."
Jack and Anne go to school.
"Anne, what did you learn in school?" Jack asked.
"Division, spelling and reading. How about you?" Anne replied.
"Long multiplication, long division and cursive," Jack said.
Jack and Anne came home to their Christmas tree set up. The tree was tall, green, skinny and blank.
"SURPRISE!" Mom and Dad yelled.
"YAY!" Anne said with a smile.
Jack saw the tree and asked, "Can we decorate?"
"Yes!" Mom said happily.
"I'll get the decorations." Dad said.
Jack and Anne decorate the tree. After the tree was decorated it was tall, green, shiny and beautiful.
"I love it!" Anne yelled happily.
Jack and Anne did their homework and had supper.

How I got stuck in a snow globe

One day I was playing video games with Tristen because we were having a party. Then we heard a sound downstairs. There was a glowing snow globe. It was getting bright then there was a big hole and we got sucked into the hole and I said "oh my gosh."

Inside of the snow globe was amazing because I see Santa and his elves and his workshop and I hear a lot of talking.

I felt scared because someone grabbed the snow globe and he was shaking the snow globe and then he left.

As I looked through the glass I could see a red carpet, boxes, old drawers, balls, a laundry basket and lots of newspapers.

I tried to get out by kicking the glass and getting a baseball bat to destroy the glass with Tristen but I couldn't get out.

After a while I fell asleep until a scary sound woke me up, then I see Tristen kicking something.

In the end, I knew everything would be okay because I am with Tristen and no predators that would want to eat us.

If I were Santa I would deliver presents. I would travel around the world in a van. Horses would pull my sleigh. My suit would be a shirt. They would be pink. I would give my mom an Iphone 11. I would give dad $100. I would give my sister a red doll.

Santa should still stop at my house

I think Santa should still stop at my house even though we are in a pandemic because Santa's reindeer need some exercise and I need some new toys. You may think I seem very demanding, besides it would not be bad. He lives with his wife and nine reindeer and lots of elves in the North Pole where nobody lives. When I say nobody, I mean nobody. By the way how will Santa live without Christmas? After all, he is Christmas Joy! To all the parents reading this do you want your kids to have a complete hissy fit over not getting their presents and Santa not even coming? I'm sure someone will start not believing in Santa! It is just waiting to happen. Santa may not have to come to your house but I want him to come to my house. Instead of milk and cookies, I will leave out masks and hand sanitizer. I'm sure you'll need it. Tip: Put the presents up high, my dog might eat them. Hopefully he won't attack you; he is just a puppy.

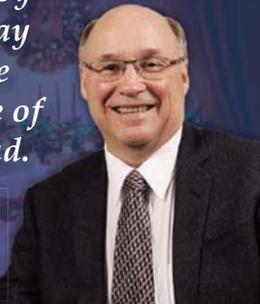

What I'm trying to say is that I want Santa to come to my house and I think it would be a good idea!
Sincerely,

The Night Before Christmas

One eerie night Cookie woke up to a boom! Cookie went downstairs and Santa grabbed her. Cookie screamed, "Help!" Santa threw Cookie in a bag. Cookie tried to get out, but Santa tied the bag shut and he hopped in the sleigh and said "You're coming to the North Pole."

"What do you need me for?" said Cookie.
"You will see," said Santa, "What? Where did she go?"
Cookie jumped off the sleigh. "Bye," Cookie yelled riding a horse. The horse ran fast, but Santa caught up. Cookie went even faster. She tried her best, but Santa grabbed her and Cookie finally gave up.
Cookie said, "I give up take me."

Santa grabbed her and took her home. When she got home the real Santa was there. At least Cookie thought it was the real Santa. When actually he was fake, and so was the other one. Cookie freaked out and screamed, "Why does this happen to me."

The two Santas took their Santa suits off and it was Cookie's parents. Cookie was so happy. Then she realized it was all just a dream. From that day forward Cookie was afraid whenever she heard Santa. Hope everyone else has a Merry Christmas!

Santa should still stop at my house

I think Santa should still come to my house even though we are in a pandemic because he is always bringing joy. And I think we could use a little bit of joy because of what is going on in the world right now.

Another thing, we all love Santa and we would be super sad if he did not come. Imagine if you were good all year and you made your list for Santa and sent it to the North Pole. Imagine waking up Christmas morning and there was nothing. All the sad kids around the world, they would think that they were all naughty.

I think Santa will come because I know he would never stay happy knowing that every boy and girl is sad because of him not coming to their house to spread his joy.

I know what you are thinking, Dylan it's not safe. We can make it safe by putting out hand sanitizer. And Santa can use his magic powers to sanitize our whole house when he gets in our house.

If those ideas don't work, then we could do something different than presents. We could do a scavenger hunt or a Christmas party with our family. Remember that Christmas is not about presents it's about spending time with your family. I hope you consider these ideas.
Sincerely,

Dylan Birnie

Santa Lose Weight

Santa you need to lose weight. You need to go on a diet and exercise every day. Santa you are getting too fat and you need to work out. You need to eat healthy to grow strong to lift all those presents. If you eat cookies all year you will get too fat and sick and then there wouldn't be Christmas. I think you should start to eat veggies and meat and less cookies.

First, Santa if you don't work out you will get too fat. You need to work out so you can lift lots of presents into your sleigh. You need to work out so you can make lots of toys for all the kids.

Secondly, Santa you need to eat healthy to stay fit. You need to eat healthy so you can fit in your sleigh and all of the chimneys. You also need to eat healthy because if you are too fat the reindeer won't be able to lift you up.

Thirdly, If you eat cookies all year you will get fat and sick. If you eat cookies all year you won't be able to move. If you eat cookies all year you will get too fat and there will be no more Christmas.

Santa you need to lose some weight. You need to go on a diet and exercise every day. Santa you are getting too fat and you need you work out. You need to eat healthy to grow strong to lift all those presents. If you eat cookies all year you will get too fat and sick and then there wouldn't be Christmas. If you eat cookies all the time you will get fat and unhealthy. Lose some weight Santa!

Santa Fell Through The Roof

Once upon a time, AB and I were sleeping and then we heard a weird sound. We went halfway downstairs and saw Santa's bag. Next thing you know, Santa came through the roof and into the basement! Then he got out of the basement, took the presents and piled them until they were touching the roof in the living room, dining room and the kitchen! AB and I got quads and skidoos for Christmas. Everyone else got coal as they had been bad.

Then we went outside to watch the Northern Lights. Meanwhile, the Grinch came down a rope and stole all the presents. So, we got on our skidoos to hunt down the Grinch. We caught him and took the presents back.

We had a fun, traditional Christmas with Santa and the Grinch who had to stay and fix our roof!

I am a strong tree! I won't fall over in the house. I can hold the biggest Christmas star. I have the biggest trunk of all the trees!

Next, I can hold a lot of ornaments. Your house will be more festive looking. I have big beautiful branches. I can hold more than 100 ornaments.

Lastly, I am healthy and I smell like peppermint. I will help to bring the Christmas spirit into everyone's home! I will last longer than other trees! My peppermint scent will cover up any bad smells in your house.

