2023 CHRISTMAS & HOLIDAY GREETINGS EDITION

Ella

Dear Santa,
 I think I would be a great security elf. I'm friendly, strong and brave.
 I'm friendly. The other elves will like me. I will work well with others. If I work well with others, there will be no arguments. I'm strong. I can help move bags of toys. The other elves won't get back pains. I'm brave. I can keep the North Pole safe and free. I can keep bad elves from ruining Christmas.
 And that's why Santa should hire me.
 Sincerely,

Christmas Party

Once upon a time there was a boy named Kyle. He loved Christmas. It was his favorite holiday of them all. So it's the day before Christmas and the Low family is getting ready for a party with friends. "Kids come, we are late" said mom. "Coming, mom" says Kyle. "Ok, Kyle" said mom. "I'm so ready for the party" said Kyle. Ten minutes later Kyle said, "We're here. Hi Nacho and Lynda, how are you?" "Good" said Lynda, "How are you?" "Good," said Kyle, "Are you guys ready to party?" "Yeppers," said Nacho. "Cool there is a sushi platter. What is this green stuff?" asked Kyle. "It's on a sushi platter so it must be good...wait, it's hot, hot, hot! I need milk!" said Kyle. Gulp, gulp, gulp! "Ah that helped the spot," said Kyle. "What do you guys want to do? Just chill?" asked Kyle. A few hours later Dad said, "It's one in the morning." "Ok," said Kyle. "I wonder if Santa came yet," said Kyle. "Maybe" said Hannah. When they got home Kyle saw that Santa didn't come. "Kyle, go to bed" said mom.
 Four hours later... "I can't wait anymore. I got presents and mom and dad got presents!" thought Kyle. "Kyle stop jumping on the bed!" said mom. "Mom, can I open my present?" asked Kyle. "Ok," said mom, "But be fast because we are going to Barb and Bryan's for brunch." "Ok!" said Kyle.

The Present Wrapper Elf

Hi Santa! I heard you needed some help. Well, I've got you! I would like to be a present wrapper at the North Pole. I am good at wrapping presents. I won't tell the kids what they get, and I am good at tying bows. I think I'm pretty good at wrapping presents so I think I would do a good job. I practice all the time. I love wrapping presents so much. I love all the presents so much. I have all the presents wrapped up a week before Christmas.

I think you should let me be your present wrapper because I am good at keeping secrets. I won't ruin the surprise and tell the kids what they are getting for Christmas from you.

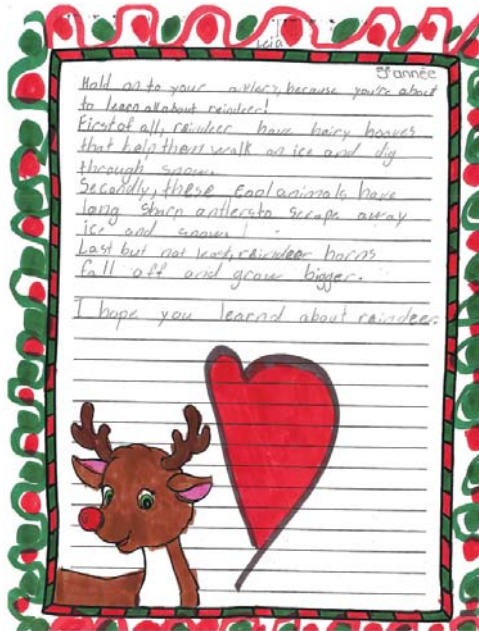

I am good at tying my shoes, so I think I would be very good at tying the ribbon as tight and perfect as needed and I would make the bows prettier than pretty.

These are all my reasons why I think you should hire me. Thank you for your time. I hope you pick me!

The Greenest Tree

Hey, I'm the best tree in the world. I am very green! I have a lot of needles so you can fit a lot of ornaments on me! I am the perfect size! I think you should buy me. I am probably the best tree you have seen!

I am very green! You want a tree to be very green! You do not want needles that are dark, old, and brown. I smell like a beautiful evergreen. I'm the best tree in the world!

I look very healthy! I am bright and I stand out with my crisp branches and green needles. You will want me to help decorate your living room. You want a tree that is the perfect size and very healthy!

I have a lot of needles. You want a tree that has lots of needles so you can put lots of ornaments on me. Not to brag but I won a contest for the most needles on my many branches. It's kind of a big deal! I can hold over 200 ornaments!

I think you should buy me! I am very green, and I am the perfect size for your living room. I have lots of needles to hold all the ornaments. Please take me home! I am the best tree on the lot!

A Merry Christmas Day!

As I stretched my arms I was filled with joy. I jumped out of bed with my reindeer pj's and slid into my Santa slippers. I rushed downstairs. I looked to the Christmas tree. Under were perfectly wrapped presents. I ran upstairs and jumped on my mom and dad. After I ran to my brother's room and jumped on him then on my sister.

I led them downstairs. We gathered our presents and we opened them up. My first present was a microscope. After I opened my first present, I opened my second. My second present was a stuffed toy. The stuffed toy was a fox. I snuggled it close with joy. Under all the presents was a note. I read it out loud to all my family. "Dear McCarthy Family, from Chippy your elf. It has been a lovely year. I can't wait to see you next year. You have been so good, keep being good. Love your elf, Chippy." We all had a wide smile on our faces.

This is what my mom got. She got a popcorn maker. My dad got a bottle of pop. My sister got a toy dinosaur and a Peppa Pig playhouse. My brother got a hockey stick and a puck.

After, I looked on the table where the cookies and milk were. They were all gone! There were only crumbs left.

My mom started making french toast. I grabbed my microscope and looked at germs and everything else. My mom gave me a fancy glass to drink some orange juice. I wish Christmas could last forever, but then it will get boring. I am happy we still get Christmas. "Honey, you should put away your microscope when you are done using it," said my mom. "Okay," I said back. I looked close up at things for about two hours. After, I carried my microscope to my room. I looked in it a little longer then put it to the side.

I ran downstairs. My family all gathered into the T.V. room. My brother and my mom made popcorn. After they were finished we started the movie. The movie was "The Grinch". We ate the popcorn. When it was the half of the movie we needed more popcorn, so my mom and my brother made some popcorn while my dad, my sister and I went to the bathroom and got some water.

