

Celebrating Dad with the whole family

Are you thinking of gathering the whole family together to celebrate this Father's Day? There's no better way to forge lasting memories than by spending time all together doing something Dad enjoys.

Does your father love the open air? A picnic, a fishing trip, a hike in the woods or a kayaking excursion would certainly put a smile on everyone's face! Why not test your family's sense of adventure with a round of geocaching, a modern-day treasure hunt that's fun for all ages? Better yet, why not go all out with a weekend camping trip?

If your father is more of the athletic type, a soccer game, bike ride, round of minigolf or treetop obstacle course are all great ways to spoil him with memoorable family time. If he loves water, then an outing to the local pool or a visit to the nearest waterpark would certainly brighten his day! Perhaps you have a pool? If so, you can always organize a series of games the whole family can enjoy (get out the water guns!) and top the day off with a good old barbecue. Fun and laughter guaranteed!

Finally, in case of bad weather, try your luck at the bowling alley, catch a movie on the big screen, cook up a storm in the kitchen or gather in the den for a round of video or board games. And why not have your father revisit his childhood with an exciting game of hide-and-seek in the dark? Get those flashlights ready!

Whether it's a picnic, a friendly soccer game or an outing to the nearest waterpark or cinema, choose an activity that Dad loves to do with his kids!

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Gift ideas for every kind of dad

Do you wish to spoil your one-of-a-kind dad this Father's Day, but are in need of a little inspiration? Whether he's a handyman, a cook, a movie buff, a gardener, a tech addict, a fitness enthusiast, an adventurer, a music lover, an artist, an environmentalist or a foodie, there's sure to be something out there that's a perfect fit. Consider these suggestions:

- Books. Between crime novels, travel guides, cookbooks, reference books, biographies or crossword and Sudoku compilations, your local bookstore is a goldmine when it comes to thoughtful gift ideas.

- Tickets. Treat your dad to a night out on the town with tickets to a concert, a musical, a sporting event, a comedy show, a gallery exhibit or a local fair — the possibilities are truly endless!

- Delicacies. You know what they say: the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Treat your father's taste buds to an assortment of jams, decadent chocolates, good wine, fine cheeses or his favourite candy. Sweet gifts never fail to please!

- Package deals. Entertainment, travel, relaxation, culinary, lodging — there are many package deals available in every leisure category. Search for the perfect package that matches your dad's interests this Father's Day!

- Memberships. Choose one of the countless memberships available and sign your dad up for the gift that keeps on giving. Consider something practical, like a newspaper subscription, gym membership or monthly transit pass.

- Accessories. Whether it's for his car, the kitchen or his favourite sport, choose from an incredible array of unique gadgets, tools and accessories (or pieces of equipment) to put a smile on your father's face.

Finally, when in doubt, you can never go wrong with a simple gift card. After all, who knows what would truly make your father happy better than the man himself?

Many thanks to a wonderful dad

Every year, we dedicate the third Sunday of June to our beloved fathers. And with good reason; Dad played many different roles on a daily basis, and often still does. Whether he's playing superhero, protector, adviser, confidant, nurse, cook or taxi driver, his only goal has always been our well-being and happiness.

A constant presence in our lives, he repeatedly puts aside his own needs in order to make us happy, help us and encourage us. He's given us unforgettable memories, from little nothings to the greatest moments. He taught us his solid values, spent countless hours with us and, above all, loved us fiercely from the first time he laid eyes on us.

Because of all this, one day isn't really enough to express all our love and gratitude, is it? However, Father's Day is still the perfect opportunity to spend quality time with this man who has played such an important role in our lives. Let's make the most of this occasion to say "thank you" and "I love you," words that warm the heart even more than the most wonderful gift.

And yet, why not take the opportunity to spoil him in turn? After all, as

"world's best dad," he deserves it. What would thrill your father: a new tool or techie gadget? A book or a CD? Tickets for a show or a restaurant meal? A slideshow of family photos or some sports equipment? One thing's for sure: whatever his tastes, he'll really appreciate spending quality time with you, creating even more unforgettable memories.

Father's Day is the perfect opportunity to say "thank you" and "I love you" to your wonderful dad.

A special day for a special dad

Would you like to offer an unforgettable day to your dad to make this Father's Day a real celebration? It doesn't have to be complicated; all you have to do is share one of his passions with him. In doing so, you'll be bringing together the two things that make him happiest: you and his favourite pastime. Need some inspiration? Here are a few suggestions.

If your father loves sports, you'll make him happy with a round of golf

(or mini-golf if you haven't inherited his golfing talent), a bike ride, a kayaking trip or a tennis game. You could also buy tickets to a sports event for an exciting afternoon or evening together. Is he a fan of outdoor activities? If you have the budget, why not plan a camping weekend or a fishing trip together.

If your beloved dad loves an adrenaline rush, give him the opportunity to discover a new thrill by taking him rock climbing, skydiving or go-karting.

Does he prefer cultural outings? The possibilities abound: museum, art gallery, theatre, comedy night or the movies (but let him choose the show). Is he a handyman? He'll love it if you suggest an outing to a local home renovation centre, at your expense, of course. And, if your dad is a foodie, he'll be in his element at a beer tasting, a good restaurant, a family barbecue or at a cooking class for two. So, what kind of day would you like to spend with your father?

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Thanks, Dad!

Nowadays we tend to see most special occasions from a commercial point of view, and Father's Day is no exception. But during your search for the perfect gift, be sure not to lose sight of the true nature of this day. Father's Day is a celebration of the most important man in your life and all he gave to his family over the years.

It may be that for you, highlighting Father's Day is a way to acknowledge the important role your dad has played in your life since the day you were born. He was your coach, your marriage counsellor (sometimes unsolicited, but still), your Prince Charming or your superhero, and he worked all his life (along with Mom) to offer the very best to his family. He celebrated your successes with you and always listened to your problems, often relegating his own to the background. Of course, you definitely appreciate all this, but how many times have you actually said so? Make the most of this special June

Sunday to say a simple "thank you" to your Dad for all he has given you. Gifts are a rather ephemeral way of expressing your affection, but a few sincere words will remain forever etched in his memory.

Whether your father is on the other side of the planet or in the same house as you, take a moment to remind him that without him, you wouldn't be where you are today. After all, isn't that the real purpose of Father's Day?

On Father's Day, take the time to thank your dad with a few kind words.