In summary, I think I'm the best tree on the lot! I am strong, I can hold large ornaments and I am healthy! I smell like peppermint! I think I'm the best tree for you! I will look good in your living room.

Santa's List

One day there was an elf named Karson, he is very sneaky and short. He was getting Santa's sleigh ready for Christmas day when he saw Santa's list. He hopped into the sleigh. When he was done preparing the sleigh, he snuck Santa's list out of the sleigh to his little gingerbread house, well it was obviously big enough to fit the list in. A week before Christmas day Santa went to check his list to make sure it was perfect, but Santa couldn't find his list. He was not worried yet, but if he can't find it Christmas will be cancelled.

Santa asked every elf if there was any chance that they knew where it was, but every elf said no. Santa was going to look and look until he finds it, Santa told another elf named Hudson that he is going to look in all our houses, Hudson knew that Karson had the list. Hudson knocked on Karson's door to tell him that Santa is looking in every elf house, Karson hid the list outside in the snow where he would remember where it was.

He put a little flag where the list was, so he remembered where it was. Santa started looking in the houses and he didn't find any in there so Santa went to bed thinking where it would be if an elf hid it. Santa was thinking that they would hide it in a place that they can reach it, Santa thought that they would hide it in the building, So Santa looked everywhere in the building. "Santa, Santa wake up it's morning," said Hudson, "I'm up, I'm up." Said Santa.

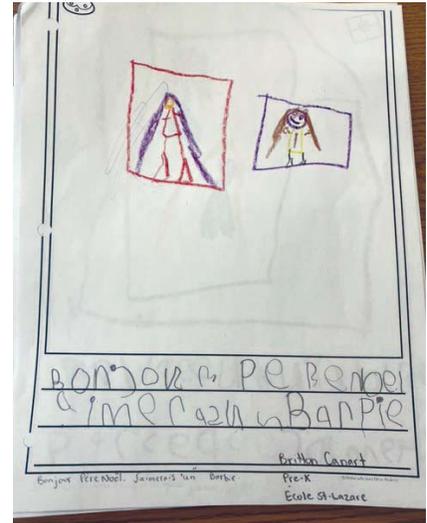

Santa knew that it wasn't in the building, so he had to look outside, a few hours went by and Santa saw a flag sticking up out of the ground. He picked the flag up and it was nothing so he threw it out, it is now Christmas Eve so Karson wanted to look for the list, he knew where it was, he went outside and went to grab the list but it wasn't there. "What, where is the flag," he murmured. Jarson looked where there were piles of snow and he found it, he went to Santa to return the list because they got a treat if they found it. "Santa I found your list, it was outside near the sleigh in a pile of snow," Karson said. Santa replied with a, "hohoho, I knew you would be the one to find the list" so Santa went to every house in the world, if Karson didn't find his list then Christmas would've been cancelled. When Santa came back he was confused, "I thought most people were on the nice list, not the naughty," Santa said confused. "Hee-hee," said Karson. Santa found out that it was Karson that stole the list, so Karson had to move to his own place. That is why elves never steal Santa's list.

The Ride

It was two days before Christmas. Harley, Mason and Karson were riding their sleds. They stopped to have hot cocoa. Harley said, "I don't know what to get my family for Christmas." Mason said "me too" Karson said, "me three," so they went to the mall to get stuff. They came out with a ton of stuff but they had to get their families out of their houses. Karson had a plan to get them out. The plan worked. They went into their houses but none of them had wrapping paper. They went back to the store but when they got back their families were home! They sighed and did it again and they finally got them wrapped. It was finally Christmas Day. They started their sleds and went for a rip with Santa. Santa hit a really high jump and wrecked his sled so the boys gave him a 2020 Arctic Cat 800. The boys said, "Merry Christmas." "Thanks" Santa said. "See you later."

The Three Little Thieves

One cold night, three kids went to the North Pole to steal Santa's reindeer. They wanted to steal Santa's reindeer so they could show off to their friends and to get on the news. When the kids got there, they snuck into Santa's workshop, where they could not find the reindeer, but they did find all the presents. The three friends took as many presents as they could, then kept searching for the reindeer and the sleigh.

After walking for hours, they found a runway! The kids saw what they thought was the reindeer, but it was Santa getting ready to deliver presents. Santa saw the three little boys and asked them, "What are you kids doing here?" The three boys decided to lie to Santa, "We are here to see if you were real!" The boys replied, Santa knew they were lying but played along with them, "Well, now you know that I am real, do you guys need a ride home?" Santa asked.

The kids had a plan, and they were not going to give up on it, "No thanks, we can get back ourselves." Replied the boys, Santa believed them and then walked to his workshop. The boys snuck into the hangar the reindeer were in, they tied up the reindeer to Santa's sleigh and hopped into it. The boys took off but then lost control and crashed into Santa's workshop. The boys got caught by Santa and then sent home.

A Covid-19 Christmas

It was a wonderful morning at the top-secret toy lab in Notmanyfields, Nunavut, the town where all the elves that wear pointy hats and even pointier ears, live. There were three kids that lived in the town that had a human for a mom and an elf for a dad. One was named Jack, he was mostly human, he had blue eyes and a button nose like his mom, but he has smooth skin and pointy ears like an elf, did not like to make gadgets such as toys, doohickies and thingamabobs. Another one was named Elfsie she was mostly elf. She loved to make all sorts of wisnabobs, had pointy ears, smooth skin and green eyes like an elf. She had a button nose like her mom though. The third one was basically half and half, he had green eyes and smooth skin like an elf but had round ears and did not like to make zapiedoodles. Unlike his parents he was plump and loved red, so he was going to be the next Santa because the current Santa did not have any kids.

"Woo-hoo." Timy shouted after Santa told him the news.
 "Calm yourself," Santa whispered in his bold but soothing voice. "That may not be for another 50 years till you have grown a white beard."

"Can I still go on your go run tonight." Timy pondered.
 "Sure why not," Santa replied with a hoarse sound in his voice and a wink in his eye.
 "I'm going to go and tell my parents!" Timy shouted jumping and turning at the same time.
 "Cough-cough," Santa gagged. Timy turned and asked worriedly.
 "Are you ok?"

"Cough-cough, get a doctor." Santa panted as he gasped for breath.
 Timy ran so fast everything around him was a blur and he did not stop running until he barged through the doors of the sick room where his mom worked. He stopped so fast that he looked like a car with locked breaks about to crash. "What is the matter Timy." His mom asked with such a tone it was like everything Timy did bad was being pulled from his mouth. Timy then told the story of what had happened to Santa with dramatic arm movements. "Then I ran to you." Timy panted putting his hands on his knees to catch his breath. "We need to move then." Timy's mom said, scampering over to the emergency phone. "All elves on deck all elves on deck Santa is sick, head to his office." Then she ran off. Timy followed but heard a lot of thump, thump, thump and looked back. There was a sea of green flooding the halls. "Wham!" Timy had smashed into the ice crystal block wall and fainted.

As he slowly and painfully awoke, he was in a hospital bed and in the bed next to his aching body was the one and only Santa Claus. Suddenly Elfsie and Timy's mom walked in. Timy immediately fell to his pillow and started eavesdropping on their conversation.