My brother and my mom were done making the second batch of popcorn then we started the movie. The popcorn lasted the whole time. When we were watching the movie I snuggled close to my fox. After the movie I felt so jolly! I took some of the left over wrapping paper and looked at it in my microscope. But no matter what, I love Christmas and all it brings. Keep believing about Santa and have a MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Oh! Christmas Tree!

Hey! Hey! I am your brand new Christmas tree! Uh, over here and what the heck are you talking about? Uh Hello? I am over here family! Hi there, I am the perfect holiday Christmas tree! I know that you need a holiday Christmas tree, so don't waste your time and buy me. Ok this is the last time, over here. Yes, you saw me, can you please buy me. I am tall, sparkling and a beautiful dark and light green color. I am perfect for you!

You should pick me because I have nice long brown bristles. It's good that I have nice long bristles because it is perfect for decorating me and I smell great! You would want me to have that because I am sure you want a well decorated Christmas tree, and you probably want your house to smell good.

Another reason you should pick me is because I am very tall and slim. You would want me to be very tall and slim so you can fit more decorations on me! You want me to be tall and slim because then you could cut me to whatever size you would like.

The last is because I can talk, and my voice is beautiful. You would want me to talk because I could keep you company when you are all alone. You would want me to have a beautiful voice because I could sing to you, and you would dance to my singing.

Ok, this is the last time over here, yes you saw me, can you please buy me? Here are some reasons why you should buy me. I am tall, sparkling and beautiful. I have nice long brown bristles, I am very tall and slim, I can talk, and I have a beautiful voice! Now will you buy me? I did everything I can. OMG! You will, thank you so much!

Working Christmas

Reach, reach, bang, bang! "There it's done. The Present Maker 2000. I hope it works—here goes nothing," I said. Beep, beep, bloop, bonk, ding. "Yes, it worked!" I screamed. "Oh Will," Santa said. "Yes," I replied. "How is the machine coming along?" Santa asked. "Good, very good." I replied. Then the lights went out. Bang, crash, boom. "Santa?" I said, confused. The lights turned back on but Santa was gone! I looked behind me and the machine was broken. "Oh no, no, no! There's no Santa and no machine! What is going to happen to Christmas?" I yelled. I walked to the workshop and the elves were sleeping. I blew the air horn. "Ahhhh" yelled the elves and got up. "Listen up. Santa is missing and I need Rhett and Layton to find who kidnapped Santa. Wallace and Jack, follow me and get instructions up here," I said.

When they all came up I started giving instructions. "Rhett and Layton get those UV lights and fingerprint scanner then go to Santa's office to scan for fingerprints. Wallace and Jack, get the instructions for the Present Maker 2000. You need to make one and then make four billion presents each." "But why so many presents?" they asked. "Because there is no Christmas magic to make the presents if Santa is gone." "You're right," they said. "I know. Now get to work!" I yelled. "Will, Will!" Rhett screamed. "What?" I asked. "I know who kidnapped Santa," he replied. "Who?" I asked. "Krampus" he said. "We'll deal with Krampus after Christmas. Go help the others." "Yes sir!" they said and ran to help the others. "Kyle and Carter come here," I said. They ran up to me and I said, "Make sure the gifts are safe!" "Yes sir!" they yelled. When they were done, we packed up the sleigh then drove off. That was the best Christmas ever!

The Best Elf

YO! SANTA! I hear you're looking for some new hires. Well, I'm your man. I'm probably the best elf you'll ever see in your long, jolly, happy life. I'm a hardworking, strong elf. I also love building things and spend half of my time building things in my home workshop. I think I'm the best elf you'll ever see.

I'm a very hard-working elf. I always finish my work on time and make things that my customers want, when they want it, and it's done well. I once had a teacher when I went to elf school who would explain every homework assignment three days before. I was going away for the week and was going to be skipping the whole homework assignment, so I took it home early and got an M for a mark. The assignment was to build a toy to give to a child and I got to build a plane. Another thing that makes me a hard-working elf is that when I start building, nothing, and I mean NOTHING, can stop me. Except food, but the food gives me energy to keep working hard.

I'm a strong worker. I love using hammers to build toys for my siblings and help Papa Elf fix the sleigh. I could load the sleigh on Christmas Eve and help get the reindeer into place. I could be a big part in your fleet of elves Santa. One time, a ball got stuck in a tree and some little kids were trying to get it and I jumped up, grabbed the tree, pulled it down so they could reach it. I also like helping people, but that's getting off topic. I'm a strong worker, Santa!

I love, like LOVE building things. To me, building is very fun. I've built tons of model airplanes, carved a canoe and paddle, built a lot of toys for my siblings' Christmas gifts, and built my very own bookshelf. One year, for Christmas, my grandpa bought me a toolbox. I was 5! I love machines and tools. They're basically my life. I remember playing with my tools 24/7 because it was so much fun, and I loved them so much.

I think I'm the best elf you'll ever see. I'm a very hard-working elf. I always try my best and do what needs to be done. I'm a strong elf with a kind heart. I love helping others and using strength to help others. I love building things too. I think you will be amazed by how many toys I will build for all the children of the world. I will be a cheerful and encouraging elf to the other elves. Pick me, Santa, I will help you with a lot.

Hey there Santa!
Are you looking for more elves?

I would like to apply for a job as an elf. I listen to the instructions when they are given. I do it because then I can get right to work. It would help because then there would be more coal getting mined a day.
I know elves work really hard. I like to work and I like to work really hard so I would make a good miner elf. I do it because I like to work a lot. It would help because there would be a lot more coal.
A little birdy told me that you were looking for small people to be your elves.
I am short so I would make a good miner elf. I am short and small so I could fit into tiny, teeny places. I would be really good at hide and seek then. I would make the best coal miner elf ever.

Dear Santa,

I think you should hire me because I'm great at lots of things. I'd be an amazing elf for you and the reindeer.
One reason you should hire me is I'm short like an elf. That would be a good thing because I'm not tall like an adult. Instead, I'm short just like you asked.
I want to be an elf that takes care of the reindeer. One reason I want to help the reindeer is because I'm good at feeding my pets, so that would be helpful to the reindeer.
I would love to be an elf, I can't stop thinking about it!