"I can't believe Santa has Covid-19." Elfsie said, holding back tears.
 "And Christmas is tomorrow." Timy's mom exclaimed in a sorrowful way. Timy jumped out of the uncomfortable hospital bed and excitedly shouted "I'll drive the sleigh, Santa gave me lessons; Besides I was going to go tonight."
 "What," His mom shouted sitting down in her chair like she always does when arguing with her companions.

"Without permission from me or your dad." She screamed twitching and moving around in angry pain. She only did that when she was super angry.

"But Santa is in charge, he's the head man, he's the man with the plan."
 "You're right." Timy's mom relaxed saying this, "You may drive the sleigh my big boy."

"Mom the intercom is on," Timy said playfully.
 "What." Timy's mom said surprised.

"Kidding." Timy said laughing and running to the door.
 "One more thing," said Timy stopping and pondering "Elfsie, do you want to come with me?"

"Can I mom?" Elfsie begged.
 "Why not." Timy's mom said with a nod. "That will give me and Jack plenty of time to do medical things."

"Let's go." Timy told Elfsie mimicking Santa.
 "Can I hook up the reindeer" Elfsie asked as her and Timy ran.
 "It was done three hours ago." Timy said as they rounded the corner and the door came into sight.

As they burst through the doors of the takeoff zone, hopped in the sleigh and rode off into the star-filled night, Timy shouted to the world "Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night."

My Elf Application

Dear Santa,
 I want the job to be an organizer elf. I think that I would be good at that because I keep myself organized and my family organized. I could do lots of work on the computer so that you have some ideas for kids for Christmas. I could dust, I could write the lists for naughty and nice and I could organize which elves get which jobs. By now I know how to organize. I think organizer elf should be my job!

Pick Me Santa!

PICK ME! I am the best elf for the job! I can cook and clean! I am creative and I can make whatever you need whenever you need it! I can lift all the presents for you! Here are a few of the many reasons you should pick me! I am very creative. I can make the toys and I can clean the mess from making the toys! I can cook you your dinner or the cookies of your choice. I think I am the best elf for the job because I can do whatever you need. I can be helpful, too. Pick me I think I am the best elf here!

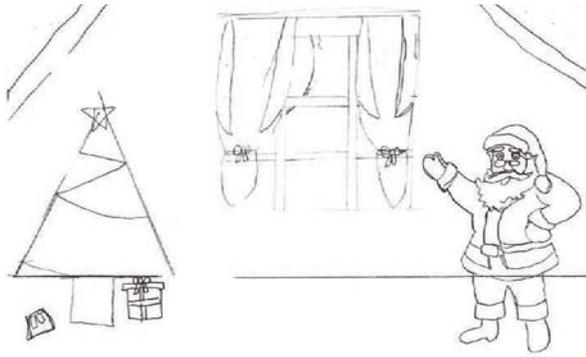

First reason is that it's beneficial to hire me! I can cook and clean the workshop and it will be spotless I swear! The food; oh boy; it will taste better than Gordon Ramsey's key dish! I can cook your dinner or bake you your favorite cookies and they will taste delicious! I use my own recipes so it is totally unique. I will cook whatever you want, whenever you need it. You will love it; I know it. I can clean and if you give me a chance; trust me; you will not regret it. If you give me a minute or two not a speck of dirt you will find. I clean my own house and oh I wish you could see it! It's as clean as can be!

The second reason you should hire me is that I am so creative! You will not believe it. I can repaint "the scream" and they will be identical! You will not believe your eyes. I can make you a whistle in a second or two and trust me, Santa, you need me! Oh, I whipped up that Mona Lisa in a minute or two! Boy oh boy; that was so easy. Santa hire me! I am so creative and I will be creative for you!

The third reason you should pick me to work at the workshop is that I can make whatever you want, whenever you want it! I can make you a doll or I can make you a hammer. I can make you a sleigh, a house, or a farm! I can make you anything else too! I made a small school, a small boat but the biggest boat I made did not work out so well. You might have heard of it; the Titanic; do not worry about that though. Oh, I made a small mansion, it's standing and looks quite great.

You know I am the best elf for the job! Please Santa PICK ME! In case you forgot my three reasons here they are: I can cook and clean, I am creative, and I can make whatever you want whenever you want it! So, Santa you've seen all the reasons so now you know I am the best elf for the job. PICK ME!

Don't shave off your beard

Santa don't do it, don't shave your beard! You shouldn't shave your beard because no one will recognize you. Everyone will be confused, and they won't know who you are. It will keep you warm in the North Pole. The cookie crumbs that you eat will fall on your suit and not your beard and then Mrs. Claus will have to wash it all the time. I think you shouldn't shave off your beard!

First you shouldn't shave off your beard because no one will recognize you. When you go deliver presents and a child is awake, they won't know who you are, and they will be scared. When you go to the mall, they won't know who you are, and the mall Santas will be confused. When you go out no one will know who you are, and they won't greet you when they see you.

Second you will be cold in the winter. When you go out you will have nothing to cover your chin and you will be cold. When you go deliver presents, you'll have to wear a neck warmer because your face will get cold.

Third the cookie crumbs that you eat will normally fall in your beard but if you shave off your beard, your suit will get crumbs all over it. Mrs. Claus will have extra clothes to wash and you will waste water. The crumbs will fall on the floor and you will have to clean it.

Finally, I think you shouldn't shave your beard! You shouldn't shave your beard because no one will recognize you. Your beard helps to keep you warm and if you shave it you will be cold. Cookie crumbs will fall on your suit and Mrs. Claus will have extra clothes to wash. Santa please don't shave off your beard!

A Tired Reindeer

Santa I'm tired! We have been traveling around the world for too long in that old red sleigh. The elves do not want to drive a heavy, dirty sleigh. I recommend you buy an automatic sleigh. I think it would be WAY faster. It also helps us rest because we do not have to lead a heavy sleigh all night. Us reindeer can help produce stuff in the factory, so we get more stuff done! I think you should get an automatic sleigh.

First, the sleigh would be so much faster. You would be able to get to the houses much faster than before. The children would not have to wait for their presents so long. Since it's faster, you can come back to the North Pole early and celebrate Christmas. You can take a nap because you will have extra time. You would not have to stop the sleigh because it's not going to break down. It will not need repairs, so you do not waste time.

Next, we wouldn't get so tired from leading the sleigh all day. You would not have to stop the sleigh for us to take a break. We could have a day off and go have fun. We could eat Mrs. Claus's cookies.

Us reindeer can help elves with the factory. We could get more stuff done. If we help the elves in the factory, they will not get as tired and they can rest with the extra time they have. Once everything is done, we could have a giant feast to celebrate Christmas!

Finally, I really recommend that you buy an automatic sleigh, Santa. The sleigh would be way faster. It would also benefit us because we would not have to lead a heavy sleigh all night. Us reindeer could help the elves with stuff in the factory to get more stuff done. Please buy an automatic sleigh. Please.

Christmas Eve

It was the day before Christmas and John was eating grilled cheese and tomato soup. After lunch John met up with his friends and went skidooring. John was only 14 and had a 700 Arctic Cat and so did his friends. They all had a good time going ditch bombing.