Please, hire me! I also like to comfort animals, I would brush them and keep them clean.
Those are some reasons you should hire me. And there are a lot of other people that want to be elves too, so make sure to check them out too!

My Christmas

I woke up on Christmas Eve, I wanted to see Santa Claus. I planned how I'm gonna get to see Santa Claus.

I decided to put a bell by and in the chimney. If I'm asleep the bell will ring, it will wake me up. I will climb to the top of the roof. Then I will get in Santa's sack. If Santa comes to get his bag, I will sneak out of Santa's bag. I will go to the front. When I hear him come to the front I will go to the back. I waited til Christmas Eve night trying to stay awake. I finally go to bed, then the bell rang. I woke up climbed to the top of the roof and went to the back and climbed in the sack.

He delivered the presents to my home. He went up the chimney, then we arrived at a different house. Santa came to the back to get his sack. I jumped out of the sack so fast you couldn't even see me. Then he went in the house and delivered the presents, came out and put the sack down. Then he jumped into the front as I jumped into the back. He didn't see me. I got into the sack and I heard him say "on Donner on Dasher, on Prancer and Vixen and Rudolph. Then we galloped off the roof. We were heading to the North Pole.

We arrived at the North Pole. We put on pretend elf ears. We also put on a costume. Then I waited for Santa to get out and I jumped out of the sleigh. He told me he want's a hot chocolate, I said, "OK" and told someone to get a hot chocolate, and what type of hot chocolate. They said you get it from the tap. Santa Claus likes candy cane hot chocolate. I said, "OK, can you make candy cane hot chocolate for Santa Claus?" The elf said, "yes."

Then we started to go to the toy room. I started to grab my present and I also grabbed other people's that were on the naughty list. I grabbed so many toys. The toys I grabbed were a sewing machine and a drone. Then someone came out of a box. It was my sisters. They said, "We want toys."

"OK, grab what ever you want," I said

They grabbed a lot! We grabbed Pop It, figit toys, Robux cards and more. Then we were leaving and an elf caught us. They reported us to Santa Claus. I said it was my fault . I wish they would be off the naughty list or forever naughty. He started lowering the numbers and left us with two. Anastacia and me.

I said "Why is Anastacia up there?"

Santa said, "She is up there because she has something in her pocket."

She gave it to Santa Claus and said "Here is the phone."

Santa said, "It still doesn't change the point."

"Please, my last wish is that you let her on the good list."

Santa said, "OK" and put us both on the good list. He said you did what's right.

Then I went home and mom asked me were I was. I said I was with Santa Claus. She said, "Tell me the truth."

Anastacia and Anabella said that we were with Santa Claus too.

Then we hugged. "This isn't fun, tell the truth."

Chill, this is the first time they're being nice to each other.

Dear Santa,

How many delivery elves have you had in your life? I will be the one that you keep forever. Just read my resumé to find out that you will want to keep me forever.

I heard you are looking for a super strong delivery elf. I am a strong and powerful girl that will be a perfect delivery elf for you. The biggest amount of weight that I have lifted is two hundred pounds and it is easy. I could probably lift three hundred pounds. Knowing that I can lift over two hundred pounds means I can lift very heavy presents. Also, if your sleigh gets stuck I can push it out.

Since you have heard about how strong I am, just keep reading to find out how fast I am. When you see me run you will say "Wow!" I can almost run faster than the fastest kid in my class and he is super fast. Being fast means that I can be in and out of the house in a flash. I practice and train to run faster every day so that I can be the fastest kid in my class.

Now that you have heard my other two talents you might as well just listen to my last talent. My other talent is being...sneaky! I am not very small nor very short like most elves but I can be very sneaky. I also love to sneak around. Knowing that I can be sneaky means that when I go into someone's house the people that live there will never know that I was in their house. I will be super quiet.

I am the perfect delivery elf. I am strong, fast and sneaky. I will be the perfect elf for the one and only Santa Claus. Ho, ho, ho hire me.

Dear Santa,

Hi, I'm Calla Wallin and I am a short 10-year-old girl, especially compared to a skyscraper!

I would be a great animal elf because I have a passion for working with animals! So, make the right choice and hire me!

I need this job so I can "quit" my old job school and I really want this job. I also think I am short just like you asked! I am at the remaining height of 4 feet and 7 inches. Bonus, I am not afraid to get dirty! The only downside is I probably be too short to reach the top of a reindeer so could we possibly arrange to make a step stool? If you want, I'm willing to stay in the stables with the reindeer.

I can cook too! If you want cookies I can make you cookies, if you pair me with Charlee, we will be a dream team! I don't care what job I get; I really want any of these jobs.

I think I can be a manager elf because I can organize large groups of people elves. I have a constructive voice. I am a good leader and team captain; I always pick the right people for my team.

You pick which elf you need most. Thank you for your time.

The Christmas Spirit

Once upon a time there was a big, jolly man name Nicholas. Most people knew him as Santa Claus—the one who flies around the whole world in one night. But that's not how it started. This is how it really started. It started like this, before Santa there were just elves that delivered presents and bicycles. Santa was still a kid growing up. But he grew up without Christmas spirit. I know, it sounds crazy but it was true. So now Santa is a teenager and Christmas is in two days. The elves need as much help as they can get. But they need human help. So they sent a scout to find a human. They went to get Nicholas. Right now Nick is at school. Ding, ding, the school bell rang. That means it's time to go now. Nick was going to the bus but before he got there the elf Benjamin saw him and said, "Do you want to get some hot cocoa?" "Sure" said Nick. So they went to get some cocoa at a cafe. "I am an elf. I'm here to give you the Christmas spirit." "Ok," said Nick. "Then let's go get that Christmas spirit and go caroling." Merry Christmas, the alarm clock rang. Santa said, "I had the weirdest dream last night Benjamin. It was about me and you! How did I not have the Christmas spirit?" "That sounds crazy," said Benjamin. "Well we'd better get the sled loaded to deliver presents." Five minutes later..."Merry Christmas and to all a good night!" The end.

Please hire me Santa

Hi Santa! I'm the elf that you're going to want to hire, and trust me, you are not going to regret it. You see, the issue is, I need a job because I'm currently broke, and I need some money to buy my family presents this year, and so far, nobody wants to hire me because I am too good at their jobs, plus nobody believes that I'm an elf. Now, this is my opinion Santa but, I really, really think you should hire me because if you don't, your other elves might get tired from wrapping and making presents and then you won't have enough presents for all the kids around the world so then nobody will believe in you anymore.

You should hire me because I can wrap 10 presents in under 3 minutes. Plus, I never get distracted so I could probably wrap more than 14 presents in 4 minutes. If we don't make enough presents in time, I could probably make enough presents in time because I'm very energetic and fast. If I concentrate enough, I can make good toys and load your sleigh so then you will have enough time to take a nap and give you enough energy for the trip.

I am very good with reindeer. In fact, I even speak their reindeer language. I could probably get them all ready to pull your sleigh this year. I could put on your reindeer's harnesses and brush them and polish their hooves, and I could make sure Rudolph's nose shines extra bright this year. If your reindeer are cranky and don't want to pull your sleigh, I could talk to them and make them get into the holiday spirit to pull your sleigh.

You should hire me because I am kind and jolly. I would skip around and dance for your entertainment when you're getting bored. I could cheer everyone up when they're feeling down and get everyone into the holiday spirit. I like to tell jokes, so when we are all working and getting bored, I could tell a joke and make everyone laugh.

I can cheer all my fellow elves up when they're feeling down and get everyone into the holiday spirit. Santa, you got to hire me because if you do, I'll work harder than an elf has ever worked. Thank you Santa, for this job opportunity.

Merry Christmas!

I Think You Need to Lose Weight Santa

Dear Santa, I want you to lose as much weight as you can to be healthy. I really care about you Santa! I hope you can do well if you eat enough veggies and fruits. You will become a big success and you will make your elves proud of you for losing weight. Even the reindeer will notice as the sleigh will be lighter! Just remember to be your best self, not your bad self.

I think you need lose weight Santa! You will not want to climb into the chimneys because you will get stuck! The kids would fear all the grunting noises in the chimney. They will tell their mom to turn on the fireplace while you're stuck. Just imagine burning your butt off while stuck at the same time? Won't you be scared if your legs are burning? You should get to the gym! You can become a famous bodybuilder!

The kids would all be sad if they don't get any Christmas presents. If they don't get their presents on the holly jolly Christmas, they will be absolutely depressed. The chimney is small, and you'll have to be able to deliver presents to little kids, or you'll lose your precious job. The elves must be concerned over your health. They will maybe stop working! Milk and cookies are stupidly unhealthy!

They will have massive tantrums if they don't get their nice presents from you Santa! They will start making posters of you like "where is Santa?" The reindeer would also run away because of how fat you are! I would be sad! I would like to see you to fly into the moonlight. It will look really cool seeing you with your sleigh and the reindeer being happy for you losing weight.

Dear Santa, I hope you can do well losing weight. I want you to lose as much weight as you can. I care about you and I need you to eat enough veggies and fruit so you will become a big success. You will make the elves proud by losing weight and even the reindeer will notice! Remember be your best self, not your bad self!

Cookies and Milk

Hey children! I'm tired of cookies and milk. I want a different snack. Please give me some eggnog and candy canes. I'm Santa and I want different snacks and drinks. I don't want any more cookies and milk for the rest of my big Santa life. I want different snacks because the same snacks every night are boring. I also want to be able to fly with my reindeer. I also don't even like milk with cookies. I think cookies and milk make people fat.

First the same snack is boring. Plus, cookies have sugar so I might have a sugar crash during my flight. If I have a sugar crash during my flight the reindeer will never stop, and I will not deliver any presents to any houses. When I have cookies every night, I get bored. I also don't have any food for the reindeer. Plus, it takes time to eat cookies, so I don't have as much time to deliver.

Next, I won't be able to fly with my reindeer. I will be too heavy. Combined with the sleigh it would be way heavier for them. If I can't fly, I won't be able to get to all the homes this Christmas. Even if they could pull me, it would be way slower because we would be on the ground. When my weight is combined with the presents, it would be more than one thousand pounds! The reindeers' strength can't hold one thousand pounds in the air.

Finally, I don't even like milk with cookies. Please don't ever give it to me because I might get distracted about the taste in my mouth. If I get distracted, you won't be happy because I might take presents instead of giving presents. Now what do you think of that? Cookies and milk are disgusting together because sugar with something that makes your bones strong is not that good.

Now I think that people get fat when eating cookies and drinking milk. If I get too fat I won't be able to fit down the chimney. The same snacks are boring every night. I won't be able to fly with my reindeer. I don't even like milk with cookies! Children don't ever give me milk and cookies again please! Now To All A Good Night!

Grimace

Hi, my name is Grimace and I am a nutcracker. This is my story of when I came to life on Christmas Eve at 11:59 pm. Anyway, I am going to tell you about what I did when I came to life. So, first I made some food (Mr. Noodles) AKA my favorite noodles.

Anyway, back to what I did when I was alive, the second thing I wanted to do was go on my trampoline and man I instantly flew off my trampoline, I never even knew I could go that high. My legs and my head came right off, but luckily I used my hands to put my head and legs back on my body. After I was done jumping on the trampoline and putting my head and legs back on, and eating my Mr. Noodles I wanted to decorate my Christmas tree. I decorated it with silly string, popcorn, toilet paper, and tinsel. It looked BEAUTIFUL!

All of a sudden these little red and white things came and attacked me, then I saw this big jolly man come down my chimney. I was going to call the cops, I didn't know who he was and he was trespassing! Suddenly, I slowly faded into a toy again.

Elf Resume

Santa, you should hire me because I'm strong, I'm incredibly good at driving, and I'm good at fixing things. I learnt to fix things from my dad. I want to be a security guard if you do hire me, and Christmas is my favorite holiday day other than my birthday. I can drive many things on the farm, and I love driving. I'm fairly good at driving or guiding. Also, I lift a lot. That's why I help around the farm with turning wrenches and tackling on the trampoline. I can take on my sisters and I can really pack a punch. I can take down my sisters by throwing, pulling them down or just simply spinning them in circles. I'm good at fixing things. When I fix stuff, I feel like a mechanic. And I learnt these things from my dad. One time I went to Peirce's house for a birthday party and his perlite gun Sandy got him broke and I told him what he needed to make it work again. He needed a battery and ammo.