They got bored of that, so they went to Tim's house to go sledding down the hill in his backyard. Then they got cold, so they went inside for some hot cocoa, it was good. Then they all had to go home. When John got home his mom had supper waiting for him. After supper John and his family watched a Christmas movie. Then John went to his room and watched some Youtube on his phone then went to bed.

The next morning was Christmas, John jumped out of bed and yelled "It's Christmas, Christmas!" Then he went to his parents' room and woke them up and ran downstairs where he started to rip his presents open very loudly. He got lots of cool stuff, like a shotgun, $200, stuff for his skidoo, LED lights and a new skidooring helmet. He liked his stuff very much. His 6-year-old sister got some candy, a Barbie doll and a toy car, she liked her stuff too.

After John and his family were done eating breakfast, his family and John went outside. John's jaw dropped they had got one more foot of snow and a brand new 2020 Arctic Cat 700 with 3 inch lugs, it was black, purple, green and blue. John had a great Christmas. After that John got geared up and went for a ride. 20 minutes into the ride John got stuck bad. He tried to get out but failed. 5 minutes after he got stuck Santa appeared in the sky with his mask on (of course) to come and help John out. He used his magic and got him out. John has a great Christmas.

Santa, I need a job and I have always wanted to work for you my whole life! I know I'm perfect. I can do everything like wrap presents, make them and I know just the right wrap for every present. I'm the best elf out there and better than any you could ever have! Please hire me!
I am good at wrapping presents and making presents. I have wanted to work for you all my life and I am the best elf you have ever seen. First is that I am good at wrapping presents I always know just the right wrap for every present. Not that I am just good at it I am also fast at it. I think that this kind of skill would be great for an elf.
Secondly is that I am good at making presents! I can make all kinds of presents like toys and other things like candles and soap. I always make presents instead of buying them to get better at making them, so I don't disappoint you. I am the fastest elf making presents for all the children. I wanted to work for you my whole life because this type of skill would be good for you.
Thirdly, I am also super-fast at everything; like making things and wrapping. I can wrap bowties or just regular bows. I can even wrap presents to look like you, Santa. I can wrap anything! When I wrap, I make it easy to unwrap so that they can get their present quick and have more time to play with it.
Santa I am the best elf you could have! I am fast at everything. I am the fastest elf at wrapping and making presents. I have wanted to work for you my whole life and now I can do this with my skills.

Secondly, I know how to fix an engine so if your sleigh breaks down I can fix it. I could do renovations on your house, and help all the elves in town so they don't bug you when you are working.
Thirdly, I can bake any cookie you want! I could be your personal chef and I could let Mrs. Claus have a break! When the elves need a break, I can make a yummy snack for them!

Santa Pick Me!

Santa pick me! I am the best elf for you! I would be the best elf because I am really strong! I can lift all of the presents. I am really fast too! If any of the presents fall I will catch them, before they break. I can also build really cool things for the kids. I think I am the best elf for the job.

First I am really strong. It is good I am so strong because I can lift all of the presents that need to be loaded to the sled. Also, I can fix your sled if its track falls off. It is very heavy and all the other elves can't lift it. I can push your sled if it's frozen to the ice or if the reindeers' hooves get frozen to the ice; I can push them too.

I am really fast too! If any elves miss a present I can run to the sled and run back to my job in one second! If any presents get bumped into I will catch them before they fall and break in a bunch of pieces. You will not have to rebuild it. I will power the generator by running on it so if the power goes out it will come back on so we can keep building presents

Lastly, I can build really cool things! I will build really cool presents for the kids. Also, I would use my good building skills to make you a cookie maker so you can make lots of cookies to help you stay awake at night. I could also build a jet for your sleigh so you can get around the world faster, and the reindeer won't get as tired.

Pick me Santa! I think I am the best elf for the job! I am really strong, I'm really fast and I can build really cool things. I am the best elf for the job, Santa.

Elf Application

Dear Twinkle Toe Bells,
Hello, as you can see my name's Isabella Winter! My interests in the position are to help make children happy, also to help Santa because I know it is hard for him to lose a modeler elf. As you can see, I worked for the Grinch and helped him steal Christmas but let me explain. When I was born my parents hated me and threw me into the ditch, and there a stork picked me up, and accidentally dropped me off at the Grinch's door. He was a dad like figure to me since mine did not like me; but after the Grinch apologized and gave Christmas back, he got a cash reward. Let us just say my greedy side took over and I stole all the money and ran away with it. That is exactly what happened.

My schools helped me through a lot, and I had made two friends along the way, their names are: Marker (Nuclear Mistle Toe) and Weirdo (Meatball Mcfluff). I had dropped out of high school but had went into my 2 dream colleges. In my 3D modeling job, I was promoted to Vice President of the company but quit and perused my real dream, gaming and being a comedian. When I started You Tube, I was just doing it to cope with my mental health from my dad's death, the Grinch. He was such a nice guy and just like my dad. So, after he died, I got Max his dog who sadly died two years later. But I have a new dog I named him Max Jr. I also got good at Ventriloquism.

Thank you, Twinkle Toe Bells, for reading my Resume and Cover Letter, I am anticipating an interview with you and Santa for this job. It would be a great honor to meet Santa since I've worked with his enemy (The Grinch) and his best friend (Krampus). Please contact me if you are interested in working with me. I hope you have a holly jolly Christmas.

Sincerely,
Isabella Winter

Santa's Workshop

On Christmas day three boys named Simon, Kelly and Jack woke up and had no presents. They went and told their Mom they were going to Santa's Workshop.

They dressed warm and packed supplies and off they traveled for three whole days. They found Santa. The boys asked, "Why did you not give us any presents?"

Santa said, "Because I knew you three boys would come and get your presents." Then he gave them all their presents. Finally, they returned home. As they travelled off they heard Santa say, "Ho, Ho, Ho Merry Christmas!" The boys had the best Christmas ever!

Christmas Story

It was December 24 and a little kid named Harley was sleeping in his race car bed. It was 3 am and Harley got startled by somebody walking around downstairs. So, he went to see who it was, he got halfway down the stairs and rubbing his eyes, he saw Santa putting presents under their real tree. Harley fainted and never woke up until morning. He woke up and nobody was downstairs or in their rooms. Then he heard something revving. He went into the shop and found mom, dad and his brother Everlee. They were standing around Harley's new 500 Polaris. "Holy is this mine," asked Harley. Yes, Merry Christmas, thanks now let's go inside and warm up. "Drink hot cocoa and open presents" said mom.

Everlee said, "after we open presents, we will have to go for a skidoo ride." "Ya that will be so fun with my new skidoo," said Harley. After they were done opening presents, they got the new skidoo. It had been dumping snow, so they went to skidoo in their backyard with five inches of snow. Everlee tipped his 500 and it landed on his leg and he thought he broke his leg, so, he limped to the couch and laid there watching TV. But it was time to go to bed and he could not get up the stairs, so he fell asleep on the couch. The next day they went to the doctor and turns out that he just sprained his leg, and he will be all better soon. The next day he felt way better, his leg felt good. So, they went to skidoo again, that was Harley's best Christmas ever.