Anyways, I am strong, I can drive, and I am good at fixing things and if you forgot about that I got all of this from my dad. But I do eat a lot of food, I have a short temper and I like to do work, not school work. So, you should hire me, and I would like to be a Security Guard.

Elf Application

Santa, are you looking for small, amazing elves? If so, I'm your man. Now I'll tell you why you should hire me.

I can drop off a package in a jiffy and no one will see me because I'm small. So, since I'm small and not loud I can be sneaky and fast so I can drop off the package without being seen. So that's why you should hire me.

I would also like to be a security guard elf because I play hockey and hit kids on the other team if they're digging at my goalie. I am also good at keeping people out of my room. So, I could be a security guard at the North Pole if you want me to. I'm also strong so I can keep people out of the North Pole if they're trying to get in. But don't worry

Santa, I'll save you from intruders.

Then, if there are too many elves for delivery and security, I am also good at taking care of reindeer because I take care of my dog. I feed him, get him water, and play with him. Then I will also feed and get water for the reindeer and play with them a lot.

Santa, I have lots of characteristics which I hope will get me the job.

2023 CHRISTMAS & HOLIDAY GREETINGS EDITION

Hey Santa, hey Santa! Look at this!

Here is my job application and the reasons you should hire me. I'm amazing at playing tricks on all my friends. I can wrap presents very fast and easily. I can also fly faster than any other elves. In my opinion I think you should hire me because I'm the greatest elf. I also think that I will work harder than any elf in this workshop. I will lift all the heavy things while all the other elves watch because I'm the strongest elf in this workshop.

I am like the best at playing tricks on children I watch. I will never run out of ideas, and I always make the kids laugh. One time there was a kid I was watching for you Santa when my job was an elf on the shelf and that kid never laughed at my jokes. One morning he woke up and I was playing on his iPad and his whole family finally laughed at my amazing joke. Another time I was at a circus telling some jokes and everybody laughed at all of them because I'm just amazing.

I am totally amazing at wrapping presents. I can wrap 10 presents in under 5 seconds! I will be better than all the other elves! I can even prove it, Santa! Look at this award for wrapping 1,000 gifts in under 2 minutes, it is my coolest award. I also have once forgotten to wrap my Christmas presents that I got for the elves, and I wrapped them all in 30 seconds!

I can for sure fly fast, I can probably even fly faster than Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer! I will not be late to tell you what the kids did! I can even show you all my awards in flying races. I have 44 flying awards that are all either 1st or 2nd! I also have never tied with anyone in the 1st place. The only time someone is better than me is if they cheat because I'm the best!

In my opinion I'm a strong elf and ready to do the job, Santa! I only have 8 awards for being strong, but I still can lift a bunch of stuff that's heavy! That's all my job application, please, please, please hire me, Santa! I hope I get the job. Hope to see you next week!

Dear Santa,

Please hire me! I am great at taking care of animals. I have horses at home and I take care of them. I can take care of reindeer too! I will be giving them carrots for a snack so they can keep seeing in the dark. The carrots will give them night vision to see great on Christmas eve or Christmas. You maybe need to make me a step stool because I am kind of short like an elf. You need to take care of reindeer and otherwise, I won't be able to get the reins on the reindeer and then hitch it up to your sleigh. Santa, I will be your perfect reindeer caretaker.

The Christmas Monkeys

Once there were these two monkeys from the North Pole. Their job was to get all presents that got stuck in the conveyor belts and collect all the ones that fell.

They got paid two presents a month. They thought it was horrible! The minimum wage was five presents a month. So, they started to steal presents and they were both collecting about 15 presents each. But this meant eventually people weren't getting their presents.

Santa decided he needed to set up cameras and they didn't know the cameras where there, so they got caught, and Santa sent them to the slammer. The monkeys could not take it in the slammer so they decided to get out. They ripped the bars out and escaped. They knew where the sleigh was and it has millions of presents on it! They navigate around all Santa's cameras and eventually get to the sleigh but they couldn't get the reindeer on the sleigh in time and Santa caught them again! How did you know we were here? The monkeys asked.

"Ho Ho remember Santa always knows if you are Naughty or Nice. You guys are in BIG trouble."
And just like that in the next second the monkeys were gone, Santa made them disappear and those monkeys were never seen again.

Please STOP Giving me Cookies and Milk!

Ho Ho Ho I'm Santa Claus! I'm sure you heard of me, I give presents to those who are on the nice list and coal to those who are on the naughty list. I'm also sure you have heard that I love cookies and milk. I kind of do, but I'm sick of them!

How would you feel if you ate billions of cookies on Christmas Eve? I even gained pounds! You will be on the naughty list for life if you keep giving me cookies and milk. Instead of eating cookies and milk, I would like frozen raspberries on yogurt and orange juice, apple juice or hot chocolate.

I have plenty of reasons why you should not give me cookies and milk any more. It's because my elves tell me that I should work out, my reindeer are getting slower and slower every year and I can barely fit in a chimney! Please stop giving me cookies and milk. You can give me milk every 3 years. I told Mrs. Claus, and she supports me that I no longer want cookies. She's glad that I still like milk because we only have milk. She also said I will get sick of eating too many cookies.

I never said I was done with reasons, anyway I can barely fit in my coat and my sleigh creaks every time I enter it. That's bad because it might break when I'm in the sky! I need to be healthy so I might lose pounds and easily go through chimneys. My coat would fit and my sleigh wouldn't break when I enter it. Maybe the elves would stop saying that I need to work out and my reindeer would go faster and not slower.

These are my last reasons. Christmas and Boxing Day I'm sick because of the cold and the cookies, even the cookies with a bunch of icing and sprinkles. Mrs. Claus makes me broccoli soup which I don't like at all. If you agree that it's gross you are on the nice list this year. If you are bad and like it, you are on the naughty list and if you are good and like it you are on the nice list. If you had more than 7 billion cookies in one day for hundreds of years you would hate it too.

You would be on the naughty list for life if you keep giving me cookies and milk. Instead of cookies and milk, I would like frozen raspberries on yogurt, orange juice, apple juice or hot chocolate. All my reasons are 1) my elves say I need to work out. 2) the reindeer are slower. 3) my coat is getting smaller. 4) my sleigh is creaking every time I enter it. 5) I'm sick on Christmas and Boxing Day. 6) the cookies with a bunch of icing and sprinkles make me sick. Thank you for listening and reading this note. So, I hope that you tell your friends, and they listen and don't give me cookies when I go to their house.

Sincerely,
Santa Claus

Dear Santa,

I would be the perfect elf for Santa's kitchen because I am smaller than most! Because I am small I can fit in the kitchen under the roof like most. I love to cook more than anything! Because I can cook I can make food for the elves and Santa. I am friendlier than some of your elves. Because I am friendly I am nice to the elves that assist me in the kitchen. Please hire me!

Why I Want to be an Elf!

HEY! HEY! SANTA! OVER HERE! I really want to be your elf. I think I could be good at it. The thing is that my little brother does not have an elf on the shelf. I want him to be like me when I was his age (he is two and turning three in 2024). I think I will be good for really any kid because I like kids. In my opinion, it's not a good Christmas if you have no elf. I have good eyes for kids who are misbehaving, and I will tell you if they are being bad. I am also fast at making toys.

I really like kids and I think they like me too. When I'm hanging out with kids they smile and laugh with me or at me! When my little brother and I first met each other, he smiled at me. It was so cute! If you don't believe me, ask my dad, he has seen it. Also, the last time I was with my baby and little cousins they wanted me to play a game with them. I just wanted to see how they were doing and if they were being good.

You won't believe it, but I have good eyes for misbehaving kids. Like what I mean is that I can really see bad kids. I just know when kids are being bad or when they are going to be. It's like I can read minds, but I really can't. When I was hanging out with some bad kids, one hit the other and I saw it right away. I can see bad kids from the corner of my eye. I saw a bad kid like about five days ago, so my eyes are still good!

Did you know I am fast at making toys? Me and my friend were racing to see who could write the most names. It was 200 to 110 and I got 200! I am a super-fast wrapper. One time I got 1 million candy canes for winning the world record for making the most toys in 1 minute! I wrapped over 1,000 gifts. It's so easy to wrap gifts, write the names and to make toys.

In my opinion, I think I should be my brother's elf because I am good with kids. I have good eyes for bad kids and I know my brother well. Come on Santa. The reason why I should do this job is because I can make toys fast and I am short, so I look like an elf. I really hope I get this job.

Love,

Sophia

Dear Santa,

I want to be an elf. I will be a good toy maker. Most importantly I can build a lot of things. I fixed a lot of toys and machinery. I know how to connect wires to make toys run fast. I will be happy because I love to work. Can you hire me? You won't regret it.

Sincerely,

Dear Santa,

Hire me! My opinion is I think you need more elves, and I can fix your sled fast. I have been helping my dad fix stuff for three years. My reason is I am good at using tools. And I'm strong. I can lift heavy stuff and your elves are too tiny. I can hook your reindeer up to your sled and I have always wanted to meet you. If you hire me, you won't have problems with your sled because I will make sure everything runs smoothly.

Santa's Food Issue

Have you ever eaten cookies and drank milk for a thousand years? Or have you ever eaten a million cookies in a year? Because I did! But there is an issue...And that issue is I'm sick and tired of eating cookies every year, every month, every day, every hour! At this point I'm about to vomit! Instead of leaving milk and cookies every Christmas, I request you leave cheese puffs, cheese strings, fruit juice and fruit smoothies or anything every Christmas.

Reason #1: I will have Type 2 diabetes if I eat more cookies and my doctor will charge me $78,900 dollars if I do get diabetes. I lost most of my money from buying a high-tech, automatic sleigh. One of the reasons you should stop leaving milk and cookies is that if I have Type 2 diabetes, I will stop making toys and gifts and you will not have any presents and toys in the future. Another reason is I need to make the elves open another shop so I can earn some money to buy the materials for toys and gifts, and if I do not have any money, I can not pay my doctor and he will sue me because you left the cookies and milk.

Reason #2: The food I requested is healthier than the milk and cookies. Another reason you should not leave cookies and milk is my elves would have diabetes and fatigue because of the chocolate chip cookies I feed them. Then it leads to no presents and gifts because they cannot work. One other reason is that I will not have any money to pay my elves' medical bills and expenses. Then they would sue me for feeding them cookies and I will need to shut down my factory, I will lose my reindeer, my new sleigh and there will be no Christmas because you left cookies and milk.

Reason #3: I can continue making gifts for Christmas and you could help others. If you leave cheese puffs, cheese strings, fruit smoothies or anything, my elves will be energized and be willing to make toys, and gifts, then I will give you all the toys you want. If you do not leave me milk and cookies, I can give them to the people who need food and other things that they need. Like for example I can give vegetables and bread to people who need them from the help of the people who left them for me. You can really help others by just leaving anything but milk and cookies.

Lyra
Grade 5R
MacLeod School

Dear Santa,

You should hire me at the North Pole. I'm creative and helpful.

If I'm the head of the Toy Design and Development Department, I can make designs and help make toys. I'm wanting to paint on toys and design the doll's hair. When I sketch, I design the dolls. So, I'd like to be the elf who paints on the dolls and design dolls like avatar dolls. I can teach the elves to sketch and know what to make. I'll show them how to make avatar dolls for kids who watch Avatar Way of the Water.

Toy making is fun. I like painting on the faces and doing different hair colors. If they do, I will tell you. I will help clean up the messes the other elves make. I will be nice all year. When it is time for a break I will go to the kitchen and help the baker elves. I'll be good and not get in trouble and make sure the other elves stay out of trouble. It will help me know what to do if I sketch hair and color in the hair after I am done sketching.

It will be fun Santa. If I get this job, I will be happy and I will do well!

Best Elf

Hey Santa! I want to be your worker! Santa I'm a good helper! I'm smart, helpful and fast. I think you should pick me because I'm the champion of all elves ever.