Santa's Workshop

It was three days before Christmas. Santa and his elves were making presents for all the kids in the world. Santa and his elves went to sleep. In the middle of the night someone broke into the workshop and stole all the presents. When Santa woke up, he called an emergency meeting. "Where are all my presents!" shouted Santa.

An elf named Lilly stepped up and said, "We don't know."

"What do you mean you don't know!" shouted Santa.

"We were all sleeping," said Lilly the elf. Santa and Lilly argued for one whole hour. Then Mrs. Claus stepped up and yelled at the top of her lungs, "Whoever did this we will find the person so stop arguing!" All the elves were shocked. Santa apologized to Lilly and then he said, "To all the elves, each elf make teams and start searching all around the North Pole for clues."

"The reindeer and I will take some of the bravest elves."

"I will need Mandy, Suzy, Joe and Lilly" exclaimed Santa. The elves found clues. One day Joe found a hole and climbed down it. He found a door locked with a padlock. "I found something," yelled Joe excitedly.

"Hey Suzy," said Lilly. Don't you know how to open a padlock?

"I do" said Lilly. Lilly took a reindeer went to the work shop and got a paper clip to open the padlock.

Behind that door were all the presents and a greedy girl laughing. "You will never get me," said the girl.

Then the elves jumped out and grabbed her. They took her to jail and she was charged with trying to ruin Christmas. Santa and all the elves got the presents and every kid in the world had a Merry Christmas.

Elf Application

Dear Twinkle Toe-Bells,
Hello, I am Niki Clause, and I'm looking for an opportunity to work with Santa Claus in his workshop as a toy inventor, builder and a helper. I love making toys for kids all over the world and, it makes me happy to see anyone smile. I can bake desserts in case anyone is hungry. And I can make the mood cheerier with my new Christmas songs that I make on my hand-made guitar.
I got my inventor's and engineering degree at Jingle Jangle University two years ago. I went to school from K-9 at the South Pole, in Penguin Ice City, that's where I made snow structures when I was in grade 7 and even won a contest for the best snow structure in the city. I got used to being in the freezing weather since, I was outside most of the time. The rest of my grades were at the North Pole, in Snowman Town. I have experience riding and pulling a sleigh since grade 10 when I took a course there at Snowman Town. I currently live by myself in Jingle Bells Avenue making toys. I have experience with making every kind of toy but, I love making techno and wooden ones, most. Techno toys are fun to make because you can program them the way you want it to be or how the other person wants it to be. Wooden toys are fun too because it's simple to play with yet, hard to make since you must carve the toy. I'm getting extra ready for this Christmas because this feels like a special Christmas.
And again, I am asking to be an inventor, builder, and helper to Santa. I hope I fit all the requirements for the job and hire me to be one. I will do exactly what you ask me to if you need any help. I will try my best at the job making toys Santa Claus and the kids all over the world for this Christmas.
Sincerely,
Niki Clause

Why Santa should still stop at my house

Kids will be expecting Santa to come. We all waited for months and were preparing for this holiday to come so Santa could bring joy and smiles on everyone's faces. If Santa doesn't come, kids all over the world will lose hope of them getting their gifts that they have waited so long to have. Imagine, kid's faces turning to frowns instead of smiles.
Second thing is Christmas won't be the same without Santa there's some safety precautions, Santa can sanitize the presents and wear a mask, and to be safe Santa could use his magical powers to be safe.
Another thing is that this year needs fun that kids all over the world can enjoy. Santa, I hope you consider these ideas.
Sincerely,

The Christmas Adventure

It was two days before Christmas day. I was making cookies and the people that dressed up as elves were named Bronson and Hudson. They came to the door and said, "this year Santa is not coming to deliver presents because of Covid-19 and he does not want anyone to be sick with it." So I said, "I will go deliver presents for Santa." They said, "but do you know how to run the sled, and what happens if you crash and all the presents get wrecked, then Christmas will definitely be ruined then and all the kids will be so sad." So I said, "I will not crash the sled I'm a pro at it. It would be like driving a skidoo because that is easy!" Then they said, "no it is not like that." I said, "Oh then I will not be good at driving it." So I went to bed and thought about it all night.

When I woke up I was feeling CONFIDENT so I went and found the people that were talking to me yesterday and said I think I can do it. They said, "are you sure." "Yes," I said. I read about Santa's sleigh and then I learned all eight reindeer names and I could say them in five seconds. Then we took a skidoo up to Santa's house, it was a long drive. Santa's sleigh was sitting with the reindeer connected. It was like he was ready to go. Then he come out and said, "so you're the sleigh rider." Then all the elves started helping me get the sleigh out.

It was two hours before Christmas night. We were getting ready to go over my stuff. I got on the sleigh and I said all the reindeer names and they all went red and a magic spell went on them. Then we were in the air and the reindeer were soaring like they were running on the land. Then we came to our first house and the reindeer went silent. Their bells were ringing and then we landed on about 1 million houses. I started getting tired so we made our way back to the North Pole and Mrs. Claus and Santa Claus were sitting there. They said good job with lots of joy and then we rode the skidoo back down the hill. By the time we got back it was about 6:00 in the morning. We finished just in time and you could see all the lights on and kids opening the presents. I'm happy I did that but now I have to go to bed. That was the best Christmas I ever had. I hope your Christmas is amazing.

The Crazy Christmas

Bob and Joe woke up one morning. It was Christmas Eve. Bob and Joe were so excited they were making cookies for Santa. After that they sat by the fireplace and watched a scary Christmas show. Joe yelled, "Aaaa! That part was scary."

"No it's not," said Bob.

"I'm tired," said Joe.

"I am too," replied Bob.

After that they went to bed. When they woke up they went straight to the Christmas tree there were no presents.

Bob yelled, "Where are the gifts?"

"I don't know," said Joe. Bob looked at the milk and cookies. They were all there. "Did Santa come?"

"I don't think so," said Bob, "Let's look outside."

"There's Santa," said Joe, yelling from the bottom of his lungs. "Aaaa!"

"I've never seen Santa before," said Bob.

Santa came closer and Joe said, "Do you have gifts for us?"

"HO, HO, HO, yes" said Santa, "I got a special present for you guys. But you have to share it."

"What is it?" replied Bob. As fast as he can Santa said, "You'll have to open it to see."

"Okay," said Joe. "Let's open it!"

"Okay," said Bob.

"What is this?" asked Joe.

"It's a Santa hat, but it's special," said Santa.

"Why is it special?"

"Because it's my Santa hat."

"I look like Santa now," the boys said. "Let's go have a snowball fight. But before we leave Santa where is Rudolph?"

"HO, HO, HO have a holly jolly Christmas,"

But I asked, "Where's Rudolph?"

"He's by the sled."

"Okay, well let's go inside, Bob."

"Okay," said Bob. "Race you inside and have a great Christmas Santa!"

Elf Application

Dear Twinkle Toe-Bells,

Hello, my name is Cocoa Cupid and I want to apply for this job opening because I love making toys kids today will love! I also really like inventing new toys and making new technology for everyone. A few things you need to know about me is that I am a girl, I really like listening to music while I work and I want everyone to be treated fairly. I also really like going skating and playing hockey when I have free time.