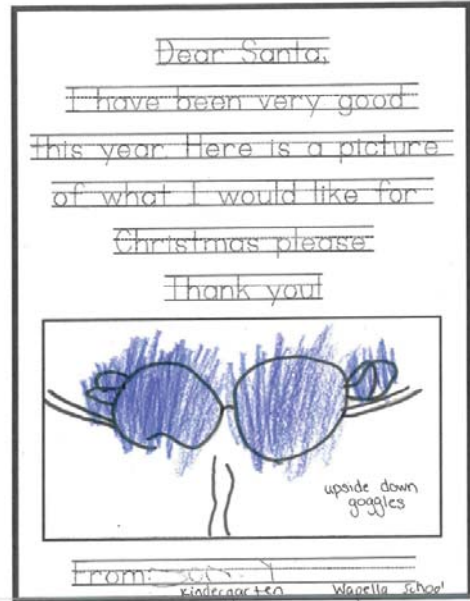

I'm the world fastest champion elf ever! My friend Bob timed me, and I made one hundred presents in six minutes and delivered them to the sleigh in three minutes. It's important to be fast because I can give presents faster than a normal elf. I know how many toys you need to make this Christmas.

I'm a smart elf. My friend Bob timed me again and I did 15 hard math questions and I got them all right. It's important to be smart because I can make the sleigh teleport. I can help Santa deliver presents faster. I can also count how many presents you will need for Christmas, and I can even create technology so we can build the toys faster.

I'm helpful. I love to help with presents and pack them! I love Christmas more than anyone! One time I helped an elf to make presents for kids. It's important to be helpful because not everyone you meet is kind to one another. I am that elf, Santa!

Please hire me! I am the champion of all elves! I'm super smart, helpful and speedy quick at making toys for Christmas. Let's make this the best Christmas ever, Santa!

Dear Santa,

I want to be toy maker elf. I can make a spaceship and more. My favorite toy is a penguin. I can use your toy making station. I love to make toys because I am a toy maker elf. I can make a lot of toys in one day. I won't break a single toy. I am careful. I am excited to be a toy maker elf.

Get in Shape!!!

Hi Santa! I have heard you have been eating too many cookies and you are a little bit too heavy this holiday year. I play hockey and you need to be in shape to play hockey, Santa, the issue is that you have been eating too many cookies on Christmas and have been gaining some pounds. I think you should get in shape because you are too heavy and must live 1,256 more years to continue to bring joy to all the girls and boys.

A reason you should get in shape is so you can jump from house to house without getting tired. You would be able to save time because you could get from house to house quicker without any breaks. You could also save the reindeer effort because they will not have to fly to all the houses.

Another reason you should get in shape is so you can wrap presents quicker. You could wrap presents two times quicker and it would only take half of the year to wrap all the presents. You could also save money because you wouldn't have to hire as many elves.

Lastly, you should get in shape so you can whip the reindeer harder. You could save time because the reindeer wouldn't goof around because they would be scared to get whipped.

Santa, you should get in shape because you must live 1,256 more years and you are too fat. If you get into shape, you could jump house to house without getting tired, wrap presents two times quicker, and so you can whip the reindeer harder.

Please consider getting in shape for this holiday season.

The Best Elf

Hey, Santa! Pick me! Pick me! Santa, I will be your best elf yet. I can make toys in 3 seconds. I am fast. I am a great builder too. First off, I am a great toy maker. I can make toys in 3 seconds. I can go to the house and back so fast. I can build anything. Santa, you should pick me because I will be your best elf yet! I work hard, every day. I am a good helper.

I am good at making toys. I can make toys in 3 seconds, and I work hard. One time my friend timed me, and I made one toy in 3 seconds. I have been practicing for my whole life. I went to the gym and the workshop. I would work all night if I had to.

I can fly to someone's house and back in 2 seconds. My friend ran with me. I have been on a treadmill for 5 years and I have been going on 10 mile runs every day. I can fly for 8 hours straight.

The last reason is I am a good builder. I can build something in 5 seconds, my friend watched me. I have been making stuff my whole life. I joined a Club for Elves, and it helps you build stuff. I can help you build stuff.

Santa, you should pick me! I will be your best elf yet! I will work hard every day. I can make toys in 3 seconds. I am fast. I am a great builder. You should really pick me, Santa, because of all the good reasons I gave you. I am the best elf.

Dear Santa,
Santa, or shall I say Mr. Claus, I write to you because I hear you have some open positions. Well, I will make you a deal you will not regret. I am wondering if your security force position is available. Because I've been thinking to ask you if I could maybe join the security force? I know exactly what you need to know about the job! My strengths are bright minded, focusing mind, and strong. Don't forget: awesome at video games! Santa, I should have the job. First, I'm short, I'm stubby, I'm the best of the best. Next, I'm awesome at video games. Finally, I went to security university for wannabes so I think you could use me for the job. Especially with my awesome talents. Santa, I'm amazing sitting on the couch all day and throwing my life away to a freshly opened bag of chips, but I don't have any time for that anymore because I need a job!

Best Elf

Hey Santa! Pick me! Pick me! You need one more elf and you should pick me. I am a good helper. Another reason is I make toys fast. The last reason is I am strong, I could lift more than 300 pounds. I believe you should pick me because I would be your best elf yet! I will try hard every day.

First, I am a good helper. I really like to help elves get better at their job. I will get along with the other elves and be a good friend with them. I am a good helper. I can lift presents for you. I really love to make toys and wrap presents!

The second reason is I make toys fast. I have a superpower that helps me make toys in 0.5 seconds. One time my friend timed me to make a hockey stick and it only took less than 1 second. I will help you and I will get your job done fast!

The last reason is I am strong and can lift more than 300 pounds. This will help you because you might not be able to lift something. I am so strong I can lift your sleigh. I know I can lift more than 300 pounds because my friend told me to lift 200 pounds and I lifted it well over my head! I will lift your sleigh if you're sick!

I believe you should pick me! I would be your best elf yet! I will try my hardest every day, Santa. You should pick me. I am a good helper. I make toys fast. The last reason is I am strong, and I can lift more than 300 pounds. Santa, I hope you pick me. I try hard every day and get along with friends. I hope I see you again soon!

Hold on to your antlers, because you're about to learn all about reindeer! First of all reindeer dig through the snow with their long legs and hairy hooves to find grass to eat. Secondly, these cool animals can eat up to 12 pounds of plants a day. Last but not least, reindeer have a special nose that warms up the cold air as they breathe it in.

Santas' Cookie Problems

I have been spying on Santa, and he has been eating a lot of cookies lately. I am an elf, and my job is to take care of the reindeer in the stables. The issue is Santa's been eating a bunch of cookies lately. I try to tell Mrs. Claus not to make cookies but she does not stop. I could try and steal the cookies from Mrs. Claus, I guess.