I went to Frosty Snowfall Ellementry School. After grade 6, I moved and went to SnowyBum McFluff High where I learned how to drive a sleigh pulled by eight reindeer. After I graduated from high school, I moved back to my hometown and went to Cranberry Cookie College where I got my engineering degree. I made a few friends on the way but lost some due to me moving so much. When I was in college, I went into "The Best Toy Builder" Competition and got first place. While I was in college one day, I got asked to go into another competition for "The Best Tech Invention" and got first place. After college I went into another competition; the competition was who could stay outside the longest with just a shirt and a pair of pants and a toque. I stayed outside for 36 hours and I got second place.

Thank you for reading my resume and my cover letter! I am really wanting an interview; I want to tell you more about myself and more about why I want the job. I do not want to tell you about myself just in one letter; I want you to make sure I am the right elf for the job.

Sincerely,
Cocoa Cupid

Santa Pick Me!

Santa pick me! I am the best elf for the job. I can feed the reindeer. I can make you cookies and milk whenever you want. I can make toys fast; like a toy tractor or a real one. Santa I think I'm the best elf for the job.

First, I can feed the reindeer. One good reason is that the reindeer will be able to have enough energy to fly your sleigh. They will be able to land on the roof and not be starving and will be paying attention. They will have a lot of power to get a running start.

Secondly, I can make milk and cookies for you. If a kid does not leave cookies and milk, I can make you some! If you just want to be lazy and you ask for some, I can make them really fast before you can even say Christmas.

I can also make toys really fast. Santa. If we forget to make a toy, I can create it really fast. If the sleigh crashes and some toys break, I can make new ones really fast. If the sleigh breaks down, I will fix it fast.

Santa, I think I'm the best elf for you! I can help feed the reindeer. I can make you cookies and milk. I can make and fix toys really fast. I think I'm the best elf for the job!

Get Santa

Once there were three men named James, Bob and Harley. James and Bob were nice boys, they always helped the city while Harley was a troublemaker and was always pulling a prank. Bob was the best, he sat in front of the Christmas tree and wished for gifts.

The day before Christmas Bob and James were cleaning up the city to be on the good list to get more gifts, while Harley was making a mess for them to clean up.

When it was Christmas morning the boys went downstairs for gifts but when they got down there were no gifts, no decorations and everything was a mess, they were sad.

They went outside to play ball where they saw Santa in a cage sleeping in between two trees then Bob yelled, "Santa wake up!" But there was no response so the boys walked up to Santa's sleigh and looked around until Harley pulled a lever and the sleigh took off. When they were in the air Bob was so scared. They crashed the sleigh somewhere in a snowy place, it was the North Pole. The sleigh was destroyed.

They walked around and there it was, Santa's workshop. They walked in and there were elves working on toys for the kids. Then one elf saw them and said, "what are you doing, and why is the sleigh destroyed with so many dents and one ski is gone." Then James walked up to the elf and told him the story about Santa in a cage, then he got all the elves to fix the sleigh and put new reindeer on it. Now the sleigh is fixed, and they were taking off with the elf.

When they got back to the city they went into their yard and there was no Santa but there was a note and it said, "if you want Santa then try to find me, the Grinch." They were sad when Bob saw footsteps and they led to an old, abandoned building. They walked up to the door and it was locked so they flew the sleigh up to the roof and there was a window open, so they silently went in and there Santa was in a cage asleep. So, they tiptoed down the stairs behind boxes of TNT then the Grinch said to Santa, "This is my plan, first I will dig a big hole, then throw you and the cage in it. Then I will put that TNT around you and blow you up so no more Christmas for the kids. The Grinch laughed, haw haw haw," Bob and James were so sad, and Harley tried not to laugh. The Grinch started to dig a hole when the elf tiptoed to the Grinch and took the keys for the cage, they freed Santa and replaced him with a doll for revenge. Bob walked up to the dirt that the Grinch was digging, and he pushed it in the hole, then they blew up the place and everyone had the best Christmas ever.

If I were Santa I would ride my reindeer. I would travel around the world in a plane. Also I would pull my sleigh with horses and my suit would be pink and purple. I would give my mom a nice necklace. I would give my dad a new semi. I would give my older sister a Jeep.

How I got stuck in a snow globe

One day I was in my room having a snack, already brushed my teeth and was in my PJs about to go to bed.

Then, when I woke up and I wasn't in my room, I was in a snow globe!

Inside the snow globe was a horse, a house (for me), orchard and a riding arena! I felt the snow on my feet. I could hear the horse neighing. I was thinking of a way to get out!

I felt like I could use a ride. I got the horse ready and we went around the snow globe. I was really down in the dumps.

As I looked through the glass I could see my bed, my dresser, my closet, my window and...Uh-Oh! I can see my mom coming to wake me up! I was yelling, my horse was neighing, but she couldn't hear me. When my brother came in he grabbed the snow globe and shook the snow globe really hard!

I tried to get out by using a chain saw, that didn't work. I used matches, that didn't work. And I used a hammer but I couldn't get out.

After a while I felt sleepy and went to bed (it was cozy.) When I woke up my horse wanted a ride again. So, I got her ready and went for a ride.

In the end, I knew everything would be okay because I had a horse, a house, a stable, a riding arena and an orchard.

Too Many Cookies

Santa, stop eating so many cookies! You are gaining too much weight Santa. If you don't stop you won't fit in your sleigh. If you keep eating cookies, you won't fit down the chimney. You should eat broccoli and salad instead of so many cookies and milk. I think you need to go on a diet, Santa, and stop eating so many cookies.

First, you are gaining too much weight Santa. You have been eating too many cookies and drinking too much milk. You aren't getting enough exercise Santa. You will live longer if you exercise.

Secondly, if you keep eating too many cookies you won't fit in your sleigh. If that happens you won't be able to deliver presents and all the kids will be sad. You might break the sleigh. You wouldn't be able to get into your bed because it would break.

Lastly, you won't be able to fit down the chimneys if you keep eating cookies. You might get stuck and then break your neck trying to crawl out. You wouldn't be able to deliver presents! Santa shape up!

I think you need to go on a diet Santa and stop eating so many cookies. If you don't stop you won't fit in your sleigh which is bad. You are gaining too much weight so you will get ill. You might get stuck in the chimneys which will be upsetting for children because they won't get gifts from you. Santa, please go on a diet and stop eating so many cookies!

How I got stuck in a snow globe

One day I was having a sleepover with my friends. We were watching Fe4rless and eating snacks at my house. Then I found a snow globe. We took it to my room with my friends.

Then the globe opened and sucked us in the globe, everyone was holding onto the bed to survive, but we got sucked in. We were not getting out anytime soon!

Inside the snow globe was a city of snowmen, I searched and searched for my friends until I saw my friends sledding with snowmen. I was very surprised. I joined in and started sledding with the snowmen. I heard a nice windy breeze and could feel the nice soft snow. I thought I was in Winter heaven but I liked it.

I felt amazing until I noticed I was trapped in a snow globe. I told my friends, we took a snow car and tried to smash the glass, it didn't work.

I tried to get out by grabbing a snow car and kept hitting the glass. I would not stop. I tried a snow truck, a snow semi, a snow helicopter, a snow Zamboni, a snow Ram 1500, a snow Jeep, a snow tank, a snow rocket launcher, a snow chopper with rockets even the biggest, strongest, fastest, coolest monster truck ever but I couldn't get out.

After a while I gave up and we watched Fe4rless, we played mini hockey game and we went sledding one last time before we ate. I was getting sad that I was stuck in a snow globe.

In the end, I knew everything was going to be okay because I had enough food to last forever. I had my friends and I could play hockey all the time!

Santa should still stop at my house

Dear reader,
I believe that Santa Claus should still come on Christmas this year because Santa Claus is magical, he will be able to deliver candy and toys to all the good little girls and boys without himself getting sick or anyone else getting sick.

This year is especially important as the kids have missed school for a few months and there hasn't been many sports to play. It has been hard on many families as they have not been able to get together with their loved ones. Some families do not have enough money because of the pandemic they lost their jobs. So they won't be able to buy presents. This year, Santa is extra important.

I believe that Santa Claus will bring much happiness and joy on such a strange year. If Santa Claus doesn't come, then they might not believe in Santa Claus anymore and this year they need something to believe in.

Sincerely,

Elf Application

Dear Twinkle Toe-Bells,
Hi, my name is Evergreen Winters, and I'm applying for the job, Toy Inventor and Builder. I'm interested in the position because I've worked hard to get to where I am today. As you can see, I have many experiences that will come in handy. I'm interested in the toys the North Pole builds and want to help improve them. I have the skills for what it takes to improve the toys. I also heard that the toy builder can tinker with the toys and I love tinkering! I'm very interested in this position, please keep me updated.

I grew up on Candy Cane Lane and every year we would have an annual build-off. How this worked was each elf that was between the ages 10-12 would have to build a complicated toy without looking at any instructions, the elf with the best toy would win a 10 percent off coupon for a building and engineering unelfiversity. I got the most loyal elf award when I was 14 for fixing the mayor of Whoville's broken down car, and I also got a scholarship in the unelfiversity of Bethlehem for being the hardest working elf. After I won the Candy Cane Lane's annual build-off for the 3rd time, I knew I wanted to be a builder elf. I went to the unelfiversity of Bethlehem where I got my engineering degree. Then I went on to find a job, I found a job called Rejoiceful Reindeer Training, I worked hard to help the reindeer. At first, I only made the props, then I started training the reindeer. I helped improve Vixen's fear of heights, and helped Dasher become the fastest reindeer and I was even was Rudolph's personal tutor. During my third year in Rejoiceful Reindeer Training I found a job at a winter camp called The Wonderful Winter Workshop. I was the builder and engineering counselor there, I got to build a lot of toys to help the elves understand what I wanted them to build. Since I've had had that job, I learned to value leadership and teamwork. I have now worked at Wonderful Winter Workshop for four years, and still love it, but I think I have finally found the job where my expertise is truly needed, and I know I can help.

Thank you for reading my resume and cover letter, I will be anticipating an interview.
Sincerely,
Evergreen Winters

The Best Tree

Pick me! I'm the best tree in the lot! I smell nice! I can hold the most ornaments! I don't drop needles on the carpet! I think you should pick me for your tree!

First, I smell really great! I won't stink up your house! I smell like delicious strawberries. If your dog poops in the house, I will cover up that gross smell.

Secondly, I can hold the most ornaments of any tree in the lot! Special ornaments won't fall off of my branches and break. I can hold the biggest star on the top of me! I will look beautiful when my branches are covered with loads of ornaments.

Thirdly, I don't drop needles on the carpet! I won't make your carpet messy. You won't have to sweep or vacuum so much. I don't drop sap on the floor either.

I think you should pick me for your tree! I smell really good! I hold the most ornaments and I don't drop needles on the carpet. I'm the best tree on the lot!

Elf Application

Dear Twinkle Toe-Bells,
Hello, I am Daemon Noel Latency, and I am looking for the opportunity to work in Santa's workshop. I am interested in working for Santa because I like helping and making people smile, and I would love to see kids all over the world smile because of my creations.
I got my education from Tinsel Tree Elfementary on Tinsel Tree Lane where I stayed there from Elf grade 1-12. I got my first job at Cookie Crumble Factory at Elf grade 10. There I stayed for three years and being the Elf of the year before going to Sugarplum Slumber College. There I got my building degree and computer knowledge. After I completed my education, I decided to try and be a good enough candidate for Santa's workshop. So, I started making my own toys and gave them out for free to the younger Elves before I saw that Santa had an open spot in his workshop.
Thank you, Twinkle Toe-Bells, for taking the time to read my resume to join Santa's workshop. I hope you think about letting me be that candidate for Santa's open spot for his workshop. I hope I am what you are looking for, and I am excited for our interview.

Sincerely,
Daemon Noel Latency

Santa should still stop at my house

I think Santa should still stop at my house even though we are in a pandemic. Because not just me but millions of boys and girls and theys around the globe would be devastated to wake up on Christmas day and look at the tree but nothing is there. Another thing, thousands of kids count on Santa to get toys that their family might not be able to afford. And just imagine this, a girl asks Santa for a chemistry set and finds out she has a passion for it. She then grows up and finds the cure for cancer! But, now think of this, Santa does not come. She never finds out that she likes chemistry and thousands of people a year continue to die from cancer. If you are worried about the safety of it because of Covid-19 here are some safety precautions to take. Santa should wear a mask when coming into our houses. Bring the cookies back to the North Pole (sorry no milk) and not eating them in the house. You can sanitize the presents before you give them to us, and you can wear gloves so you don't touch the presents. Another con of not coming... Santa will miss out on LOTS of cookies! So try to put yourself in our shoes and think of how sad you would be if you got no presents.

Sincerely,

How I got stuck in a snow globe

One day I was going for a walk with my horse Wisser. I was making him strong. I had a blanket on him. I went back to the stable because I was at the track exercising Wisser so he was ready for a snow race that my friend and I were going to do.

Then I was taking Wisser to the pen, I grabbed his saddle, bridle, extra blanket and grith for his saddle to stay on him. I put the stuff that I grabbed on him... boom! I was in a snow globe!

Inside the snow globe was a stable just like mine and a track. It was different though. It had more rooms, feed and horses. Wisser was scared. I didn't bring food. I smell, sniff, sniff cookies!

I saw a carrot sticking out of the ground. I feel the wind on my face. "Wisser let's go for a ride tomorrow it's too cold outside for a ride." Now it's midnight. Any way let's go into the barn. I hear the wind. "Good thing I have your extra blanket", I said to Wisser, while petting his soft fur. "Good boy", I said, as I led him inside his stall. As soon as we got in I tied his lead to the door of his stall. I put his blanket on him and took off his lead and halter and put it on the empty hook and closed his stall door and went up to the hay loft to go to bed. I felt miserable and at the same time I was worried if this night will ever end, but I know Wisser was with me the whole night so I grabbed my sleeping bag and went to his stall for the night. He was already asleep. I tried my hardest not to wake him up. It was the morning, I woke up and cleaned my stuff out of Wisser's stall. As I looked out of the glass I could see my stable hand and she saw my snow globe. She saw my horse Wisser and she walked away from my globe. I tried to get out by yelling "help me!"