A reason he needs to stop is if you continue this you will be too heavy for the reindeer and you will not be able to fit down the chimney. You will be too fat to run from house to house.

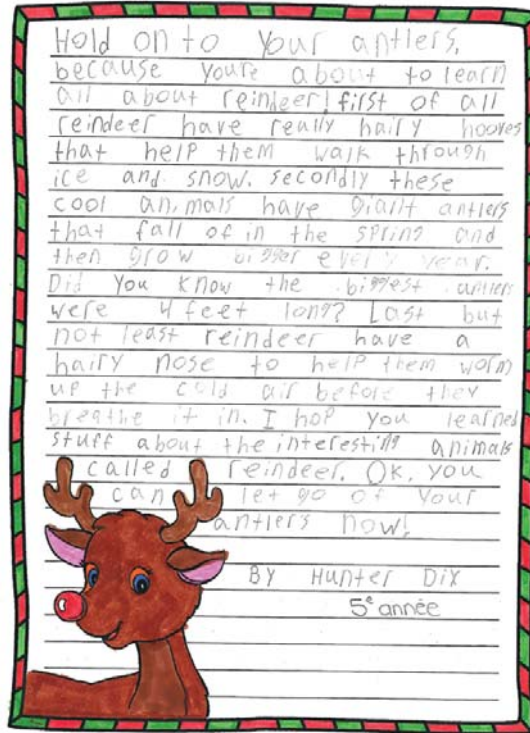

Another reason is you will be too "fat", and Mrs. Claus will not like you, you will be too fat, and you could crush one of your elves or you will be too fat to fit down the alleys in your village. You will be too fat to fit in your sleigh, or you will be too fat, and the police officers may catch you.

Or you will be too fat and the house's floors will squeak, and the kids will catch you. Cookies are bad for you and will give you cavities.

You will be too fat, you will be too heavy for the reindeer.

And the worst of all is you will not be able to deliver presents and Christmas will be ruined!

The Best Tree

Pick me! Pick me! I'm the best tree in the lot! You need to pick me because I am just the right size. Look over there! He is way too big, and he will wreck your roof. I have lots of branches for ornaments. I can make your house look the best when people come over. I have the best smell ever. In my opinion, I am the best tree in the lot.

I have lots of branches for ornaments. One time a family bought a tree and put a whole bunch of ornaments on it and all the branches broke. Then they came back to the lot and got me, and they put tons of ornaments on me, and I didn't break! Another time a family bought me, and they invited some friends over and their friends tried to take me away because of all my ornaments I could hold on my branches. I can also hold a 100-pound person with only one branch!

I can make your house look the best for when people come over! One time the town put me into a contest against another town and I won because I looked the best with all my lights and ornaments. Another time, two different families wanted me, and they had such a big fight over me that security had to take them away all because I am truly the best tree!

I have the best smell ever. I smell so good that a person wanted to take me to make perfume to sell and make money! I have the best smell ever. Another time, a person tried to hug me because they thought that my rosy cupcake smell would get on them to make them smell good! I am the best tree!

In my opinion, I am the best tree in the lot. I have lots of branches for ornaments. I can make your house look the best for when people come over. I have the most amazing smell ever! Pick me! You know all the reasons that I am the best tree. I think you should pick me!

Cookies and Milk

Hey children! I'm tired of cookies and milk. I want a different snack. Please give me some eggnog and candy canes. I'm Santa and I want different snacks and drinks. I don't want any more cookies and milk for the rest of my big Santa life. I want different snacks because the same snacks every night are boring. I also want to be able to fly with my reindeer. I also don't even like milk with cookies. I think cookies and milk make people fat.

First the same snack is boring. Plus, cookies have sugar so I might have a sugar crash during my flight. If I have a sugar crash during my flight the reindeer will never stop, and I will not deliver any presents to any houses. When I have cookies every night, I get bored. I also don't have any food for the reindeer. Plus, it takes time to eat cookies, so I don't have as much time to deliver.

Next, I won't be able to fly with my reindeer. I will be too heavy. Combined with the sleigh it would be way heavier for them. If I can't fly, I won't be able to get to all the homes this Christmas. Even if they could pull me, it would be way slower because we would be on the ground. When my weight is combined with the presents, it would be more than one thousand pounds! The reindeer's strength can't hold one thousand pounds in the air.

Finally, I don't even like milk with cookies. Please don't ever give it to me because I might get distracted about the taste in my mouth. If I get distracted, you won't be happy because I might take presents instead of giving presents. Now what do you think of that? Cookies and milk are disgusting together because sugar with something that makes your bones strong is not that good.

Now I think that people get fat when eating cookies and drinking milk. If I get too fat I won't be able to fit down the chimney. The same snacks are boring every night. I won't be able to fly with my reindeer. I don't even like milk with cookies! Children don't ever give me milk and cookies again please! Now To All A Good Night!

Santa in the Cave

So one Christmas, Santa went in the cave! Then he gave the bats some presents. Then Santa went to the village and gave everyone presents. What did Santa do after?

Go to the Gym, Santa!

Hey Santa. Down here! My name is Slater. I came all the way from Canada. I need to tell you something. The issue is that you gained alot of pounds, you need to get in shape! My advice for you is to go to the gym and lose some fat. Also lay off the cookies and eat something healthier before Christmas.

A reason you need to lose some pounds is because you cannot go house to house if you do not lose weight. An example is that if you are fat, you cannot enter the chimney to put the presents in the house. Another example is that you cannot go back up to your sleigh because the chimney is too small to get out of.

A second reason you need to lose weight is because you will not be able to ride your sleigh and it will break as soon as you sit down in the sleigh. Your reindeer will not be able to carry you around the globe. You cannot drive your sleigh because you will cover the buttons.

Another reason you need to lose weight is because you need to jump to houses but you cannot do that because you're fat. If you are fat, you cannot jump, and you might fall to the ground. You will not be able to go into the houses because you will be stuck in your sleigh.

My advice for you is for you to go to the gym and lose some fat. Also lay off the cookies and eat healthier food before Christmas. My first reason is for you to lose some pounds because you cannot go house to house. My second reason is that you cannot ride your sleigh. My last reason is that you cannot jump into houses. Those are my reasons why you need to lose weight!

Please go to the gym!