It didn't work she did not hear me. Then I got Wisser to kick the glass, it wouldn't budge. Then I punched the glass, it hurt my fist. Then I realized I couldn't get out. After a while I went to sleep. I woke up the next day and looked outside my globe and put Wisser's harness and cart reins and put the cart on him. We had so much fun. In the end I knew everything would be okay because I had Wisser and food and water. That's all I need and Wisser had me and his food and water.

Santa, don't shave

Santa don't shave your beard! Santa you look so handsome with your beard. Don't cut your beard because people won't recognize you. You will get cold at the North Pole if you don't have a beard to keep your face warm. I don't think you should shave off your beard Santa.

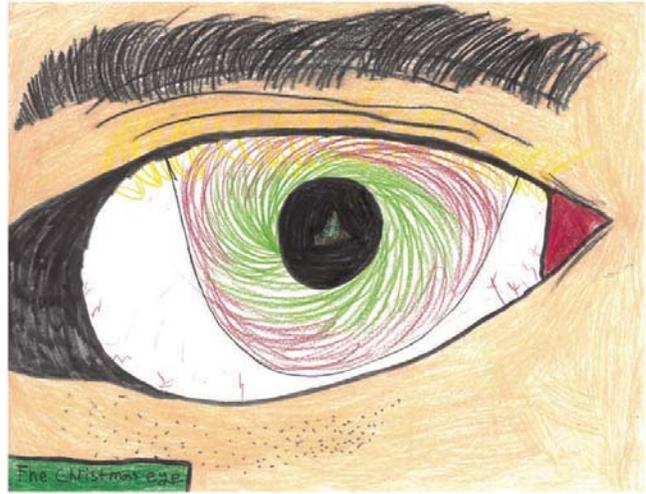

First, Santa you look so handsome in your beard. I don't think you would look as good if you decide to shave it off. You need your white fluffy beard to be a Santa and to match with all the other Santas.

Secondly, don't cut your beard because kids won't recognize you. They might not realize that you are Santa if you don't have a beard. Parents might think there is a robber in the house instead of Santa. People might think you are a fake if you shave off your beard.

Thirdly, Santa you will get cold at the North Pole if you don't have a beard to help keep you warm. You will need to buy a scarf or a neck warmer to help keep you warm. Mrs. Claus might be worried that you'll catch a cold and be sick for Christmas if you decide to shave off your beard.

I don't think you should cut off your beard, Santa! You look so handsome in your beard! Kids won't recognize you without your white fluffy beard and you will get cold at the North Pole if you decide to shave. Santa, don't shave off your beard.

Why Santa should still stop at my house

Kids will be expecting Santa to come. We all waited for months and were preparing for this holiday to come so Santa could bring joy and smiles on everyone's faces. If Santa doesn't come, kids all over the world will lose hope of them getting their gifts that they have waited so long to have. Imagine, kid's faces turning to frowns instead of smiles.

Second thing is Christmas won't be the same without Santa there's some safety precautions, Santa can sanitize the presents and wear a mask, and to be safe Santa could use his magical powers to be safe.

Another thing is that this year needs fun that kids all over the world can enjoy. Santa, I hope you consider these ideas.

Sincerely,

Pick me!

Pick me! Pick me! I'm the best tree! I am the best tree because I'm big and sturdy. I am bright green and very healthy! I also can hold the most big and heavy ornaments. Pick me because I think I'm the best tree!

Well first of all, I am big and sturdy. When a little kid or a pet pulls on me, I don't fall over. I don't even tilt. Being big is also good because the small and weak ones look gross and ugly. When you're big and sturdy, you look festive and people will be jealous that they do not have me. Just look around, I am the best tree.

Another reason that I am the best tree for you is that I am bright green and very healthy! Being bright green is good because the ones that are not bright green look horrible. Being healthy is great because if you are healthy you do not drop needles on the floor and you also last longer. When you're bright green and healthy you look so much better than the other trees.

Thirdly, I can hold big, heavy ornaments. Being able to hold big ornaments is good because if you have special ornaments, I will make sure they will not fall. I can also hold the most ornaments. If you can hold a lot of ornaments you look more festive and fun. If you have heavy ornaments, I can also hold them on my branches.

Lastly pick me because I think I am the best tree. I am the best tree because I am big and sturdy. I am bright green and very healthy. I can also hold the most big and heavy ornaments. To wrap this all up, just pick me because I am the best tree!

Santa should still stop at my house

Hello I am a student in Wawota Parkland School and I would like to suggest a few reasons why Santa should still stop at my house even though there is a pandemic. One reason is that we have to wear masks so the risk of us giving you Covid-19 is very little.

This year, I have a baby brother so when my mom is sleeping you could tickle his tummy which makes him laugh and smile. Personally, I like it when he smiles and laughs because they are cute. If Santa misses that he'd be sad.

Plus Christmas is a time when people can be grateful for all they have. Also I saw in Christmas Chronicles that Santa didn't stop at peoples houses and it resulted in the dark ages. I don't think it would get that bad, but it would probably make me and my family sad because Christmas is a time to be full of joy. To wake up on Christmas morning, me and my brother always race down the stairs to see if you came. There will be apples for your reindeer and milk and cookies for you.

Back to safety precautions, we will use gloves to set the milk and cookies so don't worry about that. My dad cleaned the chimney and we only used it once since then so you won't burn your head, butt or torso because we haven't used it in so long.

For these reasons I think that you can come and still be safe.

Sincerely,

*Riley Dykun

How I got stuck in a snow globe

One day I was shopping for a Christmas tree at Home Hardware. I was with my best friend Erika. I was there because there was no Christmas tree yesterday.

Then I saw a beautiful snow globe and I went to grab it but then I was stuck in a snow globe. I felt as small as a fly. I thought like I was in a dream.

Inside the snow globe we looked around the snow globe. It looked like there was nothing there. Then we saw a blurry snowman. We couldn't hear him clearly, but we could make out what he was saying. It felt a little chilly, but he led us to a big house. It looked like it was purple, but we didn't care what size or color it was because it was very warm. It had a fridge full of food. It had an oven and a microwave. It had a huge bed. It was a perfect place to stay.

I felt a little worried at first that I was stuck forever but the good news is that we would never run out of water, food and last but not least-heat.

As I look through the glass I could see other people shopping for Christmas trees as well. I saw a little baby trying to reach the globe. The baby went backward and knocked over the Christmas tree and ran off. I tried to get out by smacking the glass but there was no cracks. I tried yelling but no one could hear me. Then I tried throwing snowballs at the glass but all that did was rebound off the glass and hit me in the head but I couldn't get out.

After a while I started to like it in the snow globe. I made the bed and supper. I got a cup of water to calm myself down.

In the end I knew everything was okay because we will never run out of food, water and heat. And at least I have my best friend with me.
